FORMER KAIMIN EDITOR'S
APPEARANCE ON 'TODAY SHOW'
RESCHEDULED FOR SEPT. 29

MISSOULA--

A television appearance by David Rorvik, 1966 graduate of the University of Montana School of Journalism, has been rescheduled for Sept. 29. Rorvik was originally slated to appear on the network television program "The Today Show" Sept. 24 to discuss his new book, "As Man Becomes Machine."

The book, just published by Doubleday and Co., is Rorvik's third. Rorvik gained national prominence after a portion of his second book "How to Choose Your Baby's Sex" appeared in Look magazine.

In 1965-66 Rorvik was editor of the UM student newspaper, the Montana Kaimin. He received a graduate degree from Columbia University, where he was awarded a Pulitzer Traveling Scholarship. He later worked as a science writer for Time magazine.
