Exoneration Project. Faculty in the News. Student Profiles.

View this email in your browser

NDLS Communicator
Week of 4.15.19

Good morning! We have a lot of news to share please read below. We wish you all a very Happy Easter.

The Latest News

ND Law students help Exoneration Project free Illinois man

3Ls Molly Campbell and Alyssa Slaimen worked with the Exoneration Project on the Donald Whalen case. Read more here.

U.S. Attorney General Alberto Gonzales at ND Law

Former U.S. Attorney General Alberto Gonzales visited Notre Dame Law School on April 8 and spoke about a wide variety of topics — from his upbringing in Humble, Texas, to his work in President George W. Bush's administration.

"I encourage all of you to pursue public service, but go into it with your eyes open and your armor on," Gonzales said. "The higher you go, the more influential or powerful you are perceived to be, the more you are going to be criticized. ... But it's worth it. I wouldn't trade it for a second."

Bill Kelley, who served in the White House as deputy counsel to the president from 2005 to 2007, led the discussion.

Program on Church, State & Society announces 2019 summer fellows

The Program on Church, State & Society has awarded fellowships to four students who will work in a legal capacity for religious institutions this summer. Read more here.

Black Law Students Association holds 2019 awards ceremony

ND Law's chapter of the Black Law Students Association honored faculty and students with awards at the annual banquet on March 30. Read more here.

Featured Student Scholar: Luwie Ganeshathasan

LL.M. student Luwie Ganeshathasan writes about his interest in post-conflict constitutionalism and how his time in undergraduate school coincided with the last stages of civil war in Sri Lanka. Read his profile here.

Students of ACS: Peter Gonzales

3L Peter Gonzales discusses the responsibility to advocate for all people in a Students of ACS student profile here (under the 4/8 post).

Alex Levy quoted in Huffington Post

Alex is quoted about a Florida bill that would require anyone guilty of soliciting sex from sex workers to be added to a public registry. Read more here.

Lloyd Mayer quoted in LA Times

Lloyd talks to the Los Angeles Times in "How a lax IRS let the college admissions scandal continue for years." Read more here.

Patrick Thomas quoted by WSBT

Patrick talks to WSBT about the new tax laws here.

Remarks on the Right of Publicity: Theory and Scope

On the right of publicity, Mark McKenna remarks that the big issues in the field haven't changed much in the last 15 years. Read more here.

Carter Snead to deliver Harvey Lecture at Georgetown

Carter will deliver the 16th annual John Collins Harvey Lecture later this month at Georgetown University. Read more here.

Congratulations!

Winning ND Debate team coached by Law School students Stephen Scheffel and Lenora Popken. Read more here.

This Week's Events

Monday, April 15
A Talk with ABA President Bob Carlson, 12:30 p.m., 1140 Eck Hall of Law

Tuesday, April 16
FAB Bourbon Law with Michael Mercurio. 12:45 p.m., 1140 Eck Hall of Law

Serving as a City Attorney with Aladean DeRose, 12:30 p.m., 1310 Biolchini

Wednesday, April 17
Faculty Meeting, 12:30 p.m., Faculty Meeting Room

Thursday, April 18

Faculty Colloquium, Peg Brinig and Marsha Garrison, Brooklyn Law, 12:30 p.m., Faculty Meeting Room

Football Bowl Season Planning 101 with Jenny Borg, 12:30 p.m., 3130 Eck Hall of Law

Friday, April 19

Good Friday

Sunday, April 21

Happy Easter

Around the Watercooler

Happy Birthday!

April 19-Clint Brown

We would like to celebrate your birthday too! We need your permission first, so please fill out the form here.

Have a great week!

Contact Denise Wager with suggestions, comments, and content.
dwager@nd.edu