

5-1933

Notes and Personals [Obituary]

American Law School Review

Follow this and additional works at: <http://scholarship.law.nd.edu/wjhoynes>

Part of the Law Commons

---

Recommended Citation

American Law School Review, "Notes and Personals [Obituary]" (1933). 1883–1919: William J. Hoynes. Paper 1.
<http://scholarship.law.nd.edu/wjhoynes/1>

This Article is brought to you for free and open access by the Law School Deans at NDLScholarship. It has been accepted for inclusion in 1883–1919: William J. Hoynes by an authorized administrator of NDLScholarship. For more information, please contact lawdr@nd.edu.

Harry R. Trusler will devote his time during the summer to the administration of the summer session and to legal research in connection with the subject of damages.

Professor D. Slagle will teach at Vanderbilt University during the first term of their summer session. Professors Robert S. Cockrell, George W. Thompson, and Stanley Simonds will spend the summer in travel and study.

The First Yearbook of School Law, of which Dean Harry R. Trusler is a coauthor, has just been published by the Ohio State University Press.

Col. William Hoynes, Dean Emeritus of the College of Law University of Notre Dame, died at St. Joseph's Hospital, So. Bend, Ind., March 28th, at the age of 87 years. Mr. Hoynes was born in Callan, County Kilkenny, Ireland, November 8, 1846. He received the degree A.M. from the University of Notre Dame 1878, and the Honorary degree of LL.D. 1888. The degree of LL.B. was received from the University of Michigan, 1872. The early efforts of Mr. Hoynes were spent in newspaper work. He was editor of the New Brunswick (N. J.) Daily Times, 1873-74; later associated with M. M. (Brick) Pomeroy in editorial work in Chicago; editor Peoria (Ill.) Daily Transcript, 1881-82.

He was admitted to Bar by Supreme Court of Michigan, 1872, Supreme Court of United States, 1875, and the Supreme Court of Illinois, 1877. Practiced law at Chicago 1882-83. He became first dean and professor of law of the University of Notre Dame in 1883, and taught until 1915, when he retired from active service. He was the author of numerous legal treatises in lecture form for students and legal periodicals. Col. Hoynes was appointed Knight Order of St. Gregory by Pope Pius X 1912. He was Republican candidate for Congress 1888, and declined re-nomination in 1904.

Colonel Hoynes, as he was affectionately called, enlisted at La Crosse, Wis., in a Wisconsin regiment in 1861. He was at that time only 15 years of age, and served throughout the Civil War. His remains were buried at La Crosse, Wis.

Thus far, there is no indication that there will be any changes in the faculty of the College of Law for next year.

There will be a summer school offered at the College of Law for a period of six weeks the coming summer. The summer session will begin on Tuesday June 20, 1933, and end on August 2, 1933. Two courses will be offered by Dean Konop for five semester hours of credit: Private Corporations, three semester hours of credit, and Municipal Corporations for two semester hours of credit.

On Thursday evening, February 16, 1933, the Annual Dinner of the Boston University Law School Alumni Association was held at the Hotel Somerset, Boston, Massachusetts, in honor of Dean Homer Albers of Boston University School of Law to commemorate the completion of the fiftieth year of his connection with the school. Dean Albers entered the Law School as a student in 1882 and was graduated with the degree of Bachelor of Laws, magna cum laude, in 1885. In the same year he was appointed an instructor at the School by the late Dean Edmund H. Bennett; in 1892 he was promoted to the grade of professor; and in 1912 he was unanimously elected by the Board of Trustees of Boston University as Dean of the Boston University Law School, which position he has held to the present day.

The toastmaster of the evening was William M. Blatt, Esq., the President of the Boston University Law School Alumni Association.

One of the outstanding features of the program was a radio sketch, "The March of Time," which was announced and directed by Hon. Jay R. Benton, former Attorney General for the Commonwealth. Six speakers, each one reporting the period while he attended the Law School, gave short talks concerning the Dean and the School during the period which he represented. The speakers in "The March of Time" program were as follows: James E. McConnell, Esq., '88; Melvin M. Johnson, Esq., '95; Walter R. Meins, Esq., '05; Hon. John P. Buckley, '15; Herman I. Bush, Esq., '25; Mr. William Davis, Jr., '33.

The speakers of the evening were His Excellency Joseph B. Ely, Governor of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, Hon. Roscoe Pound, Dean of the Harvard Law School, Hon. Charles E. Clark, Dean of the Yale Law School and President of the Association of American Law Schools, Dr. Daniel L. Marsh, President of Boston University, and Dean Homer Albers.

There are no prospective changes in the faculty of the University of Kansas School of Law for the coming year. Professor Burdick, who is on a year's leave of absence, will return in September. He is now on a trip around the world from east to west. During his absence, Professor Robert A. Leflar of the University of Arkansas has been on the faculty.

The 1933 summer session will be divided into two terms of five weeks each. During the first term, courses in Personal Property and Criminal Law will be offered by Professor Jacob, Taxation and Administrative Law by Professor Ray A. Brown of the Uni-