Foreword

Giver of gifts,
Treasurer of beauty,
We bring our youth to thee
In glad surrender
That we and thee,
Both giving, may be blessed.
Ward-Belmont, Ward-Belmont.

—DEAN MARY R. NORRIS.

D e d i c a t i o n

To the members of the ART DEPARTMENT, who have unselfishly given of their time and talent, each year, to make the Annual a success, we gratefully dedicate the Milestones of 1922

HERON AND PEMBROKE DORMITORIES

WALK-WAY LEADING TO MAIN BUILDING

MAIN BUILDING, FOUNDERS AND FIDELITY HALLS

Classes!

SENIOR

INEZ ADRIAN

2206 Tenth Street
WICHITA FALLS, TEXAS.

Agora Club; offices—Secretary Agora Club '21; Secretary Y. W. C. A. Cabinet '20-'21; Secretary Senior Class '21-'22; Manager of Swimming, Athletic Board '21

Free verse—with a syncopated rhythm. Is the only way we can describe her. With her rippling, tinkling, jazzy tunes.

She chases "blues" for recreation—Our Inez—the queen of Syncopation.

FLORINE ASHCROFT

519 Oak Avenue.
SULPHUR SPRINGS, TEXAS

X. L. Club—Reporter on Hyphen—'21; Editor-in-Chief Hyphen—'21; Proctor Fidelity—'22; X. L. Reporter—'21-'22; Honorary member of Milestones staff. The gods were good to Florine.

They gave her brains and ability. And they made her "resourceful" too. At first she directed the Hyphen staff.

But now she is "proctoring" Fidelity Hall.

ELIZABETH BARNHART

CHILDRESS, TEXAS.

Twentieth Century Club; President of the Twentieth Century Club.

In Panther, hockey or jumping.

In basket-ball or track.

Elizabeth rates with the best.

She's not like the old time girl, you see.

For she's of the "Twentieth Century."

CHRISTINE BARNES

OXFORD, KANSAS

Twentieth Century Club—

Christine Barnes is so clever and bright— That we're glad to have her back again.

After the years she spent away.

She entered after the holidays, A Christmas gift for the Seniors.

LOUISE BELL

BELLE MEADE PARK
NASHVILLE, TENN.

X. L. Club; V. President of X. L. Club '20-'21; President of Tennessee Club '20
President of Seniors Middle Class '20-'21; Captain of Regulars; President of Senior Class '21-'22

President of the Senior Class.

And a "Regular girl" on the field,
Louise "excels" in all.

Of the bells and belles at W. B.,
"Sis" is the one for the Seniors.

ELEANOR BEST

1678 Hampshire Street
QUINCY, ILL.

X. L. Club; Cottage Proctor '21;
Vice-President X. L. Club '22

Piquant and bobbed haired is Eleanor,
And individual, for there's no one quite like her.

In the art room she shines,

Or in planning a dance,
She's the best of the rest, is Eleanor

LEOLA BLACKMAN

3031 Sanford Ave.
SHREVEPORT, LA.

X. L. Club, office—Vice-President of Louisiana Club '21-'22; Athletic Board,
Baseball Manager '21; Captain Regulars '22

Billy and Leola—Regular roommates,
You can't think of one without both,
For "Ely" just loves athletics and Billy,

Of tennis she's especially fond,
On the courts you usually find her.

ELIZABETH BLAKESLEE

705 N. Penn Ave.
INDEPENDENCE, KANSAS.

Anti-Pandora; Vice-President Anti-
Pan. Club '21; Secretary Kansas Club
'21-'22; Treasurer Kansas Club '21-'22;
Member of Y. W. Cabinet '21

In the cool gray dusk by the library shelves,

You can always find her there,
And when exams are over and grades
come in,

Betty hears the glad news—
"You made an A."

EVELYN BONHAM
417 E. Calhoun St.
MACOMB, ILLINOIS

X. L. Club—Assistant-Business Manager Hyphen '21; Assistant Editor of Milestone '22; Secretary of X. L. Club '21.

Just a trusting little girl she seems to be at first.

With a daintiness and slight drawl all her own;

But you ought to see her write—
Clever poetry's her Cue.

And she's capable, ask the Milestones for it knows.

RUTH BOWEN
204 Deere Bldg.
DALLAS, TEXAS.

Penta Tau Club, offices: Treasurer of Penta Tau Club; Manager of Hockey—Athletic Board—'21-'22

"Leola's room-mate" and a Regular star.
She's "Ruth Bowen" on the list.

But she's Billy to her friends.
However that means all of us.

So everyone calls her Billy.

AUDREY BRIGHT
GONZALES, TEXAS.

A. K. Club

Quiet and gentle, Audrey always is.

And she surely knows what she says.
She's the Bright girl you see.

And what's in a name
If you don't live up to it, eh?

ELIZABETH CADE
615 Queen City Ave.,
TUSCALOOSA, ALABAMA

F. F. Club—President of Ala. Club 1921-22.

Another one from Alabama,
And President of that Club.

She's one of the attractive "Gumps."
A very good sport is "Cade."
And full of the "joy of life."

MINNIE MAE COATS

TIPTONVILLE, TENN.
Tri-K Club; Secretary of Athletic Association '21-'22

In making a pie that's fit for a king,
And knocking a home run to make
Babe Ruth gasp,
On Winnie Mae Coates you can always depend.
And Fidelity votes her a "croix de la guerre"
As the monitor fidile of the year '22.

ROSEMOND COLES

132 Conradt Ave.,
KOKOMO, INDIANA

Tri-K Club—
Roses for Rosemond—every week, so
they say,
Ah, a romance—now who can he be?
But alas for romance—her father's a florist.
And doesn't write letters,
But "says it with flowers."

DORIS CONE

3 Main St.
EAST HAMPTON
CONNECTICUT

Tri-K Club—Capt. of Regulars—'21;
Treas. Athletic Ass'n—'20; Vice-Pres.
Tri-K's—'21; General Manager A. A.—
'22.
As "foreward" or "felder" or "wing,"
Dor is our highest ideal,
Of a typical Regular star.
And then besides, she was voted,
The most popular girl in school.

LAURA CONNETT

FAUCETT, MO.

Anti-Pandora Club—Treasurer Anti-
Pandora Club—'21; President Missouri Club—'21; Proctor Fidelity Hall—
'21; President Anti-Pandora Club—'22.
"Connett" belongs with the Physical Eds.
And she's quite a Regular star,
She's always very enthusiastic—
And you usually find her "pro"
anything,
But in clubs she's "anti" Pandora.

LESLIE E. DAVIS

1720-10th St.
WICHITA FALLS, TEXAS

X. L. Club,
Like a light little fairy,
All poised on tip toe,
She dances her way to our hearts,
And laurels we pay to Leslie this day,
As official Senior danseuse.

MARGARET DUNCAN

1404 Grant Ave.
WICHITA FALLS, TEXAS

Penta Tau Club; Treasurer Penta Tau;
Y. W. C. A. Cabinet
Margaret has all the qualities,
That go to make a good Senior.
She is clever and witty and sociable,
And the Seniors who went to Shelbyville claim,
That she can also paddle her own canoe.

MARY E. DYER

2503 Kensington Place
NASHVILLE, TENN.

Offices—Hyphen Reporter '21; Asst.
Business Manager Athletic Association
'21; Vice-President Athletic Association
'21-'22; President Day Student Council
'21-'22.
In hockey or swimming or baseball,
Mary ranks with the best.
In everything that Mary does,
Her team is sure to "place"—
She's the "Regular" little Mary.

NOBE EDGAR

701 Walnut Street
NEWPORT, ARK.

F. F. Club; Secretary of F. F. Club '21;
President of F. F. Club '22; Chairman of Student Friendship Committee
One of those leaders of fifty,
She is quite efficient and "Nobie"
about it.
And she's so attractive and charming to know,
That a prophecy for her would be—
No "single future and curls" for Nobie.

GWENDOLYN EDEE

PAUNEE CITY, NEB.

Del Vers Club; Treasurer of Neb. Club '20-'21; President of Neb. Club '21-'22; Treasurer of Del Vers Club '21

Mention hockey and Gwen fairly beams.

And swimming thrills her through and through.

But track—why she can run so fast.

She really is our Senior star.

May she make such speed at Nebraska next year.

MINNIE MAE FRENCH

1740 West 3rd Ave.

CORSICANA, TEXAS

Penta Tau Club; President Texas Club '21; Vice-President Penta Tau '21; President Penta Tau Club '22; Sergeant-at-arms of Senior Class '21

"She's of the club called the Penta Tau"

And the Captain of Panther hockey.

A capable leader no doubt,

Is little Miss Minnie from Texas.

She's chic, petite, and French a la mode

EDITH FRYE

213 S. Water St.

OLATHE, KANSAS

X. L. Club, General Proctor '22; Treasurer of Senior Class; Y. W. C. A. Cabinet '21; Athletic Board '21; Hyphen reporter '21; Chairman program X. L. Club; Vice-President of Kansas Club. She's got the joy of living, and everlasting pep.

A "four square" girl who's good in all four sides.

For she's musical and writes,

Is in basketball a star.

And in Club and Y. W. she has served.

LOUISE ELIZABETH GALLOWAY

29 So. Manning Street

HILLSOLE, MICHIGAN

Twentieth Century Club, Michigan Club President '21; T. C. C. Secretary; Y. W. C. A. Cabinet '21; Milestones staff '22.

Louise is the typical northern girl,

With high ideals, and she's always sincere—

An "all around girl"—Clever and lovable

With a gay sense of humor, wonderfully capable.

We wish her success at Smith next year.

CLARA HADDOX

1026 Villa Place
NASHVILLE, TENN.

Clara is prepared, and no doubt about that.

To make her way with Expression,
Zealous and studious, and always obliging.

To run errands for two, she's fond of,
While "Jo" she has around her.

AUGUSTA HAHNEWALD

RIFLE, COLORADO

Augusta is tall and slim and fair,
And gentle and kind and good—
Just like heroines you read about.
She knows her lessons, tho' 'tis rare,
That she has courage to speak her mind.

OPAL HALL

BRECKENRIDGE, MO.

Penta Tau—

Opal aspires to the "Village,"
For when we asked for a "snap"
She sent one labelled, "Greenwich Village"

Do dreams very often come true?
Well—"Opal" means "hope" don't you know.

KATHERINE HERBERT

624 McCallie Ave.,
CHATTANOOGA, TENN.

Twentieth Century Club—Vice-President of Tennessee Club, '21-'22.

If you thought her frivolous at first,
You find you're mistaken soon,
For although she is so pretty,
She's a real thinker too;
And stands up for what she thinks is right.

EMMA HIBSHMAN

65 Walnut St.
MILTON, PENNA.

Anti-Pandora Club—President Eastern Club—'21-'22.

Emma is President of the Eastern Club, And is witty and wise in the Eastern way.

Although she comes from the "Keystone state,"

Don't get her mixed with the comedies.

For Emma is "classical" on the Senior list.

RUTH HINES

SUTTON, W. VA.

Twentieth Century Club; President W. Va. Club '21-'22.

In gym she leads us all.

For she comes in the "sample size." Of the brand of Hines that is very good

Of the "fifty-seven varieties". We put her in with the best.

LUCILE HYNEMAN

LXINGTON, ILL.

Penta Tau Club; Ass't Editor, Hyphen '21; Editor-in-chief, Hyphen '22; Critic, Penta Tau Club '21-'22

"The food of the mind makes the man."

Lucile has a job on her hands, For if feeding 5000 was a miracle true.

Lucile with 600 has plenty to do, To provide a good fare in the Hyphen.

VALERIA MARY JOHNSON

218 N. A. St.
ARKANSAS CITY, KAN.

Twentieth Century Club.

With rows of bottles and tubes,

Valeria we usually find engaged.

For she takes the second year;

Of College "Chem" and gets by—

Chemically speaking—she must be O. K.

MARY KENNEDY

41 North Bellevue
MEMPHIS, TENN.

Twentieth Century Club; First Vice-President of Council '21; President of Council '22

Mary, Mary, how does your Council go, With its Tuesday at 5:00 and special meetings.

And the "jury" all in a row?

Of course we remember the Washington dinner, For that was the time when Mary was Martha.

LYDA KENNEY

2407 Doniphan Ave.,
ST. JOSEPH, MO.

Osiron Club—Editor in Chief Milestones '22; Hyphen staff '21; General Proctor '21; Secretary of Osiron '21.

Lyda Kenney—pure gold,

Guaranteed by all who know her, To stand the acid test of talent,

If you do like our Annual, Just doff your hat to Lyda.

F. MILDRED LEHMAN

518 Washington Ave.
DEFIANCE, OHIO

Osiron Club; Vice President Ohio Club '21-'22; President Osiron Club '21-'22

Mid calls the meetings to order.

She's President of Osiron;

She also plays tennis between times,

Of all the rest she is the best,

The prettiest one of the Osirons.

MARJORIE LEWIS

215 Galesburg Road
KNOXVILLE, ILLINOIS

Del Vers Club—

Marjorie Lewis in Latin does shine,

We wonder how she does it,

While we wonder whether to aspire;

"To B or not to B"

She comes up with an A.

ELIZABETH LIGGETT
2113 Belmont Blvd.
NASHVILLE, TENN.

Reporter on Hyphen '20; Business Manager Hyphen '21; Ass't Business Manager Milestones '21; Second Vice-President Senior Class '21-'22.

Elizabeth expresses herself quite well, in melodrama tragedy, or comedy. And she's quite a Shakespearian lady. But in "queenly" roles she stars—So you see she's our own "Queen Elizabeth."

WILMA LYON
3106 Highland Ave.
SHREVEPORT, LA.

Osiron Club—Vice-President Senior Class '21-'22; President Louisiana Club '21-'22; Reporter "Milestones"; Secretary-Treas. La. Club '20-'21.

Vice-President of the Senior class. Wilma is wonderfully capable—"Beauty and brains," don't you know? And then besides she's terribly sweet. She comes from the sugar cane state.

VIRGINIA McCOY
716 Main Street
SISTERSVILLE, WEST VA.

X. L. Club—Treasurer X. L. Club; Hyphen Staff '21-'22; Pres. Va. Club '21. A poet efficient—they're hard to find. But Virginia proves that they can be. A practical girl—no temperament there. And she's "2 in 1" on the Hyphen—Cartoons and writes rhymes too.

RUTH McFARLIN
1453 Arthur Ave.
CLEVELAND, OHIO

Osiron Club—Secretary of Ohio Club—'20. A thoroughbred Osiron is "Mac" A little blue eyed lady, From Ohio, the "buck-eye state." We like the combination, Of "buck-eye" and blue eyes.

SIBYL MARICLE

208 4th Street
GRANDFIELD, OKLA.

Agora Club; Ass't Art Editor, Annual '21-'22

There's an Oriental charm in her black hair and eyes,
And her talent runs to art, as you have seen.

For this book owes much to her,
Our Ass't. Editor,
But her heart's in Oklahoma, so they say.

CAROLYN MARTIN

55 Newton Street
OZARK, ALA.

Osiron Club; Treasurer of Osiron Club '21-'22

An Osiron maid from Alabama,
With a Southern way all her own,
And the charming name of a song—
They're going to miss you next year,
In Osiron, Car-o-line, Car-o-line.

EDNA MASON

2105 18th Ave., South
NASHVILLE, TENN.

Offices—Academic reporter; Hyphen, '22

Edna is one of those girls from town,
With a wit and a will and a way,
No wonder she makes the marks she does.

With the speed she goes thru those English books,
She makes the grade at ninety per.

SARAH MORGAN

507 Broad Street
LA GRANGE, GA.

Twentieth Century Club; President of Georgia Club '21; Proctor of Founder's Hall '22

She brings to mind rose leaves and lavender,
And the days of the old South gone by.

For she's gentle and beautiful
With a low, soft voice,
And she makes a wonderful May queen.

ALEX MORRISON

11 Brunel Street
Waycross, Ga.

Tri-K Club; Treasurer of Tri-K '20-'21; Honor Committee '20-'21; President of student body '21-'22; Honorary member of student council '22; President of Georgia Club '22; Manager of Basket-ball '22 (Athletic Board)

At counseling Alex was always a dear. Or at anything else that she did. She made a perfect "George," as you know.

And we understand that George was first in the hearts of everyone.

EMMA NORTON

1513 Walnut Street
Vicksburg, Miss.

Twentieth Century Club; President Mississippi Club '21-'22

"Norton, Emma—Gen'l. and Express-ion."

That's the way she's posted on the list.

But we think it should have been, And it really would be fitter. To say "Polly—Gener'ly Expressive."

ELIZABETH M. PARSONS

Colonial Hotel
Johnson City, Tenn.

Penta Tau Club—Treasurer of Tennessee Club—"21-'22"; Club Reporter for Hyphen—"21-'22"

"Chic" is the word that describes her— Lib from the sunny state—

For she's a really stunning girl. In a trim and tailored way. And she may not be a Parson very long.

AMELIE E. PRESCOTT

Lutcher, La.

F. F. Club; Louisiana Club Reporter '21-'22; F. F. Club Secretary '21-'22

Amelie comes from Louisiana. The land of the Mardi Gras. And she's pretty and gay.

In a carefree way— A typical Mardi Gras queen.

LILLIAN RHODES
ESTHERVILLE, IOWA

Twentieth Century Club—Vice-President of T. C.; Vice-President of Iowa Club, '21-'22.

She's our "airy fairy Lillian,"
Ruffles and organdy dresses,
And mornings in spring she suggests,
She's always good, for she has to be,
She rooms with Mary you see.

SUSAN MARY ROBERTS
217 South Main
NEVADA, MISSOURI.

Tri-K. Club; Chairman Permanent Program Committee '20-'21; Chapel Proctor '21; 1st Vice-President of Student Council '22

"A merry heart worketh like medicine,"
So Happy's the Council physician,
And strangely to say,

Happy's taste runs that way,
It's a doctor she loves, don't you know.

MATTIE ELISE ROW
ROSEDALE, LA.

Twentieth Century Club

Mattie takes a practical view, so,

In household arts she shines,
"For when roses and candy continue to come,

It's the safest thing to be learning to cook,"

She says in her own southern way.

GLYNDEN SEAGLE
4701 Tennessee Ave.,
CHATTANOOGA, TENN.

F. F. Club—Secretary of Tennessee Club '21-'22; Treasurer of F. F. Club '22
Of course Glynden Seagle would sing.

It runs in the family you know;
And she's quite a good writer—
Of letters I mean,
For "He" writes her each day of the world.

HARRIET E. SEAGLE
4701 Tenn. Ave.,
CHATTANOOGA, TENN.

F. F. Club—Vice-President of Tenn. Club '20-'21; President of Tenn. Club '21; Treasurer of F. F. Club '21; President of F. F. Club '22.
One of the friendliest ones of the "fifty".
With her attractive charming way,
Harriet is a "representative girl,"
And she's president of her club,
The "star" of F. F.

MARGARET SCRUGGS
BREWTON, ALA.

F. F. Club—
A girl de la mode is Margaret Scruggs—
And she's in for anything,
She loves to go to dance—just play;
She never lacks her pep,
And she's one of the "Gumps" from Alabama.

DEBORAH SILBER
2208 Harrison Street
DAVENPORT, IOWA

A. K. Club
An all round girl is Deborah,
She's an expert at diving and swimming,
Is brilliant in class,
Has a date every week,
And is always a good sport, that's
"Deb."

SARAH RANDOLPH SIMPSON
208 South 3 Notch Street
TROY, ALA.

F. F. Club; Ala Club reporter '20-'21;
F. F. Sargeant-at-arms '20-'21; reporter of F. F. Club '21; Secretary Ala Club
'21-'22; Sargeant-at-arms of Senior Class '22
You just can't help loving Sarah,
With her sympathy; friendliness
true,
And her sweet southern drawl,
Is her charm best of all,
Her type color is Heavenly blue.

CATHERINE SMITH

323 N. 5th Ave.,
DURANT, OKLAHOMA

A. K. Club—Sergeant-at-Arms of A. K.
—1919, Secretary of Okla. Club 1918;
Hyphen reporter—1920; President of
A. K. Club—1921-1922.

Catherine Smith is jolly and peppy.

With a sparkling wit all her own.

From Sergeant-at-arms of A. K. in '19
She rose to be President in the year
'22;

A rising young lady indeed.

EVLYN SPRING SMITH

300 Center Ave.
MERRILL, WIS.

X. L.; Y. W. C. A. cabinet '21-'22;
Vice-President Wis. Club '21; Proctor of Pembroke '21; Treasurer of Student Council '22

"Oh Ev'lyn"—but that song won't apply.

For she is one of the Council,
The keeper of funds (if any)

She's very clever and peppy,
And she goes with a "Spring" in her name.

SUSIE SPRAGINS

HUNTSVILLE, ALA.

Anti-Pandora Club; Treas. Alabama
State Club '20-'21; Treasurer Student Council '21; Secretary Student Council
'22; Y. W. C. A. Cabinet '21-'22

"Respectfully submitted—Susie Spragins."

That's the way we see it on reports,
For she's Secretary of the Council.

But we sometime hope to read it,
"Susanne Spragins—Prima Donna."

CATHERINE THOMPSON

511 Washington St.
PANTON, ILLINOIS

Anti-Pandora Club; Vice-President of Anti-Pandora Club-'20-'21. President of Anti-Pandora Club-1921. Treasurer of Athletic Association-1921. Proctor of Cottages 1922.

An hermosa senorita of Spain,

She seems with her flashing dark
eyes,

And she's very athletic;

Cottage councilor too,
She puts vim in all that she does.

AGNES TRAMEL

SULPHUR SPRINGS, TEXAS

Agora Club—Treasurer of Senior Class
—22.

"Dues, dues, pay your dues."

That's the way she greets us when we meet.

For she alone holds the key,
Of the Senior treasury,
And its money, money, money, every day.

FAY UNDERWOOD

1309 Van Buren Street
AMARILLO, TEXAS

Osiron Club

Almost every night before seven,

Our Fay tips down to the studio,
When she says "ha ha" and "ho ho".

With a vim and support of tone—
She studies expression, you know.

ELIZABETH WALTON VAUGHT

714 Bullock Place,
LEXINGTON, KY.

F. F. Club, Reporter of the Ky. Club
1921-22.

Elizabeth is one of the "brand new"
members.

For she just came to us this year,
To join the Senior ranks.
Her spirit makes her one of us,
In the Class of twenty-two.

RUTH WALLACE

1314 St. Charles St.
BIRMINGHAM, ALA.

A. K. Club. Proctor of Founders '21.

With the proctoring of Founder's Hall,
Our Ruth had plenty to do;

But the training she had in the studio
Was a help, for then you see,
She could "express" herself with ease.

MARGARET LINDSLEY WARDEN

1806 E. Belmont Circle
NASHVILLE, TENN.

Treasurer of Sophomore Class '19;
President Day Student Council '20-'21;
Vice-President Day Student Council
'21-'22; Assistant Business Manager
Milestones '22.

In making B plus or in dancing,
In painting or sculpturing or "Coun-
ciling

Margaret ranks with the best.
Versatile, clever, and capable,
Is Margaret Lindsley Warden.

ILAH WATSON

617 Orange Street
MACON, GA.

A. K. Club; Vice-President Georgia
Club '20; President Georgia Club '21

"She'll make some man a good wife,"
Applies to Ilah all right,
For not only does she cook and sew,

And all the household tactics know,
But she's an ideal pal and so, an ideal wife.

ROBERTA WIKLE

FRANKLIN, TENN.

Roberta is one of our "daily attenders"

With freedom to come and to go,
She's gifted with brains, so they tell me
Maybe because of the name of her town—

She comes from Franklin, you see.

LOUISE WILDER

1123 Calder Ave.
BEAUMONT, TEXAS.

Tri-K. Club; Treasurer of Tri-K. Club
'21-'22

You think of a china doll when you see her,

With her flaxen hair and sky-blue
eyes,

And she's always happy—
I think we know why.

There's a wedding in Texas to be by and bye.

MARION E. WILLIAMS
BUSHNELL, ILL.

Tri-K. Club
Each school has its own individual stamp.
On Marion, we find W. B's.,
She's its product for sure,
For she's been here six years,
And she's charming and graceful and dear.

DORCAS HELENA WILLYARD
OTTO, INO.

Agora Club
There's a serenity about her,
That even breakfast bells can't ruffle:
A kindness and justice,
That make her always trusted,
And we know that Dorcas is true blue.

HAVING successfully completed the first year of our conquest, getting the lay of the land, we entered upon the second year, which time having been appointed as the time of our invasion, we set out on September 21st. The command of our legion was intrusted to M. Dickinson, a most worthy Tribune, with V. Lancaster, C. B. Mitchener, Quaestor, and M. Ellington, milites levis armaturae, and Miss Helen Fields—Caesar having encouraged and mapped out our plan of attack.

We found there was but one way, augustam et rectam, by which to overcome our adversaries.

We struggled over the mountain altissimus of Algebra and a few of our number were nearly lost in the river English but were soon recovered. It was necessary for our number to be divided in many places, some going through the long Historical defile and others having skirmishes with the Latin tribe. C. B. Mitchener was appointed legatus to the most ferocious tribes on account of her great diplomacy.

In castra much prowess was displayed and strength shown. Legati Tolertons known to our number as "The Bikes" excelled in strength on land and in the water. While F. J. Phelps charmed many idle hours away with music and dance.

His rebus gestis we came upon our first great battle in November when it was necessary to overcome the cruel and relentless tribe of Exams but on account of the faithfulness and valor of our men, we were victorious, capturing and carrying off the valuable statue of "Minerva." One especially proved herself in this battle,

H. Wheeler who quickly and completely subdued many single-handed and carried off their rich armour of As.

Soon after this M. Scott, one of our number, was elected as one ex exercitu toto to sit upon the great Council. Throughout our first active campaign our men have proven themselves and we can say,

"We came—we saw—we conquered."

Prep Specials

Prepspecialville is our abode
Our rule is "Specialize
Until your talents grow so great
You're famous in all eyes."

Some of us spend hours of practice
In a room—yes, all alone;
For the thing we're striving after
Is to reach the music throne.

Others take up many arts.
Please to bear this fact in mind—
Some day you will see our names
Above "Costumns Designed."

Yes, we are only "special preps"
But listen to our tale:
We never have and never will
In undertakings fail.

And some will be great, great architects
And plan your "comfy nest"
When after traveling through the world
You wish some place to rest.

Still others will teach art in schools
Or maybe playground work;
At least you very plainly see
Our duty we'll not shirk.

Each who studies household arts
Will be a charming bride
And for good management will be
Well known—yes, far and wide

POST GRADUATES

JOSEPHINE ADAMS

If she greets you with a smile, that's Josephine, sure Jo has found out the secret: "The way to have a friend is to be one;" and although she's back with us this year just as a day pupil, she has come back to find a whole host of girls who know and love "Jo." She is usually to be found at the table just outside Miss Townsend's studio, or perhaps—inside; and if you've ever heard Josephine read and felt that suspicious lump in your throat that inevitably comes as she makes her characters so appealingly alive with all their troubles, you realize it's that very understanding sympathy which wins her staunch friends, and makes Josephine "far excellent" in her art.

ANNA MAE McCLAIN

If she's playing on the pipes, "Gloria," that's Anna Mae. You simply can't think of Chapel with "When Morning Gilds the Skies" starting our day off right, without having a picture of Anna Mae in a white middy blouse, sitting at the organ, and when you say Y. W., she's in on that too; in fact this versatile post-grad of ours has a way that means success in everything she does, from calling a cabinet meeting to getting her piano certificate this spring.

Moreover, she knows more about these C pluses we get in English D than we dream of, for she is Miss Ross's invaluable assistant; and that "humph" from Miss Rose that is such an enigma to us has no doubtful meaning for her, she has seen our papers.

But with it all, she's not a bit post-grad-ish and Anna Mae's inimitable sense of humor is always a sparking and saving grace.

HELEN STONE

As a chaperone she's in demand, and that's Helen Stone. Too young for a Faculty member, not dressed like a W. B. girl, we see her down town with a group of black hats and navy suits, and we wonder—then it dawns upon us; she's one of those lucky post-grads.

Helen came back for more Marchesi and Concone, and you can ask Signor if she's not doing Arias now. She really has a lovely voice, and yet—can't you imagine her humming softly in an adorable kitchenette, preparing tea for two instead of singing "Lucrezia Borgia" at the Metropolitan? Only, time will tell, but I've heard "He's" from New York.

FRANKIE McKINNEY

If she's with a Physical Ed, that's Frankie McK. Always calm and composed, little and dainty, and with that piquant little tilt of her nose, Frankie is truly winsome. We first remember her this year, when we couldn't resist joining the Y. W. because she'd asked us, and since then we think of her in connection with third floor Pembroke and all the good times it has.

Why did Frankie come back as a post-grad? To continue her study of piano under Miss Maxwell, you'd think; but no, not entirely that—they say she came back to take care of Doris, and we hate to say it, but she fell down on her job there; she let Doris take scarlet fever just before the hockey championship game, and had to have her Christmas in the hospital.

Perhaps it's too much to expect, to hope that Frankie will be with us again next year, but we'll surely miss her for we all agree that she's "simply precious."

LEONA MORRIS

If she's carefree all the while, that's Leona, I know.

In for everything, the very semblance of pep, Leona leads third floor Founders a chase. And happy—did you ever see Leona when she wasn't; even after a tiff with Student Council?

She's always in demand at a dance for, so they say, she's "a perfectly marvelous leader," and nine times out of ten you'll see her gaily swinging one of the two "Mids" or Andy around.

The fine art of cooking is her specialty and since "more divorces are caused by bad cooks than any other one reason," we predict the happiest of futures for Leona

RUTH WURTZBAUGH

Ruth is one of the best of them all, and really has so many good points in her favor, it's hard to find a beginning. First and foremost, Ruth is a musician, and is triumphantly bearing a certificate in piano back to Louisiana with her in June. Then she has a personality that you simply can't resist,—sweet, lovable, and, having the "gift o'gab," she's interesting to the last word.

One of those happy combinations of both beauty and brains, we are sure Ruth is going to be a success in anything she undertakes. We're glad Ruth loved us enough to return the third year, but we do wish we could entice her to come back again.

WAR-BEETS

EDNA DUNCAN

SARAH MORGAN, MAY QUEEN

DOROTHY SOMERS

May Day

ONE of the most charming and delightful traditions of Ward-Belmont is the May Day celebration, held about the middle of May each year. It is on this occasion that the May Queen is crowned, and, with her royal party, presides over the festivities of the day.

The royal party this year is composed of particularly charming and representative girls. Sarah Morgan, of La Grange, Ga., is queen, and the maids of honor are Edna Duncan, of Paris, Texas, representing the college element, and Dorothy Somers, of Atlantic City, the prep school representative.

The Seniors form the royal court, and the procession is one of the picturesque pageant pictures of the year. The program is under the direction of the physical education department, and it is expected that this year's festival will be the most beautiful ever staged in W. B.

MAY DAY SCENE

A Modern Miss Pepy's Diary

- SEPTEMBER 21ST—Arrived by train today. Having registered, I went out to look up the old girls. By and by comes my new roommate who acts strangely at first, not knowing what to do.
- 22ND—Comes my trunk, the which I am busy unpacking.
- 25TH—(Lord's day) To church with the school party in the special vehicles, the girls looking fine in shiny new black hats and blue suits.
- 27TH—To chapel in the evening for a pep meeting. Brave speeches by athletic maidens on platform.
- 28TH—To chapel comes Mr. Yates, the life saver, giving instruction in the Shaffer Method.
- 29TH—To a meeting in chapel with the dean of women-known better as Miss Mills, and there she did read the rules of the school for the benefit of the new comers. They looked a little troubled, and indeed the regulations are stringent, albeit necessary.
- 30TH—This day were the Seniors recognized in beautiful and traditional fashion. Dressed in white, we Seniors did enter the chapel from the rear, all singing, and pass down the aisle in two files to the platform, the school standing in recognition, and seemingly impressed with the sight. Our President "Sis" did make a brave speech to the school.
- OCTOBER 1ST—This evening came the new girls to the all club receptions in the ten club rooms. We very merry and eager to impress, but Goodness, there did come so many guests that I became weary and wanted to sneak to my room to bed.
- 2ND—Received our Senior privileges, for which we are indeed grateful.
- 3RD—We residents of Pembroke to the Pembroke party dressed as orientals. An enjoyable time but that I was in fear for being on the program.
- 4TH—The old girls very cordial to certain of the new ones.
- 5TH—To the class of gymnastics for the first time where I did learn of a new exercise called the "stoop-fall" position. This evening we did compile a list of those girls whom we desire for our club.
- 6TH—Much secrecy over the names on the lists, we old girls pledged not to tell.
- 7TH—On this evening did the new girls sign up for clubs. Much excitement just before they entered the chapel, and some last-minute conferences in corners.
- 9TH—We were mightily impressed, this evening with the candle light service of the Y. W. C. A.
- 12TH—Receiving the list of maidens for our club, we were taken with much joy, perceiving that we received practically all, on our first list.
- 14TH—Came the "fags" to breakfast in out-landish attire, and they did amuse us mightily. My roommate, poor girl, did have much to do what with the shining of my shoes, the making of my bed, and the manicuring of my nails.
- 15TH—Formal initiation held on this day. I was much struck by the beauty and symbolism of the ceremony.

- 17TH—After much labor, our news journal, the "Hyphen," makes its first appearance.
- 21ST—Many stricken with a plague upon this day, some thinking it due to the chicken salad at the tea-room.
- 22ND—Comes Witter Bynner—a poet of the new school, to discourse with us. We did find in him a most fascinating personality. I was much put to it to dress myself against evening, there being a dance arranged by the young ladies from Missouri. I to the dance and very merry, albeit I could not partake of the doughnuts for being in training for hockey. The guests dressed in most charming and curious fashioned attire.
- 23RD—(Lord's day) Up and prepared to attend church but called to special session of the Council, which did last well past church time.
- 24TH—Deadly monotony.
- 25TH—First fire drill, wherein in my confusion I did forget the number of my room, when called upon.
- 26TH—The lady who dispenses the funds, having called me to account today, I was embarrassed financially, being over-drawn twenty-two cents.
- 29TH—To the Hallowe'en dinner where we waxed merry over the delicious dinner, in spite of witches and ghosts and other terrifying Hallowe'en characters.
- 30TH—Up betimes and to church here at school, which did please me mightily, not wishing to go into the city for services because of the congestion in our special vehicles.
- NOVEMBER 2ND—To the Agora Follies, which did prove a most delightful diversion from our routine.
- 3RD—Much rehearsing and running to and fro for a great event.
- 4TH—To breakfast with the Commander of the American forces-General Pershing. We did array ourselves in white and salute in most military manner as he passed. At the breakfast, we did sing two songs to the General, which did please our President Dr. Blanton very much, he being at all times proud of the ability of his girls.
- 7TH—To the Anti Pan cinema which we all enjoyed very much.
- 8TH—Panther-Olympian contest in hockey, with Olympions taking long end of 26-14 score.
- 11TH—Armistice day, but no holiday except for two minutes, in the which time we did bow our heads in remembrance of our boys. To the Panther-Athenian contest in the afternoon with the score 26-6 for Athenians. To the Ryman this evening to a tableau presented by Miss Townsend, the school being mightily disappointed in not being able to sing.
- 14TH—Comes Lada, the dancer, to the Ryman.
- 15TH—Olympian 8—Athenian 30 in game today.
- 18TH AND 19TH—The Reign of Terror, the revival of learning, the dawn of reasoning, in other words—exams.
- 20TH—The calm after the storm. To church to meditate on peaceful subjects.
- 21ST—Regular-Panther contest in hockey—Panthers 20. Regulars 12.
- 23RD—Godowsky concert.
- 24TH—Thanksgiving. We to the game between the Regular young ladies and the Athenian young ladies, the score being 18-16 in favor of the young ladies favoring the red and white.

25TH—Very happy in the signing of home going blanks.
26TH—To the Tri-K dance in the costume of Pierrette.
29TH—I to Council for the reading of a paper during Sunday school, but the report being a mistake, I was excused, for which I was mightily thankful.
30TH—An unexpected fire drill before breakfast in the which I was somewhat embarrassed as to my attire. To the Regular—Athenian game, the score being 6-26, making the Athenians champions in hockey.
DECEMBER 4TH—"Milady in Brown" pays us a visit. She did not leave a card, but then, it was not in the leaving of things that she specialized.
8TH—To the attractive dinner dance to which the Senior Middles invited the Seniors.
9TH—Hutchinson recital.
12TH—The Junior Middles play Santa Claus to the orphans. To Recreation Hall in the afternoon to purchase my ticket home, after the buying of which I find myself much depleted in funds. Christmas parties everywhere.
14TH—John McCormack.
15TH—To the lovely Christmas dinner, then to the presentation of "Eager Heart," in which I took a part. Because of so many on the stage we were mightily put to it to keep the angels from crowding us out of Bethlehem.
16TH—Home sweet home—the land of the free, my heart full of joy, my pocket book well-nigh empty.
JANUARY 4TH—Back again. With the beginning of the new year I have resolved to mend my ways henceforth, in several matters.
9TH—To some lectures in the French language, parts of which I enjoyed very much, but attending two in one day, I became weary.

13TH—Senior tea.
14TH—Prep Special dance.
16TH—Comes Walter Hampton in the play "Hamlet" by William Shakespeare, which pleased us mightily, especially "to be or not to be," which, in truth, is all that some girls came to hear.
18TH—Marked by "Romeo and Juliet" and the appearance of the "Eskimo pie."
21ST—To the dance arranged by the young ladies from Illinois during which was featured the Sheik.
22ND—(Lord's day) To church where I did tear up paper and so pass the time during the sermon.
24TH—Cincinatti Symphony.
27TH—Numerous rumors going around about the matrimonial intentions of some of our faculty. Miss Morrison arranges a little surprise in the form of a huge diamond (?) ring.
28TH—Tennessee dance—little cotton bales as favors.
FEBRUARY 1ST—To the presentation of "Ghosts," which I enjoyed, albeit heartily ashamed of some of my colleagues for their emotional outbursts during tense situations.
2ND—"Master Builder."
4TH—I busy with exams and wishing mightily that I had been more diligent.
7TH—Exams continued.
11TH—Georgia—Alabama Valentine dance.
13TH—I up to Recreation Hall to see the wedding of Miss Blanton Mr. Townsend, and found the old stairway more beautiful than I had ever seen it.
14TH—College Special—Senior dinner dance.

- 17TH—We to the Ryman to hear the evangelist, Gypsy Smith, and I do think my roommate much improved ever since.
- 18TH—To the Ryman to see Mme. Pavlowa dance, she being like a fairy doll.
- 22ND—To dine in state with my roommate costumed like a colonial lady and I in flowered coat and knickers, in celebration of Washington's birthday. Alex Morrison as George, and Mary Kennedy as Martha, did preside over festivities.
- 23RD—To classes, etc. Nothing interesting today.
- 24TH—To hear Gypsy Smith again.
- 25TH—Oklahoma dance carrying out their colors—red and white.
- 27TH—Kentucky tea dance in gym from 3:00 to 5:30.
- MARCH 4TH—To the Agora dance, where the President was commended for her grace.
- 11TH—A. K. dance.
- 17TH—Milestones dinner where the staff did discourse on the merits of the book, thus persuading everyone to buy.
- 18TH—Del Ver dance, in St. Patrick idea.
- 20TH—I up to account for the wearing of a skirt that was thought too short.
- 21ST—Did take much exercise today in the looking for our beloved President Dr. Blanton, who was hard to locate.
- 25TH—To the Louisiana dance which was cleverly carried out in the card idea.
- 27TH—To hear Freida Hemple who does have a clear, high voice that pleases.
- 29TH—To hear Erna Rubenstein—a mite of a girl, albeit with so much poise that I was fain to marvel, remembering myself at that age.

- APRIL 1ST—Business of taking my exams, one of my instructresses expected me to fail, in the which I fooled her mightily (it being the first of April) having sat up the night before, memorizing my notebook.
- 3RD—We Seniors to Shelby Park by trolley where we did spend the afternoon in the paddling of canoes.
- 8TH—Most attractive dance of X L's on roof garden.
- 10TH—To Heron with the Penta Taus who did celebrate the coming of Easter with a german.
- 16TH—(Lord's day—Easter) Up betimes—awakened by sweet carols which did seem a relief from the rising bell.
- 20TH—On this day were the Seniors free. I did pass the day in town with much spending of money for candy, clothes, and movies, so that I am near financially embarrassed again. When we did return in the evening there were rumors of a combat. To paraphrase an old nursery rhyme, the affair might be styled "Patty-Kate"

Thus endeth my chronicle, being mightily pressed for time by the printer. In fact, I do throw the papers on the floor as I write, and the printer picks them up and sets the type, so forgive the haste. Future dates are April 29, the orchid dance at which "Miss Osiron" is to make her debut in Ward-Belmont, the T. C. C. Breakfast dance on May 1, the "Canticle of Pan" by the Senior Middles on May 3, to say nothing of Field day, May day, step singing, the Baccalaureate, and class day.

We do hope that you will be pleased with our efforts; if you are not, pray do not mention it.

We have done our best, and the work on the 1922 "Milestones" here endeth.

MARTHA AND GEORGE WASHINGTON

Ward-Belmont's Washington Birthday Party

What's this I see? Tell me—am I dreaming? There among those white pillars are hosts of beruffled and puffed, powdered-haired maidens on the arms of lace ruffled and exceedingly graceful gentlemen. They pass in and out the hall, stopping here and there to laugh and chat together. Their apparel is rich in color and fabric, and shows much silk and brocade and laces. It is of the mode which our great-great grandmothers wore a century and a half ago.

And here they are now in another large white pillared hall with blue and gold decorations hanging from the chandeliers. They are seated around large tables while white-capped and aproned servants serve them with appetizing dainties. Throughout the dinner an orchestra is playing soft music, and now and then the men and maidens sing as their fancy takes them.

But now they're leaving this hall. Let's follow them, for they all seem to be going together. Yes, there they go into an elegant ball-room, equally as beautiful as the banquet-hall. They are all seated now and the orchestra is beginning to play. A hush falls over the room, and the men and maidens make way in the center, for evidently someone of importance is coming. As the slow strains of the Minuet are heard, a very stately gentleman is leading a beautiful lady down the length of the hall and take their place upon a dais at the extreme end, there to preside over the festivities of the evening. Immediately after them come twelve youths and maids who daintily and easily go through the steps of the Minuet.

Now the music is becoming more spirited and the others are falling into the swing of the melody,—but look, they are all doing a modern fox-trot! How inconsistent of these people! Oh, now I see it all clearly. This is the twenty-second of February and the annual Washington Birthday party in our own Ward-Belmont. The stately gentleman and his lady are no other than Alex Morrison and Mary Kennedy, who were elected as George and Martha by the votes of the entire school. It was the entire student body who joined in the dance, and the dancers in the Minuet were chosen for their exceptional grace. In all, it has been a most suitable and charming party, this beautiful observance of the birthday of "the Father of our Country."

BOBBED HAIR

Bobbed hair is the average between girl's hair and a bald head. It generally comes through shear carelessness. It is not to be laughed at, though it always tickles anyone close enough. It has an advantage over long hair in that it will wave in the wind. Long hair has to be waved in a beauty shop.

There are two kinds of bobbed hair, light and dark. The light haired ones are generally pretty and are good singers. The dark haired ones are prettier still. Girls of the Blonde type are very light-headed. This also applies to those in the brunette class.

Bobbed haired girls are a step ahead of the others, and must therefore be up in fashion in all things. They fluff up their hair, lift their eyebrows, raise their voices, and elevate their skirts; and yet there are people who say that the modern girl does not devote any time or thought to higher things!—(Octopus)

CONVERSATION IN FULL—
AFTER LIGHT FALLS

THE MEEKEST WOMAN

A minister was examining the children of a Sunday school class in their knowledge of Bible characters, and began:

"Who was the first man?"
"Adam!"—All answered in Chorus
"Who was the first woman?"
"Eve!"—They all shouted.
"Who was the meekest man?"
"Moses!"
"Who was the meekest woman?"
Every one was silent. Finally a hand went up
"There wasn't any!"

"Are they going together yet?"
"What?"
"Your feet, of course!"—(Octopus.)

WELL SAID

"There's a time to part and a time to meet,
There's a time to sleep and a time to eat,
There's a time to work and a time to play,
There's a time to sing and a time to pray,
There's a time that's glad and a time that's blue,
There's a time to plan and a time to do,
There's a time to grin and show your grit—
But there never yet was a time to quit."
—(Strathmorean.)

SENIOR: "Want to get next to something with money in it?"
SENIOR MIDDLE: "Sure!"
SENIOR: "Well, go down to the city and lean up against the bank."

Ward-Belmont Handbook

"REGULATIONS"

No request for evening callers need be filed. Open house is always observed.

All requests for leaving the campus, shopping must be filed in Dr. Blanton's office.

Shoes—

Shoes with French heels are worn for day wear. For evening socket-fit or "Y. W." Cantilever last are worn.

Dress—

Evening dress is always needed for our social affairs. Every student should be provided with an elaborate evening gown.

Jewelry—

It brightens the school up for jewelry to be worn. By all means bring family heirlooms. They will be needed for masquerades, etc.

Borrowing is encouraged.

Students who are not well enough to go to the dining room may stay in their rooms—Trays will be sent them.

Be sure and scatter paper on the grounds. It makes the campus riotous with color and gives the effect of budding flowers.

Only four week-ends a month may be spent out of school.

THE SUNDAY SCHOOL

The Sunday School is held from 8:30 to 9:30 (subject to change by Emma).

DEPARTMENT OF PHYSICAL EDUCATION

Every student who desires may take two periods a week of out-door exercise of any preferred forms as follows:

Fall—Hide and Seek, Hiding the Stick, Sugar-Loaf Lawn.

Spring—Hop-Scotch, Puss-in-the-Corner, Follow Your Leader.

Winter—Two periods of gymnastic work. Nothing more strenuous than skipping is done.

Regular attendance is not required. We all need a rest.

RULES OF CLUB ORGANIZATION

All new students must be pledged for membership within two weeks.

Elaborate parties are given during rushing season by all clubs.

Visiting for choice of club members shall fall between the hours of 6:45 A. M. to 9:45 P. M. We stop only to sleep.

THE TEA ROOM

The Tea Room is under the direction of Baxter. Here you may, if you are financially able, meet your friends over a social cup of tea (changed to Eskimo pies by popular vote).

SCHOOL PUBLICATIONS

THE PYTHEN

The Pythen is managed and edited by a staff selected by the maids. Students are asked to contribute their best thoughts to the paper. (If they have any).

Gravestones is the school annual issued each May (if the printers do not strike) by a staff appointed by the faculty.

TRADITIONS

Girls at Ward-Belmont observe April Fool by wearing their accustomed costumes. The effect is all that could be desired.

HINTS

Chapel is our meeting place. Silence is no object.

There is no need in being on time to your appointments. No one minds waiting.

Middy blouses are our uniform for dinner. Fresh ones may be worn daily, owing to the generosity of the Hermitage Laundry.

Cutting classes is a step towards eligibility at Ward-Belmont. Mrs. Armstrong, in the basement of Heron, will explain this more fully.

Victrolas add much to the gaiety of the halls. Stands are provided in every room for them.

If you do not like your room-mate the first day, go immediately to Mrs. Blanton, and she will change you.

Be sure and change your course everytime you fail or have a disagreement with a teacher. Miss Norris is very obliging in this matter. After all, we all must have happiness.

You may take down the rules on the closet door, regarding the care of your room. They were just printed to test the new typing machine. Your hostess will give you all the information needed.

All old girls be sure and bring an extra amount of money to be spent "upon a new girl with a view to securing them as club members."

The dressing bell rings at 5:30. (If the clock in Rec. Hall is right).

I Wonder

SCENE—You'll see.
TIME—Use your imagination.

DRAMATIS PERSONAE—
A girl—yes, from Ward-Belmont
Virgil, her guide
Spirits, etc.

Scene I—In the World of Shadows.

Virgil—Be careful! There's a hole in these adamantine steps. Dr. Crosland is going to have it fixed before the millenium but there have been so many other things, he hasn't gotten to it yet.

Girl—Dr. Crosland? Why there used to be a man by that name who was Associate President of the school where I went to—Ward Belmont.

Virgil—That's right. You did go to Ward-Belmont, didn't you? Well, well. It's funny I didn't think of that before. Why you're going to see lots of people you know—in fact, I believe your whole faculty is down here now.

Girl—You don't mean to say I'm going to see all my old teachers?

Virgil—Yes, it's like this. They're waiting here on this side of the river to be ferried to the Land of the Blessed and in this world you see, they do the same things they did on earth.

Girl—(eagerly) Oh! then let's hurry. I can't wait to see what they're all doing.

(They pass on but are stopped by sudden barking.)

Girl—Virgil, that's the Cerberus, isn't it? (shivering) I always imagined he was the most awful looking thing!

Virgil—We used to have the Cerberus but you see since your faculty came down here we had to do away with him for Miss Morrison brought Ah Oui along and they were continually getting into scraps.

Girl—And is Ah Oui really here too?

Virgil—Indeed he is and a great nuisance too, always snapping at the heels of the spirits when they're just getting calmed down. (The girl spies two figures in the distance.)

Girl—Look Virgil! Who's that over there?—those two spirits wandering around? What are they looking for?

Virgil (Reprovingly)—Don't you recognize them? Why that's Miss Rucker with Miss Rogers searching for Pluto. Weren't they quite interested in him on earth?

Girl—Yes, I guess they were, the whole school will vouch for that. (A figure stands near by with gaze directed on the ground)

Girl—If there isn't dear Miss Ross. Did you hear what she said Virgil? "What did I come down here for anyway."

Virgil—Let me tell you something quite amusing. You know Miss Sison when she first came down here insisted that the spirits weren't getting enough exercise.

Girl—What did she do?

Virgil—Well she gets them all out now for wing exercises and it's really quite remarkable how much they can do and keep their equilibrium. But the thing I was going to tell you was about Miss Sheppe. She got to wiggling her wings a little to far and fast the other day and began to ascend. You ought to have heard her roar!

Girl—Too bad she didn't have some wings the day she threatened to jump out of the window during Math Class.

Virgil—Now Miss Norris is giving a loving cup to that group which can 'keep above the clouds' the longest and Mrs. Bowen does the timing and offers suggestions, and takes care of the laggards.

(The girl looks around her anxiously)

Girl—But, Virgil, what do these spirits do all the time down here?

Virgil—Oh, that's simple. One of the most important things is harp practice. Let's see—there are five in that,—Misses Blythe, Ransom, Throne, and Leftwich, and Mrs. Schmitz. They don't like to practice much but Mrs. Murkin keeps them at it.

Girl—That must make quite a quintette.
Virgil—Yes, it does. We had quite a time to find enough harps. We used to have a full half dozen but the last bunch down here accidentally sat on two one day.

Girl—And who directs them? Surely somebody would have to.
Virgil—Indeed yes. It's Mr. Goodman. He keeps raving on at them to "put something into it" until the other day Miss Throne said quite spiritedly "I didn't bring anything with me, Sir!"
(They walk on a little farther)

Girl—Everything seems to run so smoothly here. There doesn't seem to be any crowding for seats in the boat. How do they do that?

Virgil—You say you went to Ward-Belmont and don't know that? Well, I'll tell you. Much of the order is due to Miss Mills as usual. The spirits "file" to her for permission to leave and she inspects to see that they wear hose with their sandals and that their robes aren't too short.

Girl—Just like school!
Virgil—And then also Mrs. Lowry measures them for their halos, and Sallie Beth Moore sees that they're properly adjusted.

Girl—I always wondered if they'd come to that next in school. But tell me about the rest of the order.

Virgil—As for meals, Miss Cooper and Mrs. Robinson see about that but it isn't much work, for all they have is ambrosia and bacon.

Girl—They didn't leave out the bacon, did they? And Miss Blackwell—does she ever call them up for being late?

Virgil—Well I guess she does! And not a few of them have had to postpone their journeys to the other side indefinitely on account of it.

Girl—And Mrs. Plaskett—what does she do?
Virgil—Oh she's kept busy all right together with Miss Shea and Miss Swift. You see they have to tend to all the spiritual messages with the upper world for Dr. Blanton, principally about those things he forgot to do while on earth.

(They come in full sight of the River Styx).
Girl—Here's the River Styx and if there isn't Charon and his boat!

Virgil—Yes, this is the Styx all right but that's not Charon, but Dr. Hollinshead. He said when he first came down here that his principal task on earth was steering people through the depths of H₂O and so we offered him this job. Charon was really setting pretty old and really needed a vacation. Mrs. Hollinshead keeps the spirits from falling overboard.

Girl—Yes, sir, there was many a girl at W. B. that Dr. Hollinshead helped out,—myself for one. And is Miss McFadden still helping him?

Virgil—Part of the time she helps him steer the boat and the rest she searches with Miss Hollinger among the rocks for new species of fauna.

Girl—How funny, Virgil! Both sides of that boat aren't the same color!

Virgil—Well, you see, Mrs. Plunkett and Miss Gordon couldn't agree on the color scheme, so Mrs. Plunkett made her side maroon and mauve and Miss Gordon made hers henna and cerise.

(They see something languidly floating by on the river.)
Girl—You don't need to tell me who that is—Miss Maxwell or I'm no judge!

Virgil—Right you are. And by the way did I mention that Miss Scruggs has taken up the psychology of ghosts and Miss Gilkeson is trying to explain the "significance" of such a study.

Girl—I'll declare,—back to their old tricks.
Virgil—You ought to have seen what I saw the other day—a real sure enough Rose Garden, Mr. & Mrs. Rose and two little Rose buds.

And speaking of those temperamental music teachers of yours—

Girl—What is Signor doing?

Virgil—He is compiling a fine collection of tea-pots of the new era I don't know just what he expects to do with them but then—

(Virgil points to a group about to enter the boat.)

Virgil—See those spirits there, getting into the boat?

Girl—Yes, how illustrious they look and that one with her eyes bent on the ground and her hands behind her—

Virgil—That one there is Miss Rhea. Then those two just behind her—they're Miss Ransom and Miss Brooke. If you'll notice the title of the book they're memorizing you'll see that it is Dante's "Inferno" in the original. I believe this is the fifth volume they've done. Then comes Miss Fields still rampant on woman suffrage—and Miss Shapard bringing up the rear because she stops and asks everyone what kind of a mind he has!

(The girl gives a cry and starts forward)

Girl—Oh Virgil, there's Mme. Graziani poised ready to dive into the river! (Sighs in relief.) Oh thank goodness, Mr. Meade has rescued her. It surely was a good thing he could walk the way he did.

Virgil—That all comes because of Margaret Morrison again. She has been urging the spirits to swim the river rather than wait for the ferry.

Girl—(Peering off) Do I recognize that spirit way up there on that rock over looking the river? I bet that's Miss Townsend. She always had "high" aspirations. Let's hope her perch doesn't collapse this time.

Virgil—Maybe the boat with it's passengers reminds her of the "landing of the Pilgrims." I do believe she's working the whole idea out for future use for there is Miss Middleton giving the passengers "oneness."

Girl—Well, I guess I have seen about all my teachers.

Virgil—No, there are a few yet. But, then, come to think of it, a few have already crossed the river and gone on. Your French teachers went half an age ago. They had to take them separately because no one else could understand them.

(He ponders)

Oh, yes,—in that boat were Dr. and Mrs. Whitson still talking on the modern girl, with Dr. Johnson keeping the peace. Then Miss Thatch went in that load so she could see that everyone else had gotten into the boat all right, and Miss Cason—we've been reminiscing at a great rate. We've been really well acquainted for some time.

Girl—And didn't you say Miss Clements went on that trip too?

Virgil—Yes, and her typewriter, adding machine, etc., pretty nearly put an end to the trip.

(Girl sees figure on opposite shore.)

Girl—Who's that tripping along so joyously, Virgil?

Virgil—That's Miss Leavell. She is happy now to be able to prophesy the future of the world. Hear that music?

Girl—Yes, it sounds familiar.

Virgil—That's Miss Kirkham and Miss Boyer leading Miss Sloan in the "Gloria" while Mr. Henkel plays variations on his favorite horn.

Girl—Makes me almost think I was back at school.

SCENE II.

Voice—Well, you old crazy—wake up. It's bad enough for you to go to sleep with exams tomorrow, but when you start making that noise—that's the limit.

Girl—Oh shucks! Honestly I was having the rarest dream about the faculty. I wonder—

We Nominate for the Hall of Fame

AH OUI, because he is the biggest snob on the campus, because he is always the first one to welcome our "dates," because he is Miss Morrison's favorite, and because he has more privileges than any of the other members of Ward-Belmont's menagerie.

MISS MORRISON and MISS SISSON, because they are our esteemed instructors in hop-scotch, hide-and-go-seek, and tiddle-dee-winks; because the former is our official walking bulletin board, and also the W-B chief of police; because the latter is our true friend and advisor in all matters concerning food, posture, eyelashes, and freckles,—in fact everything from teeth to heels, and also because she serves both as a stop-cock and safety-valve on length of skirts, make of shoes, and extraordinarily pink complexions. And finally, we believe that they deserve this place of honor because they "practice what they preach."

OUR WATCHMAN, because he is our idea of a "long drink of water," because he is the only person we have found who doesn't want his picture in the annual, because he fears women more than all the criminals put together, and because he has, in our estimation,—the easiest job in the world. (The monitors do the dirty work).

MRS. SHEPHERD, because she operates one of the most popular institutions on the campus, because we have it from a reliable source that she says "plain or nut?" in her sleep; because, she is the only one who can get prompt service from Odelle or Baxter, because her chicken salad is a "knock-out," and because her fresh strawberry sundaes run in strong competition to charity funds.

WILLIAM, because his patience is inexhaustible, because he plays the triple role of postman, butler and bell ringer, because of his ability to "shoo" our dates home, and because he is always welcome, it matters not to which dormitory he goes,—just so he brings a telegram from "him."

Up on the roof so high

To The Young Ladies of Mont-Robert Lodge in appreciation of their most delightful hospitality at breakfast, November 4, 1921,
John S. Penning

“The Pershing Breakfast”

“The above is the name most generally given to that momentous event in the history of Ward-Belmont and in the lives of all the girls attending that institution during the year 1921-22. Then too, this occasion was a momentous one in the life of others than the students and faculty,—it was an occasion long remembered and highly regarded by General Pershing and his staff.” These were the words spoken many years later by one who had been honored at this breakfast years before. He went on.

“How well I remember driving through the beautiful campus, and, alighting before a large brick building, artistically constructed, and wonderfully in harmony with the back-ground of foliage. But the most attractive sight of all was that of the lines of girls, all dressed in white, which bordered the walk to the main building. Up this walk we passed and were saluted by the girls, who then marched into the dining room and were standing there when we entered. Some one struck a chord on the piano and the girls sent forth this rousing song, composed, I afterwards learned, by one of themselves. It was sung to the tune of “Good Morning, Mr. Zip, Zip, Zip,” and went something like this:

*“Good morning, Mr. Jack Black Jack,
With your officers all looking fine,
We’re glad to have you with us now
At this, our breakfast time.
Ashes to ashes, dust to dust,
If hard tack didn’t get you, then our biscuits must.*

*Good morning, Mr. Black Jack,
Are you hungry, well it’s breakfast,
Are you hungry, well it’s breakfast,
Are you hungry, well it’s breakfast time.”*

How pleased we all were, especially the general. His eyes filled with tears of gratitude and he said with evident feeling, “This is the greatest honor that could be bestowed on any man.” We then partook of a tempting breakfast which made us feel that any boasting about southern cooks or cookery was absolutely justifiable. A tableau was presented in which six girls marched through the two large dining rooms which were decorated with flowers and red, white and blue streamers, each girl carrying a flag of one of the allied nations. Another feature of the breakfast program was a whistling solo by one of the girls, which could not have been better. As soon as this was finished three girls, daughters of high officers in the army, presented Pershing with a Ward-Belmont pin. They told him that they had come to capture him; but in his excellent speech which followed the presentation of the pin, he answered that he had been both captured and captivated.

“We were sorry to leave this place which seemed so filled with the spirit of youth and song, but other engagements took us away. Perhaps some day I shall be able to return to Ward-Belmont and enjoy again the hospitality of that institution.”

WOMAN—THE MOTOR
(They are just alike.)

She's probably a self-starter,
Even tho' she does have a crank,
She may be moody but she's usually there,
When it comes to carrying the load over the hill.
She's sometimes a homebreaker,
And sometimes a bankrupter,
But more often she's a joy maker,
She never blows her own horn,
And despite opinions to the contrary,
She uses a fan for other purposes than firting,
She hates life's jolts and rough spots,
She may not be the very latest model
Hers may not be a beautiful design,
But she's the little motor that will drive straight into the garage of some good man's heart,
And, the world just can't Speed along without Her!"

THE OLD FAMILIAR FACES

(Many Apologies to Chas. Lamb.)

"I have had room-mates, I have had companions,
In my days of girl's school, in my joyful schooldays;
All, all are gone, the old familiar faces.
There we had laughing, there we had studying,
Cramming late, feasting late, with our bosom cronies;
All, all are gone, the old familiar faces.
I had a crush once, fairest among women;
She too, has left me, I can not see her;
All, all are gone, the old familiar faces.
I have had teachers, kinder friends had no one,
Like an ingrate, I left my friends abruptly;
All, all are gone, the old familiar faces
Roomies of my bosom—thou more than a sister
Why do you not live in my father's dwelling?
So might we talk of the old familiar faces—
Now some have flunked, and some they have graduated
But all are taken from me; all are departed;
All, all are gone, the old familiar faces.

As the goat said when he swallowed the mirror:—
"That's food for reflection."

Dreams are illusions, and many a girl's complexion is a perfect dream!

"Can you picture this?" said Marty to Mr. Thuss, as she brought in one to be photographed for the milestones

"Why didn't you answer my letter?"

"I never received it."

"Oh! you didn't?"

"No, and besides I didn't like some of the things you said in it!"

We could write pages about the methods used in Hermitage Laundry and fail to say what prof. Litterer has made so plain in such few words.

We can only add that our service of delivery—

our courtesy, etc.—is on the same high plane as the sanitary and modern methods of laundering employed inside our plant.
