REHABILITATION FAIR TO BE HELD
AT UNIVERSITY MAY 6-7

MISSOULA--

A rehabilitation fair at the University of Montana May 6-7 will feature booths and activities related to the needs of handicapped individuals with emphasis on self-help.

UM physical therapy students will operate the booths, and rehabilitated young adults will act as hosts. The fair will be open from 10 a.m.-5 p.m. to the general public, especially those who are concerned with up-to-date rehabilitation methods for invalid patients.

Orders may be taken at the booths for patient rehabilitation aids, and for materials to make inexpensive splints and supportive devices devised by UM student therapists.

Nora Staael, assistant professor of health, physical education and recreation, announced that the booth titles and booth supervisors include :

Speech, Dr. Evan P. Jordon, UM associate professor of speech pathology; Nutrition, Jeanette Hielt, UM visiting professor of Home Economics; Vocational Rehabilitation, Howard Sickles; Occupational Therapy, Barbara Jordon, Missoula Crippled Children and Adults Rehabilitation Center.

Also, Surgical Supply, Dan Harrington, Rocky Mountain Surgical Supply, Butte; Practical Nurses, Mrs. Lois Schultze, Missoula Vocational Technical Center; Back Manipulation, Richard DonTigney, president of the Montana Chapter of the American Physical Therapy Association; Knee Rehabilitation, Naseby Rhinehart, UM instructor and head athletic trainer.

And, Sheltered Workshop, Vivian Hunter, Opportunity Foundation Sheltered Workshop, Missoula; Nursing, Vivian Moy, R.N., instructor, St. Patrick School of Nursing, Missoula; Aids to the Handicapped, Mary Peterson, representative, Aids to the Handicapped, Missoula;

Mat Exercise, Patient Transfer, Bed Exercise, Cold Therapy, Splints and Crutch Walking, Nora Staael, assistant professor, and Vincent Wilson, professor of health, physical education and recreation at UM; First Aid Techniques, Charles F. Hertler, a UM professor of health, physical education and recreation, and students in his classes.
