LAST CAMPUS GAME TO BE PLAYED HERE TO-DAY

CLEMSON MEETS P. C.

Wednesday afternoon the Tigers make their last appearance in public before the big game with Davidson on Thanksgiving. P. C. has a team that is much in the same condition as ours; very much broken up by injuries to several of their men. However, they have a lot of spirit left and expect to give Coach Hart's men a nice scrap ere the last whistle blows. P. C. is also making ready for a game on Thanksgiving with their deadly rivals, Newberry.

We are sorry to say that "Annie" Hardin, who has filled the position of full back so well this year, will not be able to get back into the game this season on account of his bum knee. Capt. Major's absence was felt very much in the game last week, but we are glad to get the good news that he is recovering rapidly from his injuries and will probably play his greatest game when we line up against the Davidsonians. "Fish" Witsell's shoulder is improving nicely, and he should be in great form by Thanksgiving. The whole squad is going good and fighting hard now, and with the proper support, are going to make an invasion of the Tar Heel State that will bring sorrow to some of its inhabitants.

ON TO CHARLOTTE

No definite announcements have been made as to permits being granted to cadets for the Charlotte trip, but there are a lot of men who can make the trip all right. Every man that can possibly do so, should make the trip with the team and cheer them on while they settle up for that scoreless tie of last year. Davidson has the best team that they have ever had, but we can go them one better. What d'you say? Are you going?

SENIORS TO HAVE DANCE

The Senior Dance Club will have its first dance Saturday night. Quite a number of ladies are expected and the various committees are busy, trying to make this one of the best informals of the season.

HENDERSON-BARNETTE

The following announcement is of great interest to students, faculty, and alumni alike.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Payne Henderson announce the marriage of their daughter Mary Payne to

Dr. William Augustus Barnette
Wednesday, November the fifteenth one thousand nine hundred and sixteen
Phoenix, South Carolina

At Home
after December first
Clemson College, S. C.

The wedding was a quiet home affair, because of the death of the groom's father a few weeks ago. There were no attendants except the little flower girl and the ring bearer who preceded the bride and groom. The solemn and impressive ceremony was performed by the Rev. Dr. Brown of the Greenwood Baptist Church. After refreshments were served, the newly married couple motored to Greenwood where they took train for a short trip to various northern cities. They will be at home to their friends at Prof. Harper's after December 1st.

THERE'S A REASON

Judge: "Officer, what's the matter with the prisoner—tell her to stop that crying—she's been at it fifteen minutes."
(More sobs).

Officer: "Please, sir, I'm a-thinking she wants to be bailed out."

CITADEL WINS BY CLOSE SCORE

The Tigers suffered defeat at the hands of the Bull Dogs in a clean fair fight by the close score of 3 to 0. The teams were evenly matched as to weight but Clemson was handicapped from the start in having two of her backfield men all bunged up. Despite this fact, the Tigers put up a great fight and deserve unreserved praise for the game they played. The game started off bad for us and forced us to take the defensive. It was not until the last quarter that we assumed that old-time eat-em-up drive and then we took the ball into Citadel's territory and kept it there. The Clemson line was like a stone wall. The famous Sweitzer found his match that day. He simply couldn't find a hole in that line. On the other hand, when we had the ball, we never failed to gain on a single line plunge. The Citadel failed to work their famous passes as they had hoped. Weeks tried passing time and again but comparatively few were successful. "Stumps" Banks was right there on the job when it came to breaking them up. It was due to Weeks' lucky toe, however, that we were defeated. Weeks played a good, clean, consistent game and deserves full credit. Sweitzer, Marshall, and Weeks played the best game for the Citadel.

For Clemson, "Stumps" Banks played a beautiful game. On the defensive, his work in tackling and in breaking up passes was simply great. When it came to carrying the ball, he couldn't be stopped. In the last quarter he took the ball up the entire length of the field to the Citadel's 3-yard line without a single failure to gain. Adams never failed to gain four or five yards thru the Citadel's line when he carried the ball. Witsell could not play his usual brilliant game because of his condition, but he was right there trying just the same. "Dopie" Major could scarcely walk, but what it took to hobble, he had it. Our team certainly tried hard and put up one of the hardest scraps that has ever been staged on a South Carolina gridiron, and the whole corps should be justly proud of them.

The following is the game by quarters:

First Quarter

The Citadel took the North goal and Clemson the South. Witsell kicked off to Crouch who returned the ball to the 20-yard line. Weeks took 12 yards, and Switzer followed with four. On the next play Weeks was thrown for a loss of 1 yard while Switzer failed to gain on the next play. Weeks then punted out to Witsell who returned to the 35-yard line. Adams took 10 yards. Cogswell took 2. Clemson was penalized 15 yards for holding. Ball on the 30-yard line. Adams took 2 yards. Witsell punts to Marshall who returned to middle of field on a good run. Switzer failed to gain, and on the next play failed to gain. Weeks tried a forward pass, but it was broken up. Then he tried another but it met with the same result, the ball going to Clemson on the 38-yard line. Adams took 2, then 1, and Cogswell burst through for 3 more. Witsell then punted to Marshall on the 30-yard line, who was downed in his tracks. Citadel off side, ball on 25-yard line. Switzer thrown for loss of 1 foot. Cogswell fails to gain. Weeks punted out and ball grounded, Clemson's ball on the 30-yard line. Adams loses 12 yards. Witsell punts out and ball is returned to 50-yard line. Switzer took 2 yards, then 15 yards. Citadel penalized 15 yards for holding. Weeks loses 1 yard. Switzer takes 5 yards. Ball on 45-yard line. Weeks punts to Witsell who fumbles on 20-yard line and Citadel recovers. Switzer fails to gain. Time out for Citadel. Switzer goes 2 yards. Weeks takes 5 yards. Ball on 5-yard line. End of first quarter.

CLASS BASKET BALL TEAMS ORGANIZED

Much interest is being shown these days in class basketball. Three of the classes have organized teams and a schedule for the games will soon be made out. It is hoped that these teams can get into shape, and the games played before the holidays in order to get a line on the material for the Varsity after the holidays, and also to get the men in good training and practice.

Much more interest and rivalry would be shown and greater efforts put forth if we could get a cup, or some other trophy for the winning team.

IN OTHER COLLEGES

When Vanderbilt ran away with things in the last four minutes of play and succeeded in making two more touchdowns on Auburn, they complicated matters in the standing for the Southern Championship title very much. Auburn is practically eliminated, while Georgia's defeat at the hands of Tech leaves a small field to contend for the title.

Brown defeated Harvard by a score of 21 to 0, and a negro half-back on the Brown team was the star. The defeat was really due to Harvard's saving her best men for the Yale game.

A number of the colleges of the State celebrated Wilson's re-election. Coker students had a big bonfire. Wofford, Furman, and Carolina were among those that gave parades.

Furman is looking forward to the meeting of the Press Association this week, and are making arrangements for it. Prof. J. L. Vass is to be one of the speakers, and they are trying to secure Dr. Daniel for an address.

The Furman eleven suffered heavily Saturday at the hands of North Carolina.

"Clemson College Easy for Cadets"—a headline from the V. M. I. Cadet. Wonder what they are saying now about the game last Saturday with the University of Virginia.

The new gymnasium at Winthrop was dedicated last Friday. Already the swimming pool is very popular and aquatic meets are held often.

Current Conversation—"Gee, I wish those new uniforms would come. I'm tired of patching and sewing buttons on."
"Yes and the breeze these mornings don't feel so warm on those place that are 'most worn thru.'"

About the greatest joke on the campus is the fellow who rests his thumbs in the arm holes of his vest, gives a shoe string spit, takes a deep breath, and begins to gas about his achievements. Some day when you feel blue, go up to such a character and take a good hearty laugh. He will feel highly honored because of the audience you give him, and you will have had some fun without any outlay of coin.
—The Hornet.

Oh, you're not by yourself. We have them too.

CROSS COUNTRY TEAM IN SHAPE

Every afternoon the men who are trying for a place on the team which is to represent Clemson in the Cross Country meet may be seen on the road or on the track. They are getting in splendid shape and, with the help of the training table, should be able to give their opponents all that they are looking for—and then some. Probably five or six men will make the trip to Newberry on Thanksgiving to compete for the cup. The race is to be five miles, each man running the entire distance. Several of the men who made the trip last year and several new men are showing up well. Come out about five o'clock some afternoon and watch them come in from the five mile circle to the Agricultural Hall.

HAWAIIAN SINGERS AND PLAYERS COMING SOON

Talking machine manufacturers report that during the past six months they have been rushed to keep up with the demands for records of Hawaiian music, the languorous twang of the ukelele and the subtle charm of the "oola" song having won their way into the hearts of the people of America to an unparalleled extent. The popular song, too, has felt the influence of the new school, and the "old mill" and "lovey dovey" type of ragtime song has been forced to bow to the new kind. Every song that the island folks had ever sung down on the Waikiki beach besides the surf has been imported to America and composers are paraphrasing and concocting frantically, in an effort to "make hay while the sun shines."

We are not going to be behind the balance of America in doing honor to the Hawaiian music, for it is announced that the Lyceum course is shortly to present a splendid company of Hawaiian Singers and Players. If you have never heard Hawaiian music you have a treat in store for you. It is restful, yet tingling, sleepy and delicious to the sense. There is always a note of pathos in it, a theme of longing. It is wistful and melancholy. Related to it are the yearning, saddened songs of the old-time slaves of the south.

We predict that this concert will make a big hit with our music lovers.

The following is the program for the concert on December 9:

Opening Medley—

Mauna Kea,
Moani Keala,
Old Plantation.

On the Beach at Waikiki.

Ninipo.

I saw a thing of greenish hue
And thought it was a lawn of grass,
But as I closer to it drew
I found it to be the Sophomore Class.

KNOCKERS

If there is any one thing that hurts a college from the inside, it is the knockers. And we certainly have our share.

Everyone here knows the games that have been played this season, and the results. And also every thinking man will realize that Coach Hart has succeeded remarkably well with the material that he had. Three Varsity men of last year are playing now; the others were second string men. He has had to make a new team and teach them his way of playing. Realizing this, we can say that the team has done remarkably well. Yet in spite of all this the hammers are very much in evidence. And the strange thing is the fact that many of the users of this tool are much larger and heavier than the men on the team.

The team has fought like tigers in every game, and there is nothing to apologize for in their behalf. If there is any apologizing to be done, it should be from the student body for their inadequate support of the team.

Hide your little hammer, and stick to that little saying, "If you can't say something good, then say nothing at all." The team is certainly "doing its darndest," but as long as that hammer of yours remains in evidence, they cannot do what you expect.

An outsider said that the twenty-five Clemson cadets at Orangeburg were better in supporting the team by cheering than was the whole Citadel corps. That's the spirit.

The pomp and glory of war has departed. Nowadays it's a sort of composite of working in slaughterhouse and digging sewers.

DO YOU KNOW THEM?

Mr. "Meant-to" has a comrade,
And his name is "Didn't-do";
Have you ever chanced to meet them?
Did they ever call on you?

These two fellows live together
In the house of "Never-will,"
And I'm told it's haunted—haunted,
By the ghost of "Might-have-been."
Salesman Bulletin (Bessie M. Best).

WITH THE OTHER PORKERS

"Stop!" The brakes of the motor were suddenly applied, a pandemonium of whirling wheels ensued, and the motorist came face to face with Constable Coppen, who had been hiding in the hedge.

"Excuse me, sir," said the portly police man, taking out his notebook and pencil, "but you exceeded the speed limit by two miles over a measured piece of road."

"I have done nothing of the kind," retorted the motorist, "and besides—"

"Well, if you don't believe me I'll call the sergeant, bein' as it was 'im as took the time. 'E's in the pigsty yonder."

"Don't trouble to do that," was the prompt reply. "I would sooner pay 50 times than disturb the sergeant at his meals!"—Ex.

A Boston firm offered a money prize for the best answer to the question "What Constitutes Success?" and awarded it to a Kansas woman who made this reply:

"He has achieved success who has lived well, laughed often and loved much; who has gained the respect of intelligent men and the love of little children; who has filled his niche and accomplished his task; who has left the world better than he found it, whether by an improved poppy, a perfect poem, or a rescued soul."

SHAKESPEAREAN SOCIETY ORGANIZED RECENTLY

The corps will probably be astounded to know that, in the heart of this institute, there has been organized a society modeled on the coffee-clubs of old. The object of this "Shakespearean Society" is to lessen our mental vacuum, thereby permitting us to "shoot" in one of our studies at Clemson. This society convenes on every Monday and Wednesday evenings at 7:33½. The refreshments are furnished by the member who has received the latest letter from home (check from Dad). They consist of "Velvet" weed, cob pipes, and tooth-picks. The officers are as follows:

Chief Demon, "Friday" Brice.
First Witch, "Tom" Brandon.
Second Witch, "Daddy" Norman.
Clown, "Jerry" Moore.
Soothsayer, "Peter" Durham.
Chief Conspirator, "Lucy" Fletcher.

BE THE FELLOW YOUR MOTHER THINKS YOU ARE

While walking down a crowded downtown street the other day, I heard a little urchin to his comrade turn and say:

"Say, Jimmy, let me tell youse, I'd be happy as a clam
If I only was the feller that me mudder thinks I am."

"Gee, Jim, she t'inks dat I'm a wonder, and she knows her little lad
Could never mix with nothing that was ugly, mean or bad.

Lots er times I sits and t'inks how nice 'twould be—gee whiz—
If a feller was the feller that his mother t'inks he is."

My friends, be yours a life of toil or undiluted joy,

You can learn a lesson from this small unlettered boy,

Don't aim to be an earthly saint, with your eyes fixed on a star;

Just try to be the feller that your mother thinks you are. —E.x.

TO-DAY

The following poem has appeared in newspapers in every part of the world where English is spoken, and has been credited to various authors. The Literary Digest now gives the credit to the poet to whom the credit belongs, Douglas Mallock.

Sure, this world is full of trouble—
I ain't said it ain't.
Lord, I've had enough and double
Reasons for complaint.
Rain an' storm have come to fret me,
Skies are often gray;
Thorns an' brambles have beset me,
On the road—but say,
Ain't it fine today!

What's the use of always weepin',
Makin' trouble last?
What's the use of always keepin'
Thinkin' of the past?
Each must have his tribulation,
Water with the wine,
Life, ain't no celebration.
Trouble? I've had mine—
But today is fine!

It's today that I am livin',
Not a month ago;
Havin', losin', takin', givin',
As time wills it so.
Yesterday a cloud of sorrow
Fell across the way,
It may rain again tomorrow,
It may rain—but say,
Ain't it fine today!

SOCIALS

Mr. Arthur M. Leland entertained delightfully at several informal receptions in Room 88 this week. He is very much delighted at the prospect of having many more such pleasant evenings.

Mrs. Moore, Mrs. Riggs' mother, who has been quite sick during the past week is rapidly improving, and is expected to be out in the next few days.

Our three illustrious majors, Cadets Lightsey, Floyd, and Graham took a little journey to Anderson on Sunday, and from all appearances they seem to have enjoyed themselves very much.

Mrs. Willis is a guest of Mrs. W. M. Riggs this week.

The bazaar given by the ladies of the Presbyterian Church was a great success. The gymnasium was decorated very prettily and a great deal of comment was especially attached to the tea room. This room was decorated in an Oriental style and the young ladies who served in this booth were dressed very attractively and were patronized well by both the students and the people of the "Hill".

Dr. and Mrs. D. W. Daniel entertained at cards in their attractive home on Thursday night, in honor of Miss Margaret King, the charming guest of Miss Hutchinson.

Mrs. J. T. Foy invited a number of young lady friends to meet Misses Montgomery and Dent, guests of Mrs. T. G. Robertson, on Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. M. B. Rudd, always a delightful hostess, gave a large afternoon party on Wednesday to her large circle of friends.

The John C. Calhoun Chapter of the U. D. C. met with Mrs. W. W. Klugh on Friday afternoon. There was a large attendance. Mrs. Newman read an interesting paper on the Ku Klux Klan.

On Friday, Mrs. R. A. Jones asked a few friends in to meet Colonel Jones' mother, Mrs. J. Fred Jones, who is here on a visit.

Miss Agnes Ravenel of Spartanburg was on the campus several days last week. She was visiting Miss Ravenel.

Miss Hanckel of Charleston also visited Miss Ravenel during the week.

We are glad to know that Mrs. P. H. E. Sloan is better and able to see her numerous friends again.

Miss Francis Henderson of Blairs, S. C., is visiting her sister, Mrs. C. S. Lykes.

Mrs. Malbon of Norfolk, Va., is visiting her daughter, Mrs. W. W. Routten.

Mrs. C. M. Furman is visiting in Camden.

Mrs. Henry of Abbeville and her daughter Mrs. Doty of Winnsboro, are staying with Prof. Henry and family.

Miss Rammage is visiting Mrs. B. H. Johnstone.

Mr. Wilson Newman of the U. S. A., is here on a visit to his mother, Mrs. C. S. Newman.

NO DIVIDED SERVICE

The weekly lesson in Sunday school dealt with the corrupting influence of luxury and worldliness, and the golden text was a well-known sentence that the superintendent wished all the children to remember.

It sounded like an easy text to learn and the superintendent, mounting the platform for a final review of the lesson when the school assembled for closing exercises, was sure of a pleasing response from his pupils.

"Who," he began, "can repeat the golden text?"

A score of hands were raised, and the superintendent chose a little girl with blue eyes, a well-bred, well-behaved little girl from a well-to-do and particular family, to repeat the text for him.

"Well, Dorothy," he said, "you may tell it to us. Stand up, so we can all hear you."

Dorothy stood up in the prettiness of her best dress and the daintiness of her hair ribbons.

"You can not," she said distinctly—"you can not serve God and mamma." —E.x. Western Christian Advocate.

Y. M. C. A.

Dr. F. V. Seerley of New York City, an eminent sex hygiene authority, delivered a splendid address to a large number of cadets Sunday evening in the College Chapel. It was planned to have this service in the Y. M. C. A. auditorium but it was found that the crowd could not begin to get in there, making it necessary to go to the Chapel. The address was very helpful as well as interesting.

DISTRICT SUNDAY SCHOOL CONVENTION

Cadets W. H. Garrison, J. J. Murray, W. F. Howell, J. W. Wofford, and C. E. Barker representing the Chapel and Old Stone Church Sunday Schools attended the district Sunday School Convention held at Newry last Sunday. This district represented Seneca and Tugaloo Townships and was preliminary to the County Convention to be held Friday and Saturday Dec. 1 and 2.

All of the delegates report having a splendid time, saying that much interest is being taken in the work over there, all denominations cooperating in a splendid manner. As a whole the attendance was very good, although all of the Schools were not represented, due to the disagreeable weather.

Some of the principal speakers were Mrs. Reid of Seneca, Miss Ravenel of Spartanburg, and Professors Morrison and Bradley of Clemson College.

Let us all get together and send a large delegation to the County Convention, thereby doing our part towards making Oconee a "gold star" county.

B. Y. P. U. ENTERTAINED

On Saturday evening, November 11, Mr. and Mrs. McCaul entertained the B. Y. P. U. on their home on the campus. The evening was spent in having a jolly, good time. A short while after nine o'clock refreshments were served. This is the first social that the B. Y. P. U. has had. Everybody enjoyed themselves and are looking forward to other socials which they hope to have in the near future.

PRESIDENT RIGGS RETURNED

President Riggs has returned from a visit to Washington where he attended the Annual Convention of the American Association of Agricultural Colleges and Experiment Stations. He read a paper before that body on the "Reserve Officers Training Corps". President Riggs was one of a committee appointed by the Association to go to New York City to confer with the "National Research Council" on the subject of establishing Engineering Experiment Stations at the State Agricultural Colleges. Both of these matters are of great interest to Clemson College.

Kicks or corrections gladly received in Room 300. If you don't get your paper regularly, come around and let's see where the trouble lies.

COLUMBIAN

After the usual opening exercises, the second term officers were installed. Having completed this, the regular program was taken up. The orators were Messrs. G. H. Reaves, J. H. Jenkins, and W. T. Freeman. These three men rendered excellent orations. The declaimers, Messrs. B. O. Williams, and F. W. Hardee, delivered good declamations. Mr. Singleton brightened everything up with some of his good and original jokes.

This was followed by a good debate. The query, "Resolved, That all the High Schools of South Carolina Should Adopt the Military Feature used in Schools of Other States." Mr. Robinson and Mr. Etheridge, a new man in our society, ably upheld the affirmative, while Mr. Baskin and Mr. Price ably defended the negative. Both of these men are new men in our society also. All of these new members are doing admirable society work. After the debate was ended, the judges, Messrs. Willis, Freeman, and Jenkins, rendered a decision in favor of the negative, while the house opposed this decision.

The reports of the different committees were then made and the society adjourned.

CALHOUN

The meeting was called to order by the President, Mr. Monroe, and led in prayer by the Chaplain, Mr. Walker. No regular program was taken up as it was the regular time for the election of new officers. The following men were elected for the second term:

Mr. S. W. Graham, President.
Mr. E. A. Wiehl, Vice-President.
Mr. L. G. Hardin, Senior Critic.
Mr. J. M. Craig, Censor.
Mr. J. W. Wofford, Recording Sec'y.
Mr. W. H. Purdy, Corresponding Sec'y.
Mr. D. H. Sullivan, Second Critic.

The officers elected for the third term were as follows:

Mr. E. D. Sloan, President.
Mr. J. M. Craig, Vice-President.
Mr. H. Walker, Senior Critic.
Mr. E. A. Wiehl, Censor.

The officers elected for the fourth term were as follows:

Mr. H. Walker, President.
Mr. D. E. Monroe, Vice-President.
Mr. S. W. Graham, Senior Critic.
Mr. D. E. Monroe, Censor.

After the election of officers, the following men volunteered to take part in the preliminary debate for the triangular debate between the College of Charleston, Wofford, and Clemson: Messrs. H. Walker, J. B. Faust, J. M. Craig, J. L. Lea, J. J. Wolfe, and W. M. Blackwell.

WADE HAMPTON

After the usual prayer and roll call, the minutes of the preceding meeting were read and adopted. There being no regular program, the time was devoted to the election of officers for the second term. The following men were elected:

President, W. T. White.
Vice-President, W. E. Hunter.
Secretary, J. P. Marvin.
Prosecuting Critic, O. P. Lightsey.
Literary Critic, R. A. Bowen.
Censor, E. P. Sanders.

Reporting Critics, C. A. Wilcox, J. S. Watkins, C. H. Stender, and G. I. Hutchinson.

Chaplain, C. L. Baxter.
Sergeant-at-arms, E. T. Bunch.

They will be installed at the next meeting.

Three new members were received into the society: Messrs. E. T. Bunch, H. E. Frazier, and J. D. Rivers. One new name was presented for membership: Mr. H. D. Cordes. He will be initiated at the next meeting.

Messrs. G. H. Davis and J. P. Rogers made very good extemporaneous speeches which were greatly enjoyed by the society.

There being no further business, the society adjourned by order of the president.

PALMETTO

The regular meeting of the Society was held Friday night. After the usual preliminaries of opening, the program was begun. Mr. Steadman was the only regular debator present, but two alternatives, Messrs. Bankhead on the affirmative and Mr. Kinsey on the negative were present, and Mr. T. S. Buie volunteered for the other speaker on the negative. The subject of the debate was, "Resolved, That War Vessels of Warring Nations Should not be Allowed to enter United States Ports." The judges, Messrs. J. J. Murray, F. W. Dugar, and Williams, declared that the negative won. Mr. Harmon was allowed to read a selection instead of declaim, and Mr. D. M. Altman delivered a short humorous declamation. Mr. Atkinson, the joker, said, after he had pulled a mild joke, "I observe that the donkeys are not all dead yet from the way they are braying." Mr. Nimitz was called on for an extemporaneous speech, and he gave a concise account of the Clemson-Citadel football game, much to the delight of all present. The Literary Critic then made a short but helpful report. A committee consisting of Messrs. Nimitz, Murray, and Atkinson, was appointed to examine some society pins offered for sale, and recommend one style to the members of the society. The society was dismissed with prayer by the Chaplain.

Clemson Agricultural College

A young man can make no better investment than in a technical education. Viewed merely as a matter of business, even if he has to borrow the money at interest, he will find that his increased earning capacity perhaps even the first year after graduation will be sufficient to repay the loan. It is a poor business policy to wait to earn the money necessary to pay for an education with an earning capacity only one-half or one-third that of an educated man. Every year of untrained, uneducated labor represents a direct financial loss. Every boy of ability and ambition whose parents are unable to pay for his education, should get some friend to indorse his note at the bank and begin preparation that will make for greater earning capacity and a fuller life. There is no time to lose. The world is looking for men of large ability and is willing to pay for them. Already there is a surplus of the one-horsepower variety.

SOUTH CAROLINA'S SCHOOL OF ENGINEERING AND AGRICULTURE

One of the largest and best equipped Agricultural and Mechanical Colleges in the South. 1,544 acres of land. Value of plant over $1,300,000. Over 120 teachers, officers and assistants. Enrollment of over 800. Every county in South Carolina represented. 13 Degree Courses. 4 Short Courses. 26 Departments of Instruction. New and Modern buildings, equipment and sanitation. Over $100,000 expended in public service.

VALUE OF A TECHNICAL COLLEGE EDUCATION

A college education is no longer a luxury of the rich, but more a necessity of the poor boy whose parents can give him little or nothing to start on. In earning capacity, it represents at the outset a capital of from $15,000 to $30,000, depending upon the energy, character and personality of the possessor, and the capital increases with every year of its efficient use.

There never was a time in the history of the world when expert knowledge was so much in demand, so indispensable to individual success, and so highly compensated. For the untrained await the positions of low wages, long hours and poverty.

Clemson College brings within the reach of every boy in South Carolina the benefits and possibilities of a technical education. The way is provided whereby, if he have the ambition and capacity for knowledge, he need not continue in ignorance. Here, at a cost lower than at any similar institution, can a young man obtain an education that will prepare him for self-sustaining, self-respecting citizenship.

W. M. RIGGS, President.
