and gently touched the candle. Ruben (center) the second born, decided he liked the candle and proceeded to eat it. Ricky (right) the third of the trio, took matters in his own hands and plunged right into the icing. A birthday party was held Tuesday by the Jaycee Auxiliary, sponsors for the triplets. Rudy, Ruben, Ricky One Year Today

Rudy, Ruben and Ricky Moralez, the triplet sons of Mr. and Mrs. Leandro Moralez, 314 West 14th St., were one year old Tuesday.

Holland's only living triplets, born a year ago in Holland Hospital, celebrated Tuesday at a birthday party given for them by the Jaycee Auxiliary who are sponsoring the triplets.

A big birthday cake and all the food for the party has been arranged by Mrs. William Keizer, chairman, and her committee. Mrs. Bruce Williams, Mrs. Terry Husted and Mrs. William Coupe. Bill DuMond is supplying the cake and the Auxiliary the rest. They are also provided the matching suits the boys wore at the party.

This small Jaycee group has raised money for the triplets in various ways, baking and doing other things to help. They started a Triplet Fund at First National Bank which could use more contributions.

When the triplets were born, everybody wanted to help; some did by contributing money, others by providing diaper service and still others, especially some Horizon girls, did baby sitting. The need for continued support for this fine family is still there. The Holland community can be proud of Mr. and Mrs. Moralez and their 11 children, eight others besides the triplets.

Rudy, the first born of the triplets, now weighs 25 pounds. Ricky weighs 24 pounds and Ruben weighs 23 pounds. They are bright and happy children and are crawling around and trying to talk. They find brother Freddie (Alfredo) a willing interpreter. Freddie was only 18 months old himself when the triplets were born, so he also needs plenty of love and attention.

They had about 38 attending the party. The Moralez home will be bursting at the seams for this happy occasion. Only sad note of the affair will be that their beloved godmother, Mrs. Lawrence Smith, won't be with them. Mrs. Smith died Feb. 24 following heart surgery. Lawrence Smith is the triplets' godfather.

Holland salutes the Moralez triplets and adds this "Happy Birthday."

Bus Line Will Cancel Route

City Council instructed City Manager William L. Bopf at its regular meeting Wednesday to explore all reasonable possibilities for maintaining bus service in the community after Alvin Vander Kolk, owner of Holland and Inter-City Bus Line informed Council that after 24½ years he will discontinue city bus routes March 28.

Vander Kolk's communication stated that the continual decline in revenue and the spiraling cost of operation brought about his decision. He said he would continue charters, school bus runs and make rentals available. He offered to cooperate with anybody interested in operating a bus service for Holland.

Although Council did not pursue the discussion, some Councilmen later expressed concern for the number of elderly persons dependent on bus service, and mulled over possibilities of some service involving smaller vehicles. Such consideration is likely to be included in Bopf's report.

Council approved an agreement between the city and the Michigan State Waterways Commission for a $45,000 grant for the construction of boat launching and park facilities in the expanded area of Kollen Park. This comes under a program whereby the state provides 90 per cent and the city 10 per cent. Council then appropriated $5,000 from the capital improvements fund to the expansion development account and approved hiring Gordon M. Buitendorp Associates Inc. to provide engineering services for the facilities.

Two weeks ago, the city was informed that the Department of Interior Outdoor Recreation Bureau had approved a $30,000 grant for the Kollen Park expansion, covering 50 per cent of the cost of the additional property.

Council scheduled a public hearing Wednesday, March 18, on an application of Bohn Aluminum and Brass Co. which is requesting a variance from fire district requirements with respect to constructing an addition to its plant at 365 West 24th St.

Council acknowledged with thanks gifts from the Hospital Auxiliary Board for new equipment for the hospital totaling $26,600.

The gifts include air conditioning for nurseries, fracture, cysto and recovery rooms, $1,200; 100 M. A. Portable x-ray machine, $7,000; well counter (lab), $1,200; sound slide system and camera for inservice education, $1,200; landscaping, $5,000; new light fixtures for 1957 addition, $2,000; addition to nurses loan fund, $1,500.

Council also acknowledged a subscription to Life Magazine for the hospital from Richard Wooley, and books for Herrick Public Library in memory of Mrs. William Westveer from Dr. and Mrs. John Hollenbach, Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Vanderbush, Mr. and Mrs. Duffield Wade, Mrs. Hazel Hayes, and Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Norris.

Accepted as information was a report from the city manager on letters he had sent persons petitioning for sanitary sewer in Waverly Rd. and 16th St. advising that topographical conditions in that neighborhood prohibit construction of a sewer at a depth greater than 4 to 5 feet if constructed along the route originally requested. He said engineering information indicates a route from Eighth St. south 2,500 feet would provide service for the entire area and suggested petitioners circulate a new petition covering the recommended areas.

Council granted permission to Alvin Bos for using the Windmill Island trademark on purchases at Windmill Island. This trademark appears on the bags of Windmill Island flour.

Council received for study a report from the city manager covering air conditioning and fire protection for City Hall prepared by the firm of Dean, Fairbrother, Gunther and Bowman.

Also renewed was the certification of the Workable Program (Community Improvement) necessary in urban renewal applications.

Council granted permission to the American Cancer Society to solicit funds on various dates in April, and acknowledged a letter from the Universal Thing (Organized Young People of Grace Episcopal Church) thanking Council for cooperation on the candlelight carol sing Dec. 23, 1969.

Low bid of $1,169.15 entered by Northland Soil Service of Grandville for 24½ tons of fertilizer for Park and Cemetery departments and Windmill Island was approved. It was the lowest of five submitted.

Certifications were confirmed for Councilman Smith, Wade Drug Co., engineering department, $4.20; Councilman Dyk, Holland Litho, engineering department, $1; Councilman Peerbolt, Peerbolt Inc., engineering, $1.90.

Council approved the outline of a request from the city clerk to the Michigan State Highway Department to close River Ave. and Eighth St. on certain occasions for Tulip Time May 13-16. These include parades, street scrubbing and klompen dancing including rehearsals.

Two suggestions from Councilman Al Dyk were referred to the city manager for study, one a preliminary study on mounting traffic on River Ave. in the Black River bridge area, a study which may involve other agencies particularly in financing a possible second bridge, and the other asked no-litter signs and possible fines in certain areas. Dyk said the current thaw is revealing considerable litter in city curbs and other areas.

Councilman Robert Dykstra asked the city manager to determine what other cities are doing about cars parked on lawns after Dykstra received several complaints on such a matter here.

Mayor Nelson Bosman presided at the meeting which lasted less than a half hour. The invocation was given by the Rev. Gerald Postma of Maranatha Christian Reformed Church.

Padnos Petition Tabled for Study

The Board of Appeals tabled one application and approved two at a meeting Thursday night in City Hall lasting over two hours.

Tabled for further study was the application of Louis Padnos Iron and Metal Co. for installing machinery to receive junked automobiles and other ferrous metallic items turning the materials in three steps to fist-sized metallic pieces for reuse by the steel industry.

Approved were variances for Kenneth Potter for an addition to a produce building at 240 East Eighth St. and Edgar Mosher for building a house on the northeast corner of 27th St. and Lawdale Ct. Setbacks had been in question.

Mission Truck Ruined in Fire

A twin-cab camper truck, being prepared for missionary work in Alaska, was destroyed by fire Monday after gasoline fumes from one of the truck tanks apparently was ignited by a space heater, Holland firemen said.

The truck, a 1970 'Crew Cab', was being worked on in the cement block building housing the Ted Voss Septic Tanks firm, at 995 Lincoln Ave. No serious injuries were reported. Loss to the camper truck was placed at $5,000.

Ron Jousma of 10793 Adams St., said he was scheduled to drive the truck to the Palmer, Alaska area where Arctic Missions is operating a missionary field. Jousma said the truck and camper was paid for by funds donated by Holland area residents.

Jousma said he was able to back the truck from the Voss building before flames spread. Also damaged in the fire was an overhead door to the building. Damage to the interior of the Voss building was not believed extensive.

Arrangements were being made to secure another truck for the Arctic Mission group, Jousma said.

Members of the mission group include Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Den Bleyker of Holland and their three children. They have been in the Alaskan mission field, where they are teachers, at the Arctic Training Center for Eskimo and Indian Children, for about four years.

Den Bleyker is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Den Bleyker and his wife, the former Linda Riemersma, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Al Riemersma of 649 Butternut Dr.

The Den Bleykers and five other families in the Arctic Missions are sponsored by individuals and not a particular church denomination, said Mrs. Riemersma.

She said a group of Holland area people helping support the mission was donating the truck which Jousma was to drive to Alaska starting Wednesday.

Youth Held In Breakin

Holland police said Monday they have recovered a quantity of watches and radios and arrested a young man in connection with a breakin Saturday at the Warehouse Surplus Store at 473 West 24th St.

Efrain DeLeon, 17, of 393 West 22nd St., charged with breaking and entering, demanded examination at his Holland District Court arraignment today. Bond of $2,000 was being furnished and a hearing date was to be scheduled later.

Officers said the loot recovered included wrist and pocket watches, radios, rings and cigarette lighters. The value of the recovered loot was not immediately determined.

Police said entry to the building was gained by breaking a window in a front door and reaching through to unlock the door. Officers said the building was entered about 4 a.m. Saturday and police were notified about four hours later when an employee of a firm operating out of the same building noticed the broken door window.

Officers continued their investigation Monday and said there was a possibility the warehouse thieves may be connected with other recent breakins in the city.

The Warehouse Surplus Store is operated by Earl Van Maurick of 39 East 13th St.

Power Loss Hits 3,000 On Northside

An estimated 3,000 Consumers Power Co. customers north of Lake Macatawa, including the Holland municipal water filtration plant, were without electric power for up to one hour and 26 minutes Tuesday when a pole on a main feeder line shorted and caught fire.

The outage occurred at 6:42 a.m. in an area north of Lake Macatawa to Tunnel Park from Lake Michigan east to US-31. Full service was restored by 8:08 a.m.

Ed Vander Veen, Consumers' electric superintendent, said an insulator on the pole, along 144th Ave. between Lakewood Blvd. and Ottawa Beach Rd., was damaged by rifle fire and caused a short which set fire to the pole and tripped circuit breakers at four substations.

The pole carried a 46,000 volt main feeder line.

Vander Veen said Consumers has been experiencing trouble in the area with insulators being broken by rifle shot. He says the company has a standing $500 reward for information leading to the arrest and conviction of those responsible for shooting pole insulators.

A spokesman at the Holland water plant opposite Tunnel Park said the plant switched to emergency electric generators and gasoline driven pumps. He said there was no interruption in the operation of the water system.

Consumers said other plants affected by the power outage included Holland Die Casting & Plating at 582 East Lakewood Blvd., and Chris-Craft Corp., 100 Aniline Ave.

Christian Society Sets Budget

Record Figure Okayed At Annual Meeting Of School Group

A record budget of $1,396,223 for the Holland Christian Schools was overwhelmingly approved Thursday night by Society members at the semi-annual meeting held in the Christian High School auditorium.

The new budget represents an increase of $112,225 over the present operating figure for this year. Ken Vander Zwaag, chairman of the finance committee reported.

On the expenditure side, the biggest increase is reflected in the instructional salary item. The figure set for salaries next year is $1,056,820, a boost of $91,000, although part of the increase is due to the need for additional high school teachers.

The administrative figure in the new budget is up approximately $2,500, due in part to switch over to computer service for some of the bookkeeping. Operation and maintenance of school plants remained virtually the same as last year at about $125,000, including salaries.

Under income, tuition is expected to bring in $196,000 while parent contributions is set at $951,725, and increases of about $97,000. Other income figures are Sustaining Membership Plan, $120,000; churches and societies, $87,000; school circles and aids, $23,500 and gifts, bequests etc. $20,000.

Classes in Catechism Given Handicapped Children

Catechism classes for the handicapped children of Holland and vicinity have grown since the small beginning one and one-half years ago, November, 1968. The group has blossomed from eight students and eight tutors under the direction of William Paarberg to the present 30 students and 30 tutors.

At Third Reformed Church on Thursday nights from 7 to 8 p.m. spiritual education is offered to those who are deaf, perceptually handicapped, culturally deprived, maladjusted, speech handicapped, physically handicapped and mentally handicapped.

Two main groups now exist: preschool and elementary, and junior high through young adults.

There might be a puppet show of the story of Zaccheus put on by Hope College students in one part of the church, while others are role-playing the "Good Samaritan" under the direction of Western Theological Seminary field students.

Teacher specialists, Marcia Vanderwel, Gail Alderink, Margaret DeVoss, Margaret Rynbrandt and Betsy Paarberg, assist Bill Paarberg in the supervision of the program. Adults from the Hope Church task force, Vida Harper, Isla Van Eenenaam, Al Smith, Jan Smith and Libby Hillemonds are tutors.

High school and college students, Anita Rediger, William Alto, Vicki Weiss, Jim Brinkman, Sam Simmons, Nancy MacKenzie, Sue Vanderwel, Suzi Maxwell, Marcia Tjezi, Chris Kazen, Dave Edyvean, Robb Adams, Liz Gersbacher, Charles McGill, Mary Hage, Holly Nelms, Deanna Burke, Sue Van Bruggen, Ilene Reeus and Joanne Hernberg round out the tutoring force.

A seminary team ministry consisting of Ron Wiersma, Bill Bischoff and Don Plantinga build the curriculum of the senior section. William H. Vandewater helps with transportation.

Every Thursday night the catechism begins with a call to worship by Mr. Paarberg. Songs are taught by Mrs. Marcia Vanderwel. Mr. Paarberg says a prayer, and a general lesson is presented to all. Then each tutor with his individual student separates for instruction geared to the specific needs of the child. The meaning of the lesson is developed and reinforced at the student's level, with special adaptations for his handicap.

After each session, cookies and punch are provided for a time of Christian fellowship. The parents take turns providing the refreshments.

Beginning now and continuing for four weeks, Fred Leaske, school diagnostician, will meet with the parents of the children during the catechism session. Individual and corporate needs and desires will be discussed. Pastors of the children's churches are also encouraged to attend.

Mr. Paarberg states that the tremendous growth of the program is due a great deal to the enthusiasm, reliability and cooperation of the tutors. Parent backup is also a vital part of the strength.

Reformed and Christian Reformed Church have formed the governing board.

ASWA Hears Roscoe Giles

The Holland Chapter of the American Society of Women Accountants held its regular meeting Tuesday in the Festival Room of Hotel Warm Friend.

"Problems of the Consumer Today" was the subject of a talk given by Roscoe Giles, chief administrative officer of the Holland Chamber of Commerce. He suggested that at times the consumer does expect too much but also warned against fraudulent advertising or deceit. The consumer should check for bargains and at the same time be aware of his part in any contract between buyer and seller.

Mr. Giles gave rules, also given by the Consumer Buying Guide, including buy from reliable businessmen or check the business out; don't shop for price alone read advertisements carefully; learn to recognize an honest businessman; be wary of bargains too good to be true and take contracts seriously. He was introduced by Esther Bareman.

The president of the chapter, Hannah Jipping, reminded members of the Eastern Regional Conference to be held in Cleveland April 30 to May 2. She also read an invitation from the Grand Rapids chapter to attend its public relations dinner March 7.

Miss Wilma Beukema gave the invocation.

The Cost of Following Jesus
Mark 8:34-38; Luke 14:25-33
By C. P. Dame

We are a cost-conscious people. "How much is this article now?" After the price has been given the words, "Price has gone up again," often follow. The cost of following Jesus is the same as it ever was.

I. Discipleship costs. "Whoever will come after Me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross and follow Me." To deny self means to say "no" to self which is not easy, and to say "yes" to Jesus—to de-throne self and to enthronate Jesus as Lord.

Cross-bearing implies sacrificing for the sake of Jesus. Only the Christian bears a cross. Some Christians lose friends because they are believers, others jobs, some opportunities, others business. The person who is unwilling to make sacrifices for Christ is unfit for discipleship.

2. Those who want to save their lives will lose it. Those who are willing to lose their lives for the sake of Christ will save their lives. It is not unusual for men who want material success to die inside. Some people are busy trying to gain the whole world and in the process they are losing their souls.

Wealth does not give satisfaction. Getting it often brings disillusionment. It can't mend broken hearts nor can it give salvation and its joys nor eternal life. Timely indeed is the question, "Or what shall a man give in exchange for his soul?" Priceless indeed is a man's soul. Our age ought to learn this fact.

3. Jesus demands first place. Although the Lord praised the family He said that He must be put first. If a person puts his family before Jesus he cannot be a disciple. Jesus commands us to hate those dearest to us if they seek to lure us from Him. And he must hate himself also. Today we should take seriously the costly demands of Jesus and accept them.

4. Discipleship calls for an appraisal. Jesus uses two illustrations to teach that it was necessary to count the cost of becoming a disciple. He tells about a man who planned to build a tower in his vineyard. The sensible thing to do is to count the cost before beginning to build lest he begin and discover that he can't finish the job, and people make fun of his shortsightedness. The other illustration is that of a king who before he starts a war make sure of his resources.

Note the words of Jesus: "So likewise, whoever he be of you that forsaketh not all that he hath, he cannot be My disciple." Jesus does not compromise.

Exchange Club Hears Pilot Tell of Rescue

This week members of the Holland Exchange Club were privileged to hear an address by an Air Force pilot who is the only living man to bail out of a jet plane flying at a speed of 500 knots. The speaker, James DeVos, was introduced by Robert Hall.

Dr. De Vos gave some detailed information of the mechanics of a jet especially those parts which function when a pilot finds it imperative to bail out. In his case the control of the speed did not function and he had no choice.

Pilots receive intensive training in how to land in any situation. Bombers on a mission have several planes flying above them to act as a protective cover and when a pilot bails out follow him to his landing.

The speaker had slides showing the care given him after landing. He said that up to date they have rescued 1900 air crew men. All service men in active service know why they are there, and what has to be done and they do it. They are real true Americans, he said.

World Leadership Thrust On U.S., Briton Says

"Whether America likes it or not, she is the policeman of the world and a policeman's lot is not a happy one," the Woman's Literary Club was told Tuesday by Stephen Barber, Washington bureau chief of the London Daily Telegraph.

"We can sympathize with you," the English news correspondent said, "because we have been on this particular obstacle course ourselves. England was a world ruler for a century up to the 1890's and this does not make a nation popular."

Barber said it has become rather fashionable in the United States to suggest it is very unpopular in the world, but he believed this was greatly exaggerated, particularly by commentators on tv.

"I say the United States is doing a much better job than the commentators indicate. Some emphasize a gloomy picture saying the Ugly American has been replaced by an Ugly America, but this is not so. Taking over a role of world leadership happened quickly for America and your country probably regrets it has no understanding."

Barber said the United States has been conditioned by history over two centuries for its leadership role and has changed directions many times in the last 25 years. The Truman doctrine which launched the Marshall Plan aimed to contain Communism, and its first serious collision was Korea, "something we regarded as a draw," Barber said.

Then followed a period of retraction and the Eisenhower retreat to a sort of status quo with John Foster Dulles' massive retaliation doctrine, to be followed by Kennedy's flexible response which proved successful in the Russian confrontation over Cuba.

"But flexible doctrines lead to confrontations and got us into trouble in Vietnam. U. S. was resentful that other nations did not respond, and at the time nothing could have been done to dissuade Mr. Johnson and his advisers. The change from massive retaliation to flexible response spawned questions all over the world on what the U. S. really would do, and it led to the break with de Gaulle."

"We are not concerned with the party in power in the United States but I think President Nixon's new stance on low profile replacing confrontation with negotiations no longer sees two supra nations at opposite poles, or on a collision course. The United States and Russia can now discuss the Middle East situation much as parents talking about their teenage children. This multi-polarization has risks and there is no neat triangulation," Barber said.

Members of the Zeeland Literary Club were guests of the Holland club. Weather conditions had impeded the speaker's flight schedule and for a time it appeared a film would be substituted.

Miss Snyder, club president, called attention to the club's annual Attic Specials Friday, March 13. Mrs. Albert Timmer, chairman of the necrology committee, paid tribute to two members, Mrs. Irma Swanson, a relative newcomer who died Feb. 13 in Oceanide, Calif., and Mrs. Henry G. Pelgrim, longtime member who died Feb. 20.

In a ballot election, all officers were reelected. They are Mrs. De Nooyer, president; Mrs. G. S. Mackenzie, first vice president; Mrs. Thomas De Pree, second vice president; Mrs. John Schutten, recording secretary; Mrs. William Van't Hof, corresponding secretary; Mrs. John Heyboer, treasurer. The Fire Brigade was first organized in 1966 by the division's former safety director, Henry Parks, now safety coordinator for the entire Chemicals Group. Parks was also in attendance.

During the meeting fire extinguishers for home use were given as prizes to Anthony Bakker, Carl Brown, Al Vanden Brink and Dave Roelofs.

Brigade captains are Les Riemersma, first shift; John L. Wilson, second shift; Bud Cook, third shift, and Gordon Weighmink, general foreman, is fire marshal.

"RIGHTS FOR ALL"

We have had reams of copy from editorial writers, all of whom have suddenly become constitutional experts, well-qualified to judge what went on in Judge Hoffman's court. They have pleaded for the rights of the seven men on trial and have told us that all our rights are on trial. We won't argue the point. They may be right. And besides we would like to call attention to a few other people who have had their rights invaded, and they haven't been in the court room, though they would like to have their day in court.

We are thinking of the business places in Berkeley, Chicago, Evanston, Washington, Los Angeles, Santa Barbara, and many others our readers could mention. They have had their windows broken, their stores invaded, their customers scared and their rights forgotten. If one must have examples of the loss of security offered by constitutional government, these might be used as examples.

Doesn't anyone speak for the Bank of America? Of course it is rich. But do rights stop at the point where a man or corporation has wealth? Who steps in when a man loses his job because he won't work on Sunday because of religious convictions? And who takes up his case in the press?

Constitutional guarantees apply to all segments of society, but when they are applied unequally they become something less than constitutional guarantees. This has been true in the past when certain segments of our society did not receive their rightful regard as members of the community. It can also be true when we fail to take into consideration the rights of banks, supermarkets and department stores simply because they must arrange to replace their damaged places of business or go out of business.

Hudson Noses Out 'Shinny' For Crown

Unfortunately for Hope College fans, the computer proved right here Saturday evening in the Civic Center, as Alma dropped the Flying Dutchmen, 84-72 in the season finale basketball game for both squads.

The computer had predicted that the Dutchmen would lose to the Scots by a 79-75 score which was announced to the large crowd after the conclusion of the contest.

Hope, which lost a chance for its 700th all-time victory and also a winning season finished the season with an overall record of 11-12 and 5-7 in the MIAA. On the other hand, Alma closed the season 8-4 in the league and 13-8 overall.

Coupled with a losing season last year, the Dutchmen suffered their first back to back losing season since 1927-28, 28-29.

Hope's fine guard Dan Shinabarger lost in his bid to overtake Charles Hudson of Alma for MIAA scoring honors in the game. Although Shinabarger outscored the Alma flash, 26-16 he lost the title by two points. Shinabarger had to score 13 more points in the game than Hudson to win the title outright.

With the crowd going wild everytime Shinabarger scored, Hope battled the Scots on even terms in the first half. Dan ended the first half by scoring 20 of Hope's 43 counters.

In the meantime, Hudson was held in check by Dana Snoop and Lorenzo Howard in the half, as he was only able to notch six points. Hudson hit on only one of seven shots in the half while Shinabarger pumped in nine of 16, with most of them coming on nifty moves and fine team play by Hope.

Although only outscored by two field goals in the game, 32-30 Hope could only hit on 12 of 22 free throws compared to Alma's 20 of 28.

With Alma's Ike Nietring taking charge in the second half by scoring 10 of his teams high 19 points, the Scots took charge in the game by holding a 10-point spread, 71-61 with 7:43 left.

Alma's rugged defense held Shinabarger to six points in the second half while Hudson who had to go underneath for his points tallied 10 to win the scoring crown by two.

Besides the 26 points scored by Shinabarger, Ken Hendrix and Howard each tallied 12. Grand Haven sophomore Nietring led the Scots with 19 while Hudson poured in 16 and Al Vanderneer 14. Reserve Jerry Hills added 10.

Alma edged the Dutchmen in rebounding, 58-57 as Nietring paced the winners with 16 while Hendrix led Hope with the same number. Dave Gosselar chipped in with 12.

Hope connected for a 39 per cent accuracy mark from the court, 30 of 76 while the Scots hit on 32 of 76 attempts for 42 per cent.

A disappointed Coach Russ DeVette said, "we sure are disappointed with the loss, since we came on strong late in the season and thought we had them on the run tonight."

"However, we are looking forward to next season and I can tell you that the positions are up for grabs," concluded DeVette.

The only seniors on Hope's team are Captain Tom Dykstra and Dan Edwards. Dykstra, has been a starter throughout most of his career at Hope while Edwards has been a solid reserve. With starters Shinabarger, Howard, Gosselar, Hendrix and Ric Scott coming back along with the Snoop brothers Marty and Dana, plus big Tom Wolters of Fennville, DeVette said, "the players that want to pay the price from now until the start of the next basketball season will mostly likely be on the starting team next season."

Crusaders Win Game At Charity Line

Hudsonville Unity raced out to a commanding 37-18 lead in the second period but had to hang on for its dear life as Hudsonville High cut the deficit to two points, 60-58 before falling to the Crusaders, 71-63 in Class B District basketball play at West Ottawa Tuesday evening.

The victory puts Coach Andy Ten Harmes's Crusaders in the final contest Saturday against the winner of the Zeeland-Holland Christian game Thursday.

Unity blew the Eagles off the court in the first two periods as they tallied 24 and 17 points in the quarters to hold a comfortable 41-26 advantage at the half.

Coach Jim Hulst's charges couldn't find the handle in the first half as they only scored 26 points. The Eagles hit for 12 in the initial period and 14 in the second stanza.

The Eagles flew back in the second half to make things interesting as they outscored the winners 22-16 and 15-14 in the final two periods. But the damage was dealt in the first half as the Eagles just couldn't catch the poised Crusaders.

Hudsonville rallied to cut the Crusaders huge halftime margin to two points, 60-58 with 3:48 left in the game on the deadly shooting eye of senior forward Ross Phillips who sparked the comeback along with guard Dan Nederveld.

As it turned out, it was the closest the Eagles could get to the talented Crusaders who took complete control of the situation by ripping off 11 straight points while holding Hudsonville scoreless to hold a commanding 71-58 bulge with 1:33 left.

Hudsonville High tallied the final five points to make the final score 71-63 in favor of arch rival Unity.

Although the Eagles never led in the game they did outscore the Crusaders from the field, 28 to 27 in field goals but Unity held a huge advantage from the free throw line to wrap up the contest.

Unity swished 17 of 28 charity tosses to the Eagles seven of 16 while from the field the Crusaders hit on 44 per cent of their shots compared to 40 per cent for the losers.

The Crusaders were especially hot in the first half as they made 17 of 33 from the floor for 51 per cent while the Eagles hit on only 12 of 35 for an icy 33 per cent.

Hudsonville High outbounded the Crusaders, 43-30 as Phillips led both teams with 17 and Sam Runge chipped in with nine. The Crusaders' fine forward Jim Schutt paced his team with 15 caroms while teammate Larry Vander Veen added 11.

Vander Veen, who played a strong overall game for the Crusaders, paced both teams in scoring with 26 counters. Teammates Schutt, Carroll Bosker and Dave Hopkins chipped in with 17, 14 and 10 respectively.

Phillips led the Eagles with 22 while Dan Nederveld followed with 16 and Sam Runge added 12.

Unity ups its record to 12-7 while the Eagles close out the season with a very successful 11-6 mark.

Maroons Play Chix Thursday

Holland Christian's basketball team demonstrated Monday night why they are one of the toughest teams in the state when tournament time rolls around as they mastered the West Ottawa Panthers, 71-51, in front of a capacity crowd in the Panthers' gym.

The Maroons held the upper hand throughout as they shot the Panthers off the floor. Shakey play on the part of West Ottawa in the first quarter proved disastrous while Christian gained momentum as the game progressed.

First quarter action got off to a quick start with the Maroons taking an early 9-4 lead. Christian increased its lead to 17-6 as they dominated both offensive and defensive boards. The Panthers couldn't buy a basket in the first stanza as many shots were missed from in close. Holland Christian outscored the Panthers from the field 9-3 while taking a 20-8 lead at the quarter's end.

The Maroons could do nothing wrong as second quarter play started. Great team play on the part of Christian never gave the Panthers a chance to make up for first quarter blunder.

West Ottawa, however, had one bright spot in its play during the first half. The Panthers managed to convert nine of 11 free throws as they took advantage of Christian's steady fouling.

Holland Christian made up for that difference with room to spare as they connected on four more buckets than West Ottawa while taking a commanding 35-21 halftime lead. Strong defense was another key factor in the Maroons' first half success as guards Ron Scholten and Phil De Jonge applied constant pressure to the Panthers backcourt men.

Scholten and Dick Frens headed the list of first half scorers as they notched 10 and nine points respectively. Dan Tripp and Lynn Loncki muscled in seven points each for West Ottawa.

Shooting percentage told the story in the first half as Holland Christian connected on 43 per cent of its shots in comparison with the Panthers cold 25 per cent from the floor.

West Ottawa's best quarter was the third as they outscored the Maroons 17-16. In this "run and shoot" quarter, both teams went to their style of play as the fast break was working to perfection for both squads.

The Panthers found themselves down 51-38 as they readied for the final eight minutes of play. West Ottawa caught fire in the early stages of the fourth quarter and whittled the Maroons' lead to just eight points, 53-45. Jerry De Groot promptly halted the Panthers surge with his brilliant offensive and defensive play which in turn enabled the Maroons to win going away.

Holland Christian held a decisive rebounding edge for the contest as they pulled down 44 team rebounds to West Ottawa's 30 caroms.

The Maroons also kept up their torrid shooting pace in second half play and hit 27 of 61 shots for 45 per cent for the game. West Ottawa improved slightly in the second half and ended up connecting on 17 of 55 attempts which was good for a 31 per cent game performance.

De Groot took game scoring honors for Holland Christian as he netted 18 points. Junior Phil Tuls also played a fine game as he pulled down 12 rebounds and scored 15 counters. West Ottawa's Tripp was right behind De Groot with 16 markers.

Holland Christian, now 16-3, will tangle with Zeeland on Thursday night in the semi-final round of the District tournament at West Ottawa.

Coach Jack Bonham's squad finished the year with a fine 13-4 record and earned a share of the O-K league crown with Rogers.

Rotarians Hear 'Project Rehab' Worker at Meet

A stepped-up educational program in the schools is one means of preventing drug abuse before it starts, according to Tom Bullock of Grand Rapids who spoke to the Holland Rotary Club Thursday noon.

"That's why we at Project Rehab are covering as many schools as we can," said Bullock who was scheduled to address West Ottawa High School students later in the afternoon.

A self-described former addict, Bullock joined Project Rehab in Grand Rapids for help in overcoming the drug habit. "One of the secrets of help is involvement — helping those who want to kick the habit, just like they do in Alcoholics Anonymous," he pointed out.

So successful were his efforts with himself and others, he was hired by Project Rehab to work with hard-core addicts.

Bullock said he had been a drug user for 25 years, and during that time he spent 50 to 75 per cent of his days in hospitals and other institutions. He said he had to steal to get the $50 to $100 and more the habit cost him every day. He finally left Chicago to get away from the easy availability of drugs, but he said they were just as easy to get in Grand Rapids.

In response to a question, Bullock said he was against legalizing marijuana. "Some 90 to 95 per cent of the people on our Project Rehab program got the start on their habit with marijuana," he said.

He added that consideration should be given to lessening the severity of the penalties to first-time marijuana offenders. "Why put them in prison where they can get a real education in crime?" he asked.

A recent issue of a national magazine reported that only about 10 per cent of drug addicts ever overcome the habit. Bullock was more optimistic. "We know of rehab groups that are keeping 50 to 60 per cent of former addicts from slipping back into their own patterns," he said.

To help control the problem, Bullock advocated not only broader educational programs but also closer control of drugs — "they're all around us, including television where commercials keep telling us to take this drug and take that drug" — and enforcement of penalties against the higher level of illegal drug suppliers. "We don't need tougher laws," he pointed out. "We've already got laws. We just need to enforce them."

Bullock was introduced by Duane Hooker, principal of West Ottawa High School, who arranged the program.

Questers Hear Pottery History

Members of the Jane Stekete Chapter of Questers met at the home of Mrs. Jaap de Blecourt with Mrs. E.T. Holman serving as co-hostess.

The program, "Early American Earthenware and Stoneware Pottery," was presented by Mrs. de Blecourt. A brief history was given outlining the history of pottery throughout the ages with emphasis on the history of early American earthenware and stoneware pottery.

Earthenware pottery is usually made of reddish clay and is the least durable of all pottery. Stoneware is generally made from grey clay and is more durable. The majority of early American earthenware and stoneware was imported from abroad prior to 1800. After that time, Americans began manufacturing pottery.

Mrs. Clarence Hopkins, the chapter president, conducted a short business meeting and plans were discussed for a field trip in May.

The next scheduled meeting will be March 25 at the home of Mrs. Gus Ritterby.

Panthers Drop First Swim Meet

West Ottawa's swimming team lost a heartbreaker Thursday evening, sinking 65-40 to the East Grand Rapids Panthers, for its first defeat of the season in the West Ottawa Natatorium.

Losing a close race in the opening event, the local tankers never regained their poise, as the undefeated Panthers pressed throughout the competition.

Sprinters Rick Hamstra and Jon Helder snatched the first and third place points in the 50 yard freestyle with times of :23.9 and :24.5 respectively.

Butterflied Rick and Mike Zavadil met their match in their specialty as the Panthers Tom Kimball swam for a :57.5, while Rick clocked a :59.4 and Mike clocked a 1:00.2.

In another squeaker, Rick Hamstra and Chris Raphael yielded to the Panthers Kirk Drummond in the 100 yard freestyle as they clocked :51.9, :52.0 and :52.1 for first, second, and third places coming in as fast as the eye could see.

Backstroke Dan Meyers once again proved his prowess as he chalked up first place points in his specialty with his time of :58.7.

Distance man John Boes continued to lower his time in the 400 yard freestyle as he clocked a 4:20.0 for first place points for the Panthers.

Being edged out on a judges' decision in the breaststroke, Steve Hopkins clocked a 1:10.85 for second spot, while first place was awarded to East's Rick Mulvihill with a 1:10.9 clocking.

In the final event of the meet, the defeated Panthers posted second spot with Ron Leeuw, Dave Ketchum, Rick Zavadil, and Chris Raphael turning in a 3:38.1 time.

The meet proved to be one of the most spectacular for the Panthers as every race in the filled to capacity Natatorium was close.

Coach Henry Reest's tankers ended their season with a 19-1 dual meet mark and will host the Southwestern Invitational championships next Friday and Saturday in the West Ottawa Natatorium. March 13 and 14 the Panthers will travel to East Lansing for the Class B state swimming meet.

Dutch End On Sad Note

MUSKOGON—Holland High's basketball team ended its regular season on a sad note as they fell to Mona Shores, 83-60 Friday evening in a VCC contest.

The Dutch of Coach Don Piersma finished the season with a 6-6 league record and 8-8 for the season. The victory was the first ever for Coach Howard Clark over the Dutch in four years and lifted the Sailors to 6-6 in the VCC and 10-6 overall.

The second and fourth quarters proved to be the downfall for the Dutch as they only scored 12 and 13 points respectively in these quarters.

However, it was a different story from the outset of the game as the Dutch hit on three straight baskets. Max Glupker tallied the first on a pass from Ray Munson to put Holland up 2-0. But Brian Gibson put in a fielder to tie the game at 2-2.

Glupker came back to add a bucket and Munson threw in one to give Holland a slim 6-4 advantage. Munson's basket two minutes later gave the Dutch their last lead in the game at 14-11. From then on it was all Mona Shores as they closed the quarter by leading by six points, 21-15.

The Dutch hit on only two baskets in the second period out of 10 shots to wind up with only 12 points while the Sailors mustered 20 to lead at the intermission by a 41-27 count.

With Ken DeBoer flashing signs of brilliant all around play in the third period, the Dutch outscored the winners, 20-18. DeBoer tossed in 11 of his team high 18 points in the quarter.

Powerful Wildcats Top Hawkeyes in Loop Game

HAMILTON — Hamilton's Hawkeyes, minus two starters gave Wayland a stiff battle before falling in Expressway League basketball action Friday evening, 71-59.

The Hawks of Coach Tom Bos went into the game without the services of starting forward Cal Schrotenboer who was suspended from school and center Rick Poll who was sick with a cold.

But the determined Hawkeyes gave the powerful and league champions a battle all the way before losing. "We played a fine game in the second half and I'm just proud of all the guys, especially the juniors," Bos said.

Hamilton ended its regular season with an overall mark of 7-10 and 4-4 in the league. The victory raises Wayland's record to 8-0 in the loop and 14-2 overall.

The Hawks reserves won the Expressway League crown by beating the little Wildcats. Hamilton finished the season with an overall mark of 9-6 and 6-2 in the league.

ELEMENTARY CHILDREN SPEND A DAY IN SAFETYVILLE.

Students Visit City of Safety

Youth today are taking unusual trips to unusual places. The first and second grades of Holland schools are visiting Safetyville, a new mobile city. Glenn Bareman, Traffic Safety Education Officer of the Holland Police Department, is arranging the visits and conducting the tours.

Safetyville is a village in miniature complete with streets, sidewalks, cars, marked intersections, traffic signals and signs. It has a home for the children, Safetyville school, and a penny - candy store.

Its purpose is to provide the early elementary grades of Holland Schools with practical education and instruction in basic safety and pedestrian habits. It will travel to the elementary schools and exist for a day in each gym.

The first, second, and third grades of Lakeview School were the first visitors. On last week Monday, they walked in groups of four between home, school and made a visit to the candy shop after school before returning home. Along their route were busy intersections, railroad tracks, with traffic signals, stop signs and other traffic signs to guide them. The streets were busy with the traffic of four beginning drivers in "Tot Rods."

The children proceeded through their average day. Many disregarded signals, some had accidents, and quite a few received tickets. But it is all make - believe; the hope is that it will impress the consequences of these same events in reality.

It is a portable city operated by the Safety Education Division of the Holland Police Department and is sponsored by the City of Holland. The project's cost of approximately $1200 was funded by a special appropriation from the City Council. The unit was built by officers of the Safety Education Division of the Holland Police Department.

It is the third such portable unit in Michigan; others are in Kalamazoo and Benton Harbor. Though not fully completed, it was used in 1968 for the Project Headstart Program. Completed in 1969, it is being used in the elementary schools for the first time this year.

The Police Department is confident that this unusual approach to safety will have an immediate effect in helping to save the lives of Holland's children, Bareman said. Hopefully, the program will have long range effects in preparation for driver education and a more adequate understanding of the need for safety and courtesy, Bareman concluded.

Hutchinson Sees More Spent on Interest Alone

ALLEGAN — Taxpayers are spending more toward interest payments on the national debt alone than on the operations of their own county governments, U.S. Rep. Edward Hutchinson, R-Mich., said Wednesday.

The 4th District Congressman from Allegan picked up some figures by passing a two-inch thick volume compiled by computers at the Office of Economic Opportunity.

Besides the breakdown on the per capita share constituents in his seven-county area pay in interest alone on the national debt, Hutchinson said he also noted how much the federal government is spending in his district.

"It's not clear to me why the OEO went to all the trouble of compiling and publishing this information, but if its intention was to demonstrate just how big 'big government' has grown, the agency succeeded admirably," he said in a news release.

At the end of 1969, the national debt was $353.72 billion.

The Breakdown on each county's share in his district showed, based on per capita extensions: Allegan, $3.4 million; Berrien, $8.15 million; Branch, $1.86 million; Cass, $2 million; Hillsdale, $1.8 million; St. Joseph, $2.28 million and Van Buren, $2.57 million.

This was for interest on the debt and not toward the debt itself, he noted.

"It struck me that Allegan county's share of these finance charges, $3.14 million — was considerably more than the county's total budget for 1970 which was $2.71 million," he said.

"And, while I do not have budget figures at hand for the other district counties, I'm reasonably sure a similar comparison could be drawn in each of them. In other words, we are spending more just to finance the federal debt than we are to operate our county governments."

Hutchinson also noted federal outlays in the state during fiscal 1969 totaled $5.53 billion, of which $205.7 million was shared by the seven counties in his 4th district as follows:

Allegan, $26.2 million; Berrien, $74.6 million; Branch, $15.7 million; Cass, $15.8 million; Hillsdale $26.2 million; St. Joseph, $20.3 million and Van Buren, $26.9 million.

Volleyballs From Ambush

Memories linger on from the Feb. 19 visit of Col. Frank Borman, commander of the Apollo 8 moon mission, to Hope College for an honorary degree.

Col. Borman had been chosen class hero of the Sophomore class and was the class' guest for the day. He promised to return for commencement in 1972.

Perhaps the most thrilled people who saw the astronaut were the youngsters from Lincoln School located just east of campus. The youngsters formed a guard of honor from Graves Hall to Dimment Chapel where the convocation was held, and waved flags and cheered while the astronaut walked from one building to the other as large flakes of snow fell.

Youngsters eagerly reached to shake and touch hands. Later School Principal Ivan Compagner visited one room and found 18 of the 25 students had touched hands. Autographs, always time consuming, were discouraged but Borman said autographs could be obtained by writing NASA in Houston. The school arranged for 13 pictures to be autographed—one for each school room.

In chitchat in the hall following the press conference, Borman said plenty of consideration had been given to "land landings" instead of splashdowns but said they were discounted because of the growing activity in the deserts in the Southwest.

Russia has vast wide open spaces in Siberia for such landings, he said, but a spacecraft returning to earth in the Arizona or New Mexico deserts runs the risk of hitting a car, a person, a building or even a snowmobile.

The city treasurer's office does quite a business of selling De Zwaan flour ground at the windmill on Windmill Island. It's 60 cents for a two-pound bag. There are several regular customers. City Treasurer Jack Leenhouts says. Bags contain tested recipes.

The February Kiwanis Magazine contained the first of a three-part story on Michigan in connection with the 55th International Convention in Detroit June 21-24.

The first article covering the western shore attractions for the conventioning Kiwanis family gave liberal space to Holland, Windmill Island and other attractions including sketches of Netherlands Museum and Windmill Island. It noted the Dutch background, the exceptional cleanliness of the town, Baker Museum, Netherlands Museum, Wooden Shoe Factory, Dutch Village, the history of the 200-year-old Windmill De Zwaan, milling the flour and the authentic drawbridge reproduction.

Also noted were the attractions of Saugatuck, its art colony, picturesque setting, old Singapore, the SS Keewatin, Island Queen and dune buggies.

The article took Writer Richard Goswiler from Warren Dunes State Park on Lake Michigan up to Benton Harbor and its House of David, the Deer Forest in Coloma, a visit to Sleepy Hollow and a chance meeting with Burr Tilstrom of Kuklapolitan fame, various farms and antique houses ending with a visit to Grand Haven with dinner at Win Schuler's and witnessing the Musical Fountain.

The city hostess welcomed several families to Holland during February.

Mr. and Mrs. John N. Timmer and son of Washington, D.C., are living at 99 West 26th St. Mr. Timmer is with the alumni office at Hope College.

Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Rood of Grand Rapids are living at 715 Maple Ave. Mr. Rood is with Knappe and Vogt Hardware in Grand Rapids.

THERE'S THE BUNNY!—About 165 handicapped children at Thomas Jefferson School were treated, along with regular first and second graders, to a magic show Thursday under the sponsorship of Star of Bethlehem No. 40 OES. Robert J. Kurtz, semi-professional magician from Detroit, enchanted his young audience with the appearance and disappearance of a spotted toy rabbit. Here, most of the youngsters seem to have spotted the tricky bunny. Kurtz was assisted by student helpers Paula Slagh and Richard Ter Haar and school principal Carroll W. Norlin. (Sentinel photo)
