WEATHER FAVORS MAY DAY FROLIC

THE WHOLE AFFAIR WAS ESPECIALLY WELL DONE; COSTUMES OF RAINBOW HUE

No May Queen could have asked a fairer day than that which greeted Miss Sarah Jane Dodge at the May-Day-On-The-Green, Tuesday afternoon; and no May Day could have wished a fairer queen. The Physical Education Department has made May Day a tradition at the Normal College; a tradition of wonderfully harmonized colorings and graceful dances that has done as much, perhaps, as any other one thing to make the college famous. May Days are not always fair and in the years that have past there have been May Days when belated April showers drenched the green and put an end to dancing and sent dancers and assembly scurrying for shelter. There has been even an occasional May Day when an out-of-season snow-storm has smothered, with its white blanket, the songs of birds, the hum of bees, the flitting of butterflies and the springing of flowers, without which May Day is not May Day at all.

But Tuesday, after a morning of whimsical, tantalizing threats, the afternoon was everything that men call fair in weather. The sun, unhindered by a single cloud, beamed on a green that was as fresh and lovely as spring storms always leave a green. Normal creek, flush with the recent rain, gurgled and chattered alluringly. The trees in all the glory of their first full leaf made the happiest of backgrounds to the deliciously colorful mazes of the dances that filled the program well to overflowing.

May Day has only one theme—the awakening of Spring. Each year, however, Mrs. Burton and her clever corps of assistants clothe that theme in a new garb; each new conception, so they say who have seen many May Days, a bit happier than any that have gone before. And so it was with Tuesday's program—new costumes, new dances, new music; and, to watch and listen, one of the biggest and most enthusiastic assemblies that ever filled the hills that make the green a natural amphitheater.

The program began with a grand parade led by the May Queen and her retinue. Part One was a prelude to the coming of Spring, opened by a dance of the Snow Maidens, their fleecy white dresses typifying the yielding of the snow to the warmth of sun and shower. Miss Wolfe, as the Herald of Spring, followed with a dance that brought back visions of a Pan piping in the hills and dryads tripping on freshly greening lawns. The Rain came next, a group dance costumed in clinging gray. Wind followed, a breeziest of solo dances and, having past, gave way to the Blue Sky and white drifting clouds that one remembers even when the showers are forgotten. The Rainbow of Promise figured too in the picture—seven girls gowned in all the multitudinous tints of a May rainbow. Last of all to complete the awakening, Miss Gertrude Freed, in the sunniest of costumes, danced the dance of the warm spring sun. Part One concluded with the crowning of the May Queen.

Part Two was a "Folk Frolic" in which groups garbed in the costumes of the countries which they suggested danced the dances by which the world knows them quite as well as by their languages. Typifying the longing of these peoples for the flow-

The training school chapel program last week was arranged by the pupils of the eighth grade. A committee of boys invited Mr. Eckley, president of the Board of Commerce, to speak on the topic, "Ypsilanti Beautiful." Several posters made in the art class bearing on this subject were on exhibit. Helen Holly explained the posters and William Meyers introduced the speaker.

Prof. Lathers has for several years invited the membership of the society to serve the breakfast at his home and again this year the invitation was accepted. The guests of the occasion were President McKenny and Dr. and Mrs. Sherzer.

The studies are very interesting and inspirational, and they are growing in knowledge as well as in numbers. FERRIS INSTITUTE LOSES BY 7-6 SCORE

MT. PLEASANT WINS FROM THE NORMALS BY A 4 TO 3 COUNT

(Rex Murdock)

In an overtime tilt staged upon the Normal diamond Friday afternoon, the Normal College won from Ferris Institute by a 7 to 6 score.

Shadford, who went the whole dozen rounds upon the mound for the local outfit, pitched a brilliant game, striking out 10 men and only permitting eight hits.

The Normal's errors, especially glaring in the fourth, were probably more conducive to the visitors' scores than their hits.

Hole's bingle for two bases in the twelfth with Williams on the key-stone sack put across the winning tally for Ypsi.

Though Johnson pitched sterling ball for the Ferris folks, he was not nearly as effective as Eddie. Shaddy's underhand delivery had a strong perclivity to hoodwink the invaders and to observe his neat change of pace was refreshing.

A twelfth round knockout:
1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 R H E
Ferris 0 0 0 0 4 0 1 0 1 0 0 0 6 8 1
Ypsi 0 1 3 0 0 1 0 1 0 0 0 1 7 12 3
Batteries—Ferris, Johnson and Adams; Normals, Shadford and Williams.

The Michigan State Normal College base ball outfit met with reverses when it came up with the Mt. Pleasant sluggers last Saturday on Normal field. However, it was expected that the Central Normals would put up a good game and only a streak of bad luck on either side would decide the game.

Pat O'Hara, who pitched a great game for the local institution, suffered severe breaks in the eighth. With a man on second and third and two out, the next Central batsman hit the Irish boy's offering for a slow grounder just inside third base. It looked as though Hole should have snared the pill in its course toward left field but the ball slipped from his hands and the hope of a Normal victory faded fast away.

Had the ball been intercepted at third, the Normalites would have been the unquestioned victors, the final count being 3 to 1, Ypsilanti, rather than 4 to 3, Mt. Pleasant.

Coach Rynearson said the ball was a nasty type to handle and advised the scorekeeper to give Mt. Pleasant a hit and so Hole was not chalked up an error.

The Normal outfit outplayed Mt. Pleasant in most every stage of the game and their defeat was an undeserving reward for their persistent efforts to subdue the Central Normal College.

As it ended:
1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 R H E
Mt. Pleasant 0 0 0 0 1 0 3 0 4 5 0
Normal 1 0 1 0 0 0 1 0 0 3 8 2
Batteries—Mt. Pleasant, LaCronier and Wift; Normals, O'Hara and Williams.

Miss Frances Barnum and Miss Mary Brobst of Toledo physical training department were in Ypsilanti for the May Day program. They are both M. S. N. C. alumni.

LAST CHANCE TO BUY 1921 AURORAS

AN AURORA FOR EVERY STUDENT IF CONTRACTS ARE SIGNED AT ONCE

Beginning Wednesday, the Aurora Board promises one more sale of contracts.

In spite of the unprecedented sale of Aurora contracts this year the board is still receiving daily requests for more books, until at last special arrangements have again been made by which the printers promise a few more copies, provided that the contracts are sent in immediately. The board has decided therefore to make on more drive which will be positively the last.

It is certain that no student should leave the college without an Aurora for every year of his residence there. Nothing else can ever fill its place as a memento of college days and no one souvenir will ever be so highly cherished in the years to come. Especially is this true of this year's Aurora. Every effort has been made to make it representative of the whole student body, and no event of this splendid college year has escaped attention in its pages.

The Aurora is published for you. Every student in the college should have one and no sacrifice is too great that makes its purchase possible.

Friday, May 13, was not an unlucky day at all, according to the reports of President McKenny and Prof. Hoyt, who attended the meeting of the Flint M. S. N. C. alumni. The meeting was held in the First Presbyterian church and was attended by 110 enthusiastic graduates. Miss Anne C. Wiggin, '04, assistant superintendent, presided. After a banquet and a delightful musical program President McKenny spoke on the changes in the Normal College, and Prof. Hoyt gave a brief address on the changing views in education. Mr. Hugh Morrison, '15, head of the physical training department, was elected president of the Flint alumni. The arrangements for the meeting were made by Miss Wyla Waterman, '10, who is principal of the Rankin school. Congratulations, Flint.

The Treble Clef sorority girls were delightfully entertained at a one o'clock dinner at the home of Mrs. K. L. Stone, 607 Ellis street.

FRESHMAN SPEAKERS WILL CONTEST SOON

WINNERS OF FIRST AND SECOND PLACES TO BE AWARDED $15 AND $10

Eligibility

The contest is open to all students regularly enrolled in the General Office at the time of the contest as freshmen and who are carrying at least three college subjects.

Manner of Conducting the Contest

There shall be posted on the Oratorical Association bulletin board a list of subjects for speeches. For the 1921 contest the list is as follows: 1. The mission of Roosevelt; 2. Making a living vs. making a life; 3. Make a plea for education in a democracy; 4. How shall we imbue 100 millions of people with the message of Americanism?; 5. Shall we adopt socialism?; 6. Justify and make a plea for capitalism; 7. A plea for idealism; 8. Make a plea for religion as the foundation of human progress; 9. We must abolish the strike; 10. Emphasize labor's responsibility in industry; 11. The meaning of Americanism; 12. The right of free speech in America; 13. Make a plea for a more helpful foreign policy; 14. A young man's (woman's) mission in an age of reconstruction; 15. A constructive immigration policy.

All contestants are asked to study these subjects in a general way and to gather fundamental ideas about them.

The subjects shall be assigned by lot two days before the tryouts. The order in which contestants shall draw shall be determined by lot. After the first drawing of subjects, contestants may draw again, promptly making their choices and returning the rejected subjects.

A second drawing of subjects shall take place after the tryouts and at least three days before the final contest. The order in which the contestants shall draw shall be determined by lot. In case a contestant draws the subject upon which he spoke in the tryouts, he shall not use this subject but shall draw again his first drawing not being counted. As in the tryouts, after the first drawing of subjects, contestants may draw again, promptly making their choices and returning the rejected subjects.

Judging Contestants

Speakers will be judged upon the general excellence which they show in the presentation of their subjects. Consideration will be given to—the possession of real ideas, the ability to organize them effectively, the power to analyze conditions, facility in the use of clear, convincing English, and a good platform presence, including quality of voice, pronunciation, gesture, directness, variety, emphasis, and persuasiveness of manner, and the use of the speaking rather than the essay style. Judges will give special attention to whether the speaker talks directly to his subject, to his persuasive power and to whether he succeeds in making his speech, not merely a presentation of facts, but a real message.

The judges shall choose three speakers and an alternate from the tryouts, with the possibility that the alternate may be permitted to participate in the final contest.

Speeches

Speeches shall not be longer than eleven minutes with a two-minute warning. They shall be given without the aid of notes, although speakers may, if they wish, carry to the platform a card, not larger than a visiting card, as memory help. Other things being equal, judges will give preference to those speakers who do not require assistance.

Time of Contest

The tryouts will occur in Room 38 on Thursday evening, June 2, at 7:00 o'clock. The final contest is scheduled to occur in the College Theatre on Thursday evening, June 9, at 8:00 o'clock.

TREBLE CLEF

The Treble Clef annual spring party was held at the Washtenaw Country Club on Friday evening, May 20.

The club was charmingly decorated in a Japanese style. Many colored butterflies floated from the ceiling, interspersed with numerous Japanese lanterns. The walls and corners were made especially attractive by garlands of cherry blossoms. The oriental atmosphere was aided by perfumed incense curling from many hidden recesses. Fans of many colors mingled with shrubbery ornamented the walls.

Japanese favors were showered upon the dancers and during the latter part of the evening a carnival dance added to the joy making.

Ice cream and wafers were served. Among the alumni members present were Alice Gibson, May Gibson Ella May Dacey, Ruth Reader, Grace Haack, Mary Jewel and Florence Lane, Detroit; Dora Stein, Ann Arbor; Marjorie Mitchell and Edna Dewey, Monroe; Roxie Alexander and Margaret Dubois, Wayne; Evelyn Hock, Chelsea; Miriam C. Mritz, Ypsilanti.

KAPPA PSI

The Masonic Temple was transformed into a beautiful garden on Saturday evening, when the Kappa Psi sorority entertained some two hundred and fifty guests at their annual May dance.

An artificial garden was at one side of the platform and was very pretty with its greenery and babbling fountain. A white lattice fence divided the garden from the rest of the room. Within the entrance of the hall was a large white pergola profused with lilacs and other flowers. The corners of the room were tastefully decorated with wicker furniture and the platform, where Bergin's orchestra played, was a mass of apple blossoms and honeysuckle.

In the adjoining room refreshments were served throughout the evening, and it was here a pleasant surprise occurred, when the marriage of Miss Mildred Chadwick, a Kappa Psi alumna of 1918, to Mr. Clarence Hartsuff of Detroit was announced. The wedding occurred in Detroit earlier in the day. A very informal reception to the young people followed.

Among the Kappa Psi alumni present from out of town were the following: Misses Helen Chadwick and Charlotte Reid of Highland Park; Violet Ramshaw, Kathleen McCauley, Marion McConnell, Hazel Smith, Margaret Hill and Lorraine Heath of Detroit; Gladys Chapman of Northville; Marguerite Carpenter, Sue Tribble and Lillian Boag of Ann Arbor, D. and Mrs. Emily Winfield of Leslie, Helen Bliss of Romeo, and Helen Bennett of Dearborn.

DELTA PHI

The Delta Phi sorority held a formal initiation at the home of their patroness, Mrs. C. O. Hoyt, on Wednesday, May 12. The initiates were Alice Norton of Muskegon Heights and Edna Hall of Saginaw, and Miss Jessie Richardson as a faculty member.

FRATERNITIES

ALPHA TAU DELTA

The Alpha Tau Delta fraternity gave an informal dancing party in the men's gymnasium last Friday evening, May 20. Fisher's orchestra furnished the music. The chaperones of the party were Dr. and Mrs. Gorton and Prof. and Mrs. Peet. Punch was served. A number of alumni members were present.

Mr. M. F. Dick, '01, now with the Busch Machine Works, Holland, Mich., was a campus visitor last week.

THE AMERICAN SCHOOLMASTER THE TEACHER'S FRIEND

Suggestive, Interesting, Well Written Articles By Men Who Have Experienced Difficulties

The American Schoolmaster is a monthly magazine published at the Michigan State Normal College and presumably a magazine with which most of the students are not familiar. Particularly helpful is it to teachers out in the field. It is suggestive as well as interesting and helpful. It is a journal of all educational movements which are promoted by recognized authorities. Members of our own faculty often contribute articles of merit. It has been said that a prophet is not honored in his own land. We have members on our faculty nationally recognized authorities in their various lines of work whose writing are solicited by magazines the country over and yet we know very little about them. This should not be. The policy of the managing editor has been to present live and timely material which is of interest, not only to the members of the profession but to any one interested in what is transpiring in the educational world.

Do you know what happens to the men and women of the college after graduation? If not, read the American Schoolmaster.

Do you know what happened to the faculty of the college after you left? If not, read the American Schoolmaster.

Did you ever wonder how to arrange a Washington or Lincoln birthday program? If not, read the American Schoolmaster.

Do you know what the much talked of Smith-Towner Bill is? If not, read the February number of the American Schoolmaster.

Did you read President McKenny's widely quoted editorial? It is in the February number of the American Schoolmaster.

Did you know what to do on the day of the Horace Mann anniversary? You could have, had you read the April number of the American Schoolmaster.

Did you know what the Michigan teachers think about modern educational movements? You would know if you had read the resolutions of the M. S. T. A. and of the Schoolmasters Club in the American Schoolmaster.

Did you know that a Citizens' Conference on Education convened at Lansing in March and do you know what happened? It was written up in the American Schoolmaster.

If you are a science teacher, do you know what is happening in Secondary Science? Dr. Gorton told all about it in the American Schoolmaster.

Do you know where normal school teachers are trained and why? Read the American Schoolmaster, May number.

Are you interested in the historic development of education? Read Dr. Harvey's articles in the April and May numbers of the American Schoolmaster.

Do you want to know about the up to date question of mental tests and measurements? Read the May number of the American Schoolmaster.

What do you know about projects and the project method? Read Prof. Lott's article in the American Schoolmaster.

Do you want to know what new things Supt. Yost and Deputy Supt. Fischer did in Wayne county in the eighth grade examinations? Read the June number of the American Schoolmaster, off the press June 15.

Do you keep up with school legislation? The American Schoolmaster will help.

Do you know the scientific facts about the helps and harms of the movies? Read the June number of the American Schoolmaster.

Do you want to keep in touch with the new educational publications? Read the book reviews of the American Schoolmaster.

The Schoolmaster is not published for financial gain, the amount of revenue from the price of subscriptions defraying only a small part of the expense of publication. One dollar will pay for a years subscription. Address the envelope to The American Schoolmaster, Ypsilanti, Michigan.

MAY DAY FROLIC

ers of spring. Part Two concluded with a group of charming flower dances.

Part Three of the program began with the awakening of the flowers at the touch of the May Queen's magic wand. The Crocus, dainty in her varicolored robes, danced, appropriately first. Then the Robin Red Breasts, in the most original of dresses fluttered in to hoo and strut in truly Red Breast fashion. Spring Beauties and Violets followed in a dainty figure; and then the bluest of Bluebirds, to assure that Spring had really come. Cowslips, Fleur-de-Lis, Bees and Butterflies and even the brilliant Cardinal Birds each danced in turn and tripped to their places in the final picture—a lovely garden scene in which a group of girls in white wound and rewound the May poles while the Queen herself tripped a triumphant measure.

May Day is past once more, leaving behind a charming memory and adding one more achievement to the credit of the Physical Education Department.
