REPORT OF THE BOARD OF GOVERNORS

AND

ADDRESS OF THE PRESIDENT

Justin C. Maloney

In 1933, the Legislature established the Washington State Bar Association. We are met at the 29th Annual Convention Meeting since the establishment of our Association. The State Bar is governed by the Board of Governors, which is charged by law with the executive functions of the State Bar, and the enforcement of the provisions of the State Bar Act. We have seven Congressional Districts in the State of Washington and the seven members of the Board of Governors listed in the order of Congressional Districts are: DeWitt Williams, First; Howard C. Graham, Second; Dale McMullen, Third; James I. Leavy, Fourth; Charles F. Scanlan, Fifth; Carl H. Skoog, Sixth; and George H. Bovingdon, Seventh.

The Board during the past year has met on the average of once a month in general meeting, with such special meetings interspersed as needed or emergency dictated. I am happy to report to you a sincere dedication and devotion to duty and responsibility on the part of each member of the Board and of the Executive Secretary and of the Counsel for the Association. Many local Bar Associations have seen fit to write to the Board requesting that one of the meetings be held in their city. These invitations are most welcome and are accepted with pleasure when the business and commitments of the Association and the Board permit. May I suggest to you that such invitations be encouraged, for the reason that it brings the work of the Association closer to the members, tends to enliven their interest, quicken their appreciation, binds us together more closely and provides the base for professional cordiality, confidence and friendliness.

During the past year, God, in His infinite wisdom, has called from among us two Past Presidents of this Association; Hilton Gardner, who served as such from 1959 to 1960; and F. A. Kern, who served as such from 1953 to 1954. Their contributions to this Association and
