The Starch & Stripes

We Dedicate

This Book To . . .

Vera F. Warner

. . . in appreciation for all of the long hours spent in helping to prepare us for our positions on the hospital team. She has helped us to achieve a more complete understanding of the patient in relation to his illness and disability so that we may give better nursing care. We will remember Miss Warner as a nurse in the finest traditions of the word . . . in the hospital scene meeting the patients' needs with kindness and understanding, in the social scene donating much time and effort for the promotion of such activities as the Recruitment Committee and Alumnae Association, and in her home a gracious hostess.

The Nurse

*That cap the nurse on duty wears
Is costlier than the bonnets gay
Worn by the wives of millionaires
Regardless of the price they pay.
'Tis something she herself can make,
A bit of linen, trimmed and turned
The right to it (for mercy's sake)
Was with three years of training earned.*

*That uniform of spotless white
Was costlier than a lady's gown,
'Twas bought with care by day and night
For those with illness stricken down.
The royal robes show royal birth
But every nurse's simple pin
Is emblematic of her worth;
A symbol she has toiled to win.*

*Oh gracious spirit, love imbued,
That can such tender care accord,
Perhaps it is, that gratitude
Must always be your best reward.
Now out of gratitude appears
This tribute, done in simple verse
Unto the dedicated years
Of all who choose to be a nurse.*
