H. S. CAMP MUSIC GROUPS WILL MAKE DEBUT SUNDAY

Primed by a week of intensive rehearsal, some 250 young musicians attending the Montana High School Music Camp at the University of Montana will present a public concert Sunday (Aug. 7) at 3 p.m. in the University Theater.

The concert will feature the camp bands, orchestra and chorus in a varied program, according to William Manning, camp director.

The 68-piece symphonic band is led by Donald Thulean and the 65-piece concert band, by Dr. James Eversole. Thulean will conduct the 42-piece orchestra, and Dr. Joseph A. Mussulman will direct the 72-voice chorus.

Guest conductor Thulean is musical director of the Spokane Symphony Orchestra and the Spokane Junior Symphony and former dean of Pacific University School of Music. He will be on campus through Aug. 19 as distinguished visiting professor of music.

Dr. Eversole, former director of UM bands, is a member of the faculty of Jersey City State College.

Dr. Mussulman is director of choral organizations at the University.
