On the Cover:

This year Clemson will honor its Centennial Team members on the cover of each program. This week we honor six of Clemson's greatest players ever. Steve Fuller, Banks McFadden and Jeff Davis, all first-team All-Americans, are the three players inducted into the Clemson Ring of Honor. Terry Kinard is the only Clemson player to be named National Defensive Player of the Year. Frank Gillespie is the only Clemson football player to be named a conference Player of the Year. Fred Cone was the leader of the Clemson offense on two unbeaten teams (1948 and 1950).

TODAY'S GAME

By Tim Bourret

Furman was Clemson's First Football Opponent

The Clemson vs. Furman game on September 7 will be a rematch of the first game in Clemson football history. The Tigers and Paladins met in the first game in Clemson history on October 31, 1896 in Greenville. Clemson, who had begun practice in the sport just 26 days earlier, defeated the Paladins, 14-6. Charlie Gentry scored Clemson's first touchdown that day.

A total of 20 players made up the Clemson squad, who used equipment that was purchased by Clemson professors and students. One of the members of that Clemson team was Shack Shealy, who went on to become the only Clemson graduate in history to later serve as the coach of the Clemson team. The team was coached by Professor Walter Riggs, who later became University President.

Clemson vs. Furman Series

Clemson has won 25 straight games against Furman since a 0-0 tie between the two teams at Furman in 1937. Furman's last win over Clemson took place in 1936 by a 12-0 score. Overall, Clemson leads the series 37-10-4, including a 20-2 lead in games played at Clemson and 14-0 in games in Death Valley.

Clemson has not allowed a Furman touchdown since 1961 when Bill Canty scored on a three-yard run in the fourth quarter of a 35-6 Clemson victory. The Paladins scored four field goals over the last 24 quarters against Clemson. The Tigers won 27-6 in 1994 and Furman booted two field goals. Clemson won in 1989, 30-0 and the 1988 game was a 23-3 Clemson victory. Furman won the I-AA National Championship that year. Clemson won the 1979 contest 21-0.

The Tigers won the last meeting two years ago in Tommy West's first game as Clemson head coach. Clemson won the rushing war 268 to -3 and held the Paladins to just 99 yards of total offense. Emory Smith scored two touchdowns to lead Clemson's offense, while Tim Jones and Darnell Stephens had eight tackles apiece. Wardell Rouse, now with Tampa Bay in the NFL, had three tackles for loss and a caused fumble, while Peter Ford had an interception and four tackles.

Clemson vs. the Southern Conference

Clemson has not lost to a Southern Conference school since the Tigers left that league to join the ACC in 1953. Clemson was a charter member of the Southern Conference and won the league title under Frank Howard in 1940 and 1948.

The Tigers have won 31 in a row over Southern Conference teams, since a 6-0 loss at South Carolina in 1952. Clemson has won 40 in a row over teams currently in the Southern Conference. Clemson has not lost to a current Southern Conference team since October 9, 1943 when the Tigers lost to VMI in Roanoke, VA by a 12-7 count. Clemson last lost at home to a team currently in the Southern Conference on November 26, 1936 when Furman beat the Tigers, 12-0.

Nine of the last 10 Southern Conference teams to play Clemson have failed to score a touchdown. Western Carolina broke the string of 38 straight quarters without a Southern Conference touchdown against Clemson when the Catamounts scored on a touchdown pass last year in the second period at Death Valley. Clemson won the game 55-9.

The closest a Southern Conference team has come to beating Clemson since the Tigers moved to the ACC in 1953 is two points. In 1973 Clemson snuck by The Citadel, 14-12 at Death Valley. Three years later Clemson beat the same team, 10-7. Those are the only two occasions since 1953 that a Southern Conference team has come within a touchdown of the Tigers. Clemson has won 13 in a row over Southern Conference teams since 1982, the year the NCAA adopted a 1-AA division.

Clemson To Wear Turn Back the Clock Uniforms vs. Furman

Clemson will wear its "Turn-back-the-clock" uniforms when the Tigers take on Furman this afternoon at Death Valley. Clemson became the first football team in college sports history to wear "Turn-Back-the-Clock" uniforms when the Tigers met in Death Valley last October 7. The wearing of the uniforms are part of Clemson's celebration of its Centennial of Clemson football.

West will be coaching against a former Tiger player and coach when Bobby Johnson brings Furman to Death Valley

The special uniforms Clemson will wear are replicas of those worn by Clemson during the 1939 season. The uniforms consist of orange jerseys, blue pants and blue helmets with two orange stripes. A centennial patch will adorn the Clemson jerseys this year home and away. The uniform Clemson will wear today does not have any Tiger paws on it, as that logo was not adopted until 1970.

The 1939 uniform was selected because it was a landmark year in Clemson's football heritage. The 1939 Tigers won the Southern Conference Championship, played and won its first bowl game (6-3 win over Boston College in the Cotton Bowl) and ended the season ranked 12th in the nation, Clemson's first top 20 season. Banks McFadden, the nation's most versatile athlete that year, was an All-American and star of that team.

Centennial Team Honored Saturday

Clemson played its first college football game against Furman in 1896. The celebration of Clemson's centennial will continue through homecoming this year, October 19 against Georgia Tech. A highlight of the year long event will be the introduction of the 35-man Centennial Team today. A banquet for the Centennial Team was held last night at the Madren Center. Friday actually began when the team served as grand marshals of the annual First Friday Parade, a parade in downtown Clemson that led to the Clemson Amphitheatre for the first pep rally of the year.

Clemson fans selected a one-platoon and two-platoon teams during voting last winter. The team will Dot the I in Tigers during the Tiger Band's pregame performance today, and be formally introduced and honored at halftime of today's game.

A list of the team and their accomplishments is in this program.

Tigers Face Clemson Graduate

Bobby Johnson, a 1973 Clemson graduate, will coach against his alma mater for the second time when the Paladins travel to Death Valley this Saturday. Johnson became Furman's head coach in 1994 and is the only non-Furman graduate on the Paladin coaching staff this year. However, he has spent 18 of his last 20 years coaching at Furman. The only two seasons he was away from the Greenville based school he was at Clemson, in 1981 as academic advisor for Clemson's National Championship team, and 1993 as Clemson's defensive coordinator.

Johnson has been known for developing great defenses. He was the defensive coordinator for Furman for 10 seasons, 1983-92. During his tenure as defensive coordinator, Furman had a 91-31-3 record, claimed five Southern Conference titles and had eight top 20 seasons at the Division I-AA level. In 1988, as part of the Paladins 13-2 Division I-AA National Championship, Furman allowed just 9.7 points per game, best in the nation.

As a player for Clemson, Johnson was also a fine defensive player. He led the Tigers in interceptions in 1971 and 1972 and was a two-time All-ACC Academic selection. The 1993 Clemson defense that he coordinated ranked 15th in the nation in scoring defense and 24th in rushing defense.

Paladin Scouting Report

Furman's offense is led by senior quarterback Braniff Bonaventure. The 1996 preseason All-Southern Conference quarterback already ranks seventh in Furman history in passing yardage with 3349 yards. He has completed 261-438 passes for 23 touchdowns. He is also fifth in completions and fourth in touchdown passes. Now in his third season as Furman's starter, Bonaventure is coming off a junior season that twice saw him sidelined with a shoulder injury. He still managed to pass for 1275 yards and eight scores.

Bonaventure's top target is Luther Broughton, a talented senior tight end who has 83 career catches for 1076 yards. He already ranks eighth in Furman history in career receptions and needs just 31 catches to become the school's all-time leader. He caught 39 passes last year so the record is certainly in jeopardy. He is a two-time all-conference selection who was a preseason All-American according to some services. The 258-pounder is a pro prospect as he sports a 4.59 time in the 40 and has a team best 345-pound power clean.

The Paladin defense is led by the secondary. Furman has all four starters returning to a secondary that led the Southern Conference in pass defense last season. Jerome Osborne, the free safety, earned All-Southern Conference honors last season. The presence of the four returning starters in the secondary is a reason for optimism around Furman football this year. The Paladins are picked 19th in the nation and third in the pre-season Southern Conference poll by the media.

Voice of the Tigers Hopes to Return Saturday

Jim Phillips, the voice of the Tigers, missed last Saturday's game at North Carolina, the first regular season Clemson game he has not broadcast since 1967. Phillips had broadcast 306 consecutive Clemson regular season games prior to last Saturday.

He was troubled last week by a back problem and decided he could not make the trip last Friday. He was expected to have a procedure this week that should alleviate the pain and be back behind the mike for today's game.

Phillips has been the voice of Clemson football, basketball, baseball and women's basketball for many years. He once had a streak of over 300 consecutive basketball games and has missed just three games in Littlejohn Coliseum since it was opened, the year he came to Clemson from a station in Ohio.

One unbelievable fact about Phillips' streak concerns the number 306. That was also the same number of consecutive games Frank Howard saw as Clemson assistant coach, head coach and athletic director between 1939-70.

Clemson Finally Back in Death Valley

Fans in Clemson saw a lot of football in Memorial Stadium during the fall of 1995, but they are now in a stretch of seeing just two of eight Clemson football games at home. Clemson Memorial Stadium was the home of six Clemson and 10 Carolina Panther games last fall.

This year the Panthers are in their own stadium and Clemson has just two of its first six games at home, today's contest with Furman and the September 28 contest with Wake Forest. That means Clemson is playing just two home games in an eight-game period between November 12, 1995 and October 16, 1996. This season Clemson will play four of its last five games at home, a first in Clemson history.

Death Valley has been good to Clemson over the years. This is the 55th season of football in the facility and The Tigers have a 187-70-7 record, a .722 winning percentage. Clemson has outscored the opposition by 5914-3443 in the previous 264 games in the facility. Over the years, only three schools (Florida State, Georgia and Auburn) have a winning record in the facility against Clemson, given a minimum of three games played.

Simmons Leads Clemson Defense

Anthony Simmons was Clemson's leading tackler at North Carolina with 12 tackles, including one sack and two tackles for loss. It was just the 13th game of Simmons' career, but he already has 162 total tackles, the highest total ever for a Clemson player just 13 games into his career.

Simmons has played just 13 games, but already has 10 double-figure tackle games. It was the second straight year he played well against North Carolina. In 1995 he had a season high 19 tackles against the Tar Heels. Simmons also now has 13 career tackles for loss in 13 games. No Clemson linebacker in history has averaged a tackle for loss per game over his career.

Freshman Rahim Abdullah had a good start to his Clemson career. The red-shirt outside linebacker from Jacksonville, FL, had an interception, a pass deflection and two tackles in the first period. He played 56 snaps in making his first collegiate appearance.

Poster Giveaway Saturday

As part of the Clemson celebration of the Centennial of football, fans will receive a poster of the Clemson Centennial Team. The poster, sponsored by Coca Cola, will be distributed as you leave the stadium so you won't have to worry about keeping the keepsake in "mint" condition during the game.

The artwork, which includes a painting of all 35 members of the team, was done by noted artist Michael Taylor of Sodus, Michigan. Taylor has painted special projects for Clemson publications in the past and also has drawn award winning work for the University of Notre Dame, the Los Angeles Lakers, and the Big East Conference. He recently completed a special plate collection with former Beatle legend Ringo Star.

ANDRE CARTER

by James Brunson

It takes a great deal of time to be a successful college student. It takes even more time when you add playing major college football. But, when you throw being a loving husband and father into the mix, you have a major time management problem on your hands. Just ask senior strong safety Andre' Carter.

Carter not only is a 1996 graduate of Clemson's school of management and a member of the Tiger's football team, but he is also a husband and the proud father of an infant daughter.

Successful time management is nothing new to the fifth-year senior, however, it is a skill he began to develop while at Camden High School.

Carter starred under former Clemson quarterback Billy Ammons at quarterback and safety for the 1990 AAA state champions. During the 15-0 season, he completed 110 passes with only six interceptions and ran for 518 yards and 12 touchdowns. Defensively, he played sparingly as a senior, primarily in nickel and dime situations.

"He really carried us on both sides of the ball in that state championship game," said Ammons of Carter's two touchdowns and his stellar defensive performance.

Carter went on to start at quarterback for the Sandlappers in the Shrine Bowl and was named an honorable mention All-American by SuperPrep and USA Today.

Football was not enough to keep Carter busy. He also lettered in basketball and baseball at Camden High School. "I had the opportunity to play baseball at a smaller school, but I really wanted to stick with football."

Camden is a small town of about 10,000 located 15 miles northeast of Columbia, but do not let it fool you. Camden is a hotbed for big time college football talent. That perfect season of 1990 saw Carter team up with last year's Heisman Trophy candidate Bobby Engram, who attended Penn State, and Kerry Hayes, who led Division I-AA in kickoff returns for touchdown last year.

"We are so proud of Andre' and all that he has accomplished," said Ammons, who threw for over 1,000 yards his senior year at Camden. "His mother works at the school down here and he is like family to all of us."

Growing up so close to Columbia, you may have expected Carter to be a Gamecock fan, but he committed to Clemson during his senior year because, "things were going well for Clemson at the time and I liked the environment and the people. I felt like it was the right place for me."

The road from Camden to Clemson would lead through Virginia, however, as Carter spent a year at Hargrave Military Prep School to improve his academics and play football. The rigorous lifestyle of a military school also helped Carter improve his time management skills.

"They had a time for everything I did there. When I woke up, I went to class, after class I went to practice. After practice, there was a mandatory two hour study hall, and then it was lights out at ten."

Carter finally arrived at Clemson in 1992, but was red-shirted and moved from quarterback to defensive back. "Looking back on it now, I think that I probably could have played quarterback here, but I am not disappointed about the move. It was the best thing at the time, because it gave me the opportunity to play the quickest."

Three years removed from the state title at Camden, Carter finally got his chance to play at Clemson during the 1993 season. He saw most of his action against passing teams, including 61 snaps at Duke and 30 at South Carolina. He played at both free safety and cornerback spots.

In 1994, Carter came into his own, as he was named Honorable Mention All-ACC and the Most Improved Player for the Tigers. He tied for the team lead in interceptions with four and started all eleven games. With two interceptions and a fumble recovery at Virginia, he became only the fourth Tiger in history to record three takeaways in a single game. The biggest change for Carter, however, came off the field in the summer of 1995 when he married his girlfriend of four years, April. The two are kept busy by their daughter, Haliagh.

Besides making him happy, the married lifestyle has also helped Carter. "Having someone else to look after besides myself has made me more responsible. It has also helped me academically by giving me a reason to come home and study rather than going out at night and looking for other things to do."

Carter started only four games in 1995 while sharing time at strong safety with All-American Brian Dawkins. This year, however, he is back in the starting lineup for good as he looks to fill the shoes left by Dawkins and Leomont Evans, both NFL draft picks. "Replacing great players is something that you have to do as a team, and if everyone comes in and works hard, then I expect the transition to be a smooth one."

Being a fifth-year senior has placed Carter in a leadership role, and he is looking forward to it. "We have a lot of young players, and I look to provide some leadership and guidance. If everyone stays focused on football, then I think we have an excellent chance at doing well."

After Clemson, Carter has a few different ideas. "As far as professional football is concerned, that is every kid's dream. For that goal, you work hard, but I try not to focus on it or think about it a lot, because if you think about it too much then you may lose your focus and not do as well."

Currently, Carter is working on his graduate degree in human resources and development. With the time management skills that he has developed over the past six years, he may be able to pursue a career in both fields simultaneously.

JAMIE TRIMBLE

by Brian Hennessy

Some people today want to be the center of attention in everything that they do. Jamie Trimble just wants to be the center for Clemson, something that he has waited to do for five years.

As his name may indicate, Trimble is a lightweight center who is a fifth-year senior, the only one on the offensive line. He is a fleet-footed six-feet, two-inches tall, and weighs 250 pounds. When Trimble first arrived, he was only 200 pounds. Hard work and dedication in the weight room have enabled him to realize his dream of playing major college football.

"In my first two years, I was not working hard and was not doing what I was supposed to do," Trimble states. "When Coach West came here, he made me realize why I was here and what I could accomplish, which is getting a degree and playing football. The past year I have really concentrated on getting stronger in the weight room. I have increased my marks in every lift to the standards that the other, bigger offensive lineman attain." He now ranks in the top 10 in four different weight-lifting categories and is pound-for-pound one of the strongest offensive linemen ever at Clemson.

Trimble came to Clemson from Ormond Beach, FL, and Mainland High School of Daytona Beach, where he earned three letters in football, two in wrestling, and two more in weightlifting. "When I visited Clemson, I was in awe of Death Valley," he states. Today he still lists his best experience, by far, as running down the Hill. "Also, I was impressed how the Clemson family takes care of its own, which is something that I appreciated."

In only his second game as a Tiger, Trimble recalls playing under the lights against Florida State as "electric" and something he wishes he could do more often. "There is no better high in this world than seeing 80,000 people just screaming and yelling, then walking out, rubbing Howard's Rock and running down the Hill!" Although he worked hard in the weight room to improve himself, he did not play in 1992 and was red-shirted. In 1993, he was listed as third-team center, but did not play in any games.

In 1994, he saw significant playing time. In the five games he played, he averaged over 25 snaps per game. Trimble played a crucial role in the Wake Forest game, as he was in for 45 plays when Clemson posted a season high for rushing yards with 339. His most memorable game came against Georgia Tech, as he had to fill in for an injured Trevor Putnam at center. The Tigers won the game in dramatic fashion, a come-from-behind 20-10 victory. "That game was the first time I had been thrown in the middle of it all, and I came out on top. That was a big thrill to me and I will always remember that. In that game, I proved to myself that I did have the talent to play at this level."

Playing behind Trevor Putnam once again in 1995, Trimble played in every game as a reserve and played on the kickoff return team. His blocking on the kickoff return team was a key reason the Tigers ranked 12th in the nation with 22.7 yards per return. He averaged over 10 plays a game, with the most coming in the Virginia game (32).

Clemson has had a big part in his maturation process as a player and as a student. "Coach West, Coach Latina, and Bill

Trimble is finally getting his chance as the starter on the Clemson offense.

D'Andrea have all taught me to take responsibilities for my actions. It was so easy for me to be lazy and make complaints for my downfalls. But I learned that only I am accountable for what happens to me. Also, Vickery Hall has helped me tremendously. Without Vickery Hall, I probably would not be here today. The tutoring and the studying systems have been key to me."

Although Vickery Hall has had a significant influence with the Florida native while at Clemson, back home, the most influential person in his life has always been his mother, Phyllis. "Although my family has gone through a lot in the past, she has always been there for me," Trimble vehemently states. "She is like a lighthouse in a storm.

She is such a strong person and always knows what to do. She travels to all of the games, home and away, and is my biggest fan in the world. I could not ask for a better mom."

When looking towards this season, Trimble sees the potential for a great ending. Although he admits that he wishes he could correct a vision problem that persists, he has no problem seeing great things for himself and for the team in 1996.

"This year, being my last season, I still have goals to be attained," he states. "This is my last opportunity to play football for Clemson. I want to start on the offensive line and play to the best of my abilities. But more importantly, I want the team to play to its fullest potential and go to a major bowl game. Our primary goal is to win the ACC, and then we want to win all of our non-conference games. The key is we have to go one game at a time, and everything will take care of itself. I hope when this season is over with people can say 'wow,' he was a terrific athlete. He really filled Trevor's shoes well."

Trimble also sees a place for himself as a team leader. "Leadership comes from reaching down and bringing people up," he says. "I have never believed in a lot of talking and boasting. Leadership also comes from within. I try to be the best football player that I can be, and hopefully people will see that and gain from that."

Once his playing days are over at Clemson, Trimble, a human resource development major, dreams of one day being a grinder for the United States entry in the America's Cup sailing competition. He is a fleet captain for the Clemson Sailing Club and sails competitively. He also enjoys water skiing, jet skiing, and tubing, all thanks to nearby Lake Hartwell. "Sailing is something that I am actively involved in," he states. "I have spent a lot of time around the water because that is what I was raised around."

If sailing does not work out, he hopes to coach at the college level. He has even thought about opening a dance club in the Clemson area with some of his friends, something that, "this town and college really needs. "I have already put together a proposal for opening up a nightclub in the area. I have talked with the investors and they are all for it."

This is the year that Jamie Trimble has long worked for. The opportunity to shine and be the leader of the offensive line has finally arrived. He was waited too long for this one to pass him by.

DR. DENO CURRIS

Midway through his first year as president of Clemson University, Constantine W. "Deno" Curris addressed a faculty meeting by saying that he truly felt like a freshman at times—"excited to be here, but sometimes not sure exactly where I am." But by year's end, Curris had earned the ultimate compliment when an alumnus said,

"When I talk to him about Clemson, I feel like I'm the newcomer."

Curris hit the ground running when he became Clemson's 13th president on May 22, 1995. Among his early accomplishments were fine-tuning the academic reorganization of 1994 by adding a fifth college, establishing benchmark institutions to give students, parents and the public a way to measure Clemson, and setting out to fill key appointments.

Other high priorities included acquainting himself with the history and culture of Clemson, advocating Clemson's legislative goals in Columbia, and meeting members of the "Clemson Family" throughout the state and nation.

He also assumed a national leadership role of his own, being named to the Kellogg Commission on the Future of State Universities and Land Grant Colleges, and becoming Chairman of the Board of Directors of the American Association of State Colleges and Universities.

Before coming to Clemson, Curris served as president of the University of Northern Iowa for 11 years and as president of Murray State University in Kentucky for 10 years before that. His presidencies at both universities were periods of growth and advancement, and he sees Clemson as another institution well-positioned to move ahead.

"Clemson has effected significant organizational and program changes to position the university and its students for the 21st century. Our task in the years ahead is to use this foundation and to build Clemson into a strong university with national stature and visibility," he said.

To help build Clemson's reputation and stature, Curris outlined three goals for the coming year.

First, in order to improve the educational program, Curris established a committee to define what makes the Clemson experience unique.

"I believe this definition is a necessary first step in building Clemson's reputation for the quality of our education programs and the capabilities of our graduates.

Second, he has established a goal of $50 million annually in competitively awarded federal research funding—which would be roughly a 30 percent increase.

The third major goal is recruiting the university's future—the brightest young faculty, the most promising professional staff, the best undergraduate and graduate students.

Meeting challenging goals is a Curris trademark. At Murray State, he oversaw extensive campus renovations and improvements, including a student center which was later named for him. At UNI, he led the school in raising admissions standards and implementing a more rigorous comprehensive general education program. UNI gained national recognition in many programs during the period and was cited in 1993 as one of the best educational values among public universities by U.S. News & World Report.

Curris received a bachelor's degree, magna cum laude, in political science from the University of Kentucky, a master's in political science and public administration from the University of Illinois, and his doctorate in higher education from the University of Kentucky.

When his schedule permits, Curris enjoys gardening, fishing and reading. He is married to Jo Hern Curris, a tax attorney and author.

TOMMY WEST

Tommy West entered his second year at the helm of the Clemson program with success on his mind, and that is what he achieved. He guided the 1995 Tigers to an 8-4 record, its best ACC ranking in four years, and a selection to a January 1 Bowl game.

For the second straight year, the Tigers showed marked improvement as the season progressed and the young team won its last five games of the regular season, four by at least 17 points. The run of success at the end of the season had the Tigers in the top 25 of every poll. West's Tigers were picked fifth in the ACC preseason poll, but, thanks to the third best offense in Clemson history and a defense that ranked 10th in the nation in scoring, Clemson finished third in the ACC standings with a 6-2 record, its best league finish since the Tigers won the ACC title in 1991.

The 1995 campaign was one in which Clemson excelled in every area. The Tigers ranked fourth in the country in rushing, yet also led the ACC in yards per pass attempt. Defensively, Clemson rated in the top 20 in the nation in rushing defense, passing efficiency defense and turnover margin. In terms of special teams, Clemson was the only school in the nation to have an individual ranked in the top 25 in punting, placekicking, punt returns and kickoff returns.

In his first full season, West guided the Tigers to a 5-6 record, and it was a season that showed week-by-week improvement. The '94 club, which featured the youngest Clemson offensive unit in 50 years, finished with a number-one ranking in turnover margin, a landmark ranking in Clemson football history. The team lost just two fumbles, fewest in NCAA history over the course of a season. The Tigers were ranked as high as 21st in the USA Today poll, and finished the season with three wins in their last four outings, including a decisive conquest of #12 North Carolina in Chapel Hill.

West took over the head coaching position on November 29, 1993. Less than a month later he already had a bowl victory on his ledger, a 14-13 triumph over Kentucky in the Peach Bowl, Clemson's sixth bowl win in an eight year period. With his debut in the Peach Bowl, West became the sixth coach in NCAA history to make his debut with a program in a bowl game. However, he was just the second coach in history to make his debut in a bowl game without previously coaching his new team as an assistant coach earlier in the season.

West was a mainstay of a Clemson coaching staff that led the Tigers to a 69-20-4 record and six Associated Press Top 20 finishes between 1982-89. During West's first tour of duty with the Tigers as an outside linebacker coach, Clemson played in five bowl games (winning four) and claimed four ACC Championships, including three in a row from 1986-88.

Clemson had a 44-10-1 record against ACC competition during his era on the Tiger staff, an 81 percent winning mark. Additionally, five of those Clemson teams ranked in the top 15 in the nation in rushing defense and scoring defense, and three ranked in the top 12 in the nation in total defense.

Clemson's 1989 defense ranked fifth in the nation in total defense, rushing defense and scoring defense and West's outside linebackers had a lot to do with that success. His top four outside linebackers that year all played in the NFL in 1995.

Levon Kirkland (Pittsburgh Steelers), Wayne Simmons (Green Bay Packers) and John Johnson (Cincinnati Bengals) were starters in 1994 in the NFL, and Ashley Sheppard (Minnesota Vikings) was a top reserve. Simmons was a first-round draft pick, Kirkland and Johnson second-round selections and Sheppard was a fourth-round choice. In addition to the four players listed above, Andy Headen (New York Giants) and Terence Mack (St. Louis Cardinals) are former Tigers West helped guide to an NFL career.

West began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at Tennessee (his alma mater) in 1977. He coached one year of high school football at White County High in Sparta, TN in 1978, then became an assistant at Mississippi in 1979. For the 1980 and 1981 seasons he served as an assistant coach at Appalachian State.

After his career at Clemson (1982-89), West became the running backs coach at Tennessee. During that 1990 season Tennessee won the Southeastern Conference and captured the Sugar Bowl with a win over Virginia. The Volunteers scored a school record 442 points that year and averaged over 410 yards a game in total offense, 205.7 rushing and 205.4 passing. He served as Co-Defensive Coordinator at South Carolina in 1991 and 1992.

In 1993 West took over a UT-Chattanooga team that had won just two games in 1992. He doubled that total in 1993 and guided the Mocs to one of the landmark wins in school history, a 33-31 win over #1 ranked Marshall. He concluded the regular season with a 45-42 victory over Furman. Ironically, his first regular season game as Clemson coach was a victory over Furman.

West earned three letters in his four-year career at Tennessee (1972-75). The Vols played in three bowl games and were ranked in a final Top 20 in three seasons. He was the co-captain of Tennessee's 1975 football team and played in the Blue-Gray All-Star game that same year.

He began his college career as a running back, but saw most of his playing time as a tight end. He caught 37 passes for 575 yards in his career with the Vols, including 16 passes for 233 yards as a senior. As a junior he caught an 81-yard pass from Condredge Holloway, still the longest non-scoring play in Tennessee history. He earned a bachelor's degree from Tennessee in 1976 and was drafted by the Tampa Bay Buccaneers that same year.

West played two years (1974-75) of baseball at Tennessee and had a career batting average of .305. He hit .367 in 1975 and was named All-SEC Eastern Division. Rick Honeycutt, now with the Oakland A's, was West's teammate on that 1975 Tennessee team that finished 32-16.

West was a multi-sport standout in high school. He was an outfielder in baseball, a guard in basketball and a running back in football. In 1972 he was named a High School All-American in football and was a third-round draft choice in baseball by the Chicago Cubs. Willie Randolph, who went on to an All-Star career with the New York Yankees, was one of 77 future Major League players drafted after West in the regular phase of the June 1972 draft. He played his prep football at Gainesville High in Gainesville, GA for Coach Bobby Gruhn. He was an all-state back as a junior and was also named to the All-Southern team.

Born Thomas Cleveland West on July 31, 1954, he is married to the former Lindsay Watkins of Forest City, NC. The couple has one son, Turner, 7.

ASSISTANT COACHES

Les Herrin

Les Herrin

Assistant Head Coach/Defensive Line

The Clemson football program has seen a lot of success during Les Herrin's tenure as an assistant coach. In 1981, Herrin arrived at Clemson as a linebacker coach, and the Tigers won the National Championship that season. In his first tour of duty with the Tigers (1981-84) Clemson had a 37-6-2 record during that span. Herrin is the dean of Clemson coaches and is now in his 12th season in Tigertown.

After a brief stint away from Clemson at East Carolina (1985-87) and North Carolina (1988), Herrin returned to the Tiger program in 1989 as defensive line coach. In 1989 Clemson ranked fifth in the nation in scoring, rushing, and total defense. The team followed that performance with a number-one ranking in total defense in 1990, as well as second in scoring and rushing defense.

Herrin has coached several players who have had successful NFL careers. Herrin coached 1981 ACC MVP Jeff Davis, who went on to be captain of the Tampa Bay Buccaneers and entered the Clemson Ring of Honor last year. He also tutored 1989 All-Pro Johnny Rember (New England Patriots), who was a linebacker under Herrin's watchful eye in 1981 and 1982. Chester McGlockton, a Pro Bowl defensive lineman with the Los Angeles Raiders the past two seasons, and Pittsburgh Steelers Super Bowl starter Brentson Buckner, also benefitted from Herrin's teaching.

The Les Herrin File

At Clemson: In his third season as assistant head coach, 7th as the Tiger defensive line coach, and 12th season overall.

Previous Coaching Experience: High School - Assistant at R/S Central High in Rutherfordton, NC (1972-74); assistant at Lexington Senior High in Lexington, NC (1975-76); athletic director and head coach at Central Davidson High School in Lexington, NC (1975-79); College - Defensive coordinator at Appalachian State (1980-81); linebacker coach at Clemson (1981-84); linebacker coach at East Carolina (1985-87); outside linebacker coach at the University of North Carolina (1988); defensive line coach at Clemson (1989-94); assistant head coach/tackles and tight ends coach (1995); assistant head coach/defensive line (1996).

Education: Waycross High School in Waycross, GA (1965); B.A. degree in Education from Western Carolina (1971); Master's degree in Health and Physical Education from Western Carolina the following year.

College Playing Experience: Lettered four years in football at Western Carolina.

Personal: Born February 18, 1948...He and his wife Shirley have one son, Deke (20), a member of the football team at Western Carolina.

Darrell Moody

Darrell Moody

Offensive Coordinator/Quarterbacks

Darrell Moody is in his rookie season at Clemson, but he is no rookie when it comes to the ACC. The N.C. State grad arrived in Tigertown from North Carolina, ironically, his first opponent as a Clemson coach.

Moody handled the offensive chores for the Tar Heels between 1988-95, and he helped them to bowls in each of his last four seasons. His '95 offense joined Florida State's as the only ACC school to average over 240 yards passing and 150 yards rushing per game. He has also coached greats in Ted Brown and Billy Ray Vickers at N.C. State, Dalton Hilliard and Garry James at LSU, and Natone Means and Leon Johnson at North Carolina.

Moody has been coaching at the Division I level for the last 23 years and hopes to translate that experience into a successful offense at Clemson. He has coached in the biggest bowl games, including the Orange Bowl as an assistant at LSU in 1983. He has coached in 10 bowl games overall.

The 1970 N.C. State graduate was an outstanding athlete for the Wolfpack. He was a three-year letterman at N.C. State (1968-70) and led the team in passing in 1969. He was a member of N.C. State's 1968 ACC Championship football team and a starter on the Pack's 1968 College World Series baseball team, the only CWS team in N.C. State history.

At the conclusion of his athletic career he went into coaching and was an assistant coach under Lou Holtz at N.C. State by the time he was 25.

The Darrell Moody File

At Clemson: In his first year as offensive coordinator and quarterback coach.

Previous Coaching Experience: High School - Assistant at Asheboro High School (1971-72). College - secondary coach at N.C. State (1973); junior varsity coach at N.C. State (1974); offensive backs and quarterbacks at Southern Mississippi (1975); defensive backs at N.C. State (1976); offensive backs and quarterbacks at N.C. State (1977-79); offensive backs at Louisiana State (1980-83); assistant head coach/offensive backs and quarterbacks at Appalachian State (1984); offensive coordinator at Tulane (1985-87); offensive coordinator/quarterbacks at North Carolina (1988-89); offensive coordinator/offensive backs at North Carolina (1990-95); offensive coordinator/quarterbacks at Clemson (1996-present).

Education: Asheboro High School in Asheboro, NC; B.A. degree in Economics from N.C. State (1970); Masters degree in Vocation and Industrial Education from N.C. State (1974).

Personal Data: Born on September 4, 1948...he and his wife Martha have two sons: Christopher and Michael.

Ellis Johnson

Ellis Johnson

Defensive Coordinator/Outside Linebackers

Ellis Johnson is in his first season as the sole defensive coordinator of the Tigers, his second season as outside linebacker coach, but his third year on the Clemson staff. As defensive line coach and co-defensive coordinator last year, he was a significant reason Clemson ranked in the top 10 in the nation in scoring defense and the top 20 in rushing defense.

Johnson is in just his third year at Clemson, but is no stranger to the area. He attended The Citadel, but he grew up a Clemson fan. He has coached in the state at The Citadel as a graduate assistant, at Gaffney High as an assistant coach and at Spartanburg High as an assistant coach and head coach. His most successful stint in coaching so far took place in Alabama. The Crimson Tide experienced a perfect season and defeated Miami (FL) in the Sugar Bowl to win the National Championship in 1992. He is one of two Tiger assistant coaches on this year's staff with a National Championship ring. Les Herrin, a member of Clemson's 1981 staff, is the other.

Johnson was a part of four outstanding defenses at Alabama. During his tenure (1990-93), Alabama ranked in the top five in the nation in total defense and pass defense three times. The 1992 Alabama defense led the nation in total defense and rushing defense and ranked second nationally in passing defense and scoring defense.

Johnson married the former Tonya Taylor in August of 1994.

The Ellis Johnson File

At Clemson: In his first season as the sole defensive coordinator, his second season as outside linebacker coach, and his third season overall as a Clemson assistant.

Education: Earned a degree in Secondary Education from The Citadel (1975).

College Playing Experience: Three-year letterman at The Citadel.

Personal Data: Born December 23, 1951...married to the former Tonya Taylor in August 1994.

Richard Bisaccia

Richard Bisaccia

Running Backs/Special Teams/Recruiting Coordinator

Richard Bisaccia enters the 1996 season after coaching the ACC leading rusher in Raymond Priester. He helped to develop Priester into the single-season ground gainer in Clemson history. He also has had a positive effect on fullback Emory Smith, who gained 712 yards last year and combined with Priester to set a Clemson single season rushing record for a starting backfield.

Bisaccia, a Yonkers, NY native, learned how to hold onto the football as a four-year starter and team captain at Yankton College. He has been successful in teaching that aspect of the game, as Clemson had just two lost fumbles in 1994, his first year, tying the all-time NCAA Division I record for fewest lost fumbles in a season. He was a free agent with the Philadelphia Stars of the USFL after his college career.

While the 1983 Spring season saw the end of his playing career, the 1983 fall was the beginning of his coaching career. He was named the offensive coordinator at Wayne State in Nebraska his first year out of college and he has been in college coaching ever since.

Unlike many Division I full-time assistant coaches, Bisaccia has not made a lot of moves. He spent five seasons at Wayne State, then six seasons at South Carolina. He has experience coaching on defense and offense, but will concentrate on the running backs position at Clemson.

Bisaccia probably wears more hats than any other Clemson coach. In addition to his time with the running backs, he is also the special teams coach and the recruiting coordinator.

In addition to Bisaccia's recent changes on the gridiron, he has had a family addition within the last two years. In August of '94 his wife Jeanne gave birth to their first son and fourth child, Richard Oakley.

The Richard Bisaccia File

At Clemson: In his third season as the Tigers' running backs coach and special teams coach.

Previous Coaching Experience: College - Offensive coordinator at Wayne State (NE) (1983-87); graduate assistant for wide receivers at South Carolina (1988); volunteer assistant for defensive ends at South Carolina (1989-90); tight ends coach at South Carolina (1991); running backs and special teams coach at South Carolina (1992-93); running backs and special teams coach at Clemson (Dec. 1993-present).

Education: New Fairfield High School in New Fairfield, CT; Earned a degree in health and physical education from Yankton College (1983).

College Playing Experience: Four-year starter and team captain at Yankton College (1980-83).

Personal Data: Born June 3, 1960...he and his wife Jeanne have four children: daughters, Michele (12), Elizabeth (7), and Madeline (3) and son Richard Oakley (2).

Charlie Harbison

Charlie Harbison

Defensive Backs

Second-year Clemson coach Charlie Harbison has more experience at the professional level than any other current Tiger mentor. Harbison was a starter at strong safety with the New Orleans and Boston Breakers of the USFL in 1983-84 and also signed a free agent contract with the Buffalo Bills in 1982, 1985 and 1986.

Harbison also coached on the pro level with the Raleigh-Durham Skyhawks of the World League of American Football, with the Charlotte Barons of the MLFS and with the Charlotte Rage of the AFL. He has coached wide receivers, linebackers, and defensive backs in his career, but has by far his most experience as a secondary coach.

He enters the '96 campaign after a successful season a year ago. His secondary, led by NFL draftees Brian Dawkins and Leomont Evans, ranked in the top 20 in the nation. The 22 interceptions was the eighth best total by a Clemson team (per game) in history and the best mark since the national championship season. In 1994 he coached the secondary at UTEP. This season, his second at Clemson, he will have the opportunity to enhance the careers of a veteran secondary led by Dexter McCleon, Andre Carter and the Ford twins, Peter and Andy.

In addition to his Division I experience, Harbison also has had significant success at the NAIA level. His Gardner Webb team of 1992 had a 12-2 record and played in the NAIA Championship game.

The Charlie Harbison File

At Clemson: In his second year as secondary coach and second at Clemson.

Previous Coaching Experience: College - Defensive back coach at Gardner-Webb (1984); wide receiver coach at Gardner-Webb (1992-93); defensive back coach at UTEP (1994); defensive back coach at Clemson (1995-present); Professional—linebacker coach for Charlotte Barons (1990); defensive back/special teams coach for the Raleigh-Durham Skyhawks (1991); defensive back coach for Carolina Cougars (1992); defensive back/wide receiver coach for Charlotte Rage (1993-94).

Education: Received bachelors degree in business administration from Gardner-Webb College.

College Playing Experience—Professional—Boston Breakers (1983), New Orleans Breakers (1984), Buffalo Bills (preseason 1985-86).

Personal Data: Born October 27, 1959. He has two sons, Charlie and Stedman.

Reggie Herring

Reggie Herring

Inside Linebackers

Reggie Herring is another example of an outstanding former player who has gone on to become an outstanding coach. A teammate of Rick Stockstill at Florida State, Herring left his own mark with the Seminole program as a player.

Herring was captain of the 1980 Orange Bowl team and earned AP All-America honors in 1980. The Seminoles played in the Orange Bowl and ranked in the top 10 in the nation his junior and senior seasons, and he was recently inducted into the Florida State Hall of Fame. He was a three-year starter at Florida State and the Seminoles played in three bowls during his four-year career. Florida State also had three double-figure victory seasons during his career.

Like many of Clemson's assistant coaches in 1996, Herring has a diverse experience history. He has been a part of successful programs at Oklahoma State, Auburn, TCU and now Clemson. He was defensive coordinator at TCU prior to coming to Clemson.

Herring has not made plans over the Christmas holidays for quite some time. He has been a part of college football as a player and coach since 1977. In those 19 seasons he has been to 14 bowl games, 11 as a coach and three as a player.

In his first year at Clemson he coached UPI National Freshman of the Year Anthony Simmons who was also a third-team AP All-American. Herring also coached first-team Academic All-American Andy McCrorey.

The Reggie Herring File

At Clemson: In his third season as inside linebackers coach.

Education: B.S. in Criminology from Florida State (1981).

College Playing Experience: Three-year starter at linebacker for Florida State.

Personal Data: Born on July 3, 1959...married the former Lisa Ward, and they have two children, Caroline and Adam.

John Latina

John Latina Centers and Guards

John Latina has been an offensive coach for a Division I program every year since 1979. He is in his second season coaching the centers and guards at Clemson, a drastic change from coaching the entire offensive line in 1994. This change has allowed him to spend more time with fewer players.

Latina showed his expertise as a teacher last year as he helped Clemson to the fourth best rushing attack in the nation. This year he hopes to build on the '95 season, but will only have one of his three starters returning this year. But if '94 was any indication of how he brings along a young offensive line, the '96 team will be at its best.

The Virginia Tech graduate, who once played against Clemson as an offensive guard (1978), has worked at Virginia Tech, Pittsburgh, Temple and Kansas State. He has already coached in a bowl game with four different schools.

During his career he has worked with Dan Marino, who led the Panthers to a 9-3 ledger and the Cotton Bowl in 1982. Paul Palmer, one of the top rushers in NCAA history with Temple, was also a member of Latina's offense in the 1980s.

Over the five years he was with the program, Kansas State's team in general and offense in particular, showed as much improvement as any in the country. In Latina's second season at Kansas State as offensive line coach and running game coordinator, the Wildcats set a school record for total offense with 4,231 yards. Kansas State advanced to a bowl game in 1992, just the second bowl appearance in school history.

The John Latina File

At Clemson: In his second season as guards and centers coach, his third season at Clemson.

Previous Coaching Experience: College - Assistant coach at Virginia Tech (1979-81); assistant coach at Pittsburgh (1982); offensive line coach at Temple (1983-88); running game coordinator at Kansas State (1989-93); offensive line coach at Clemson (Dec. 1993-1994); offensive guards and centers (1995-present).

Education: Received a bachelor's degree from Virginia Tech (1979).

College Playing Experience: Four-year letter winner at Virginia Tech as an offensive guard (1975-78).

Personal Data: Born September 18, 1957...he and his wife Michele have two sons John Jr. (12) and Michael (9).

Mac McWhorter

Mac McWhorter Offensive Tackles/Tight Ends

Mac McWhorter is in his rookie season at Clemson. He arrives from Georgia, where he spent the last five years as an offensive line coach. The Georgia native is coming off a successful stint in Athens, where he worked with All-American Eric Zeier from 1991-94, and a "tough-nose" running game in '95. He helped Georgia to set numerous team records in many different categories in the last five years. The Dogs led the SEC in rushing and passing during his career with the Bulldogs.

Coach McWhorter played football at Georgia in the early '70s as an offensive lineman; so he is no stranger to the surroundings of Death Valley. He has played and coached in many big bowl games, including the Gator, Peach, Hall of Fame, Citrus, and Sun Bowls.

McWhorter was an AP All-Southeastern Conference selection as a guard in 1973. He was also an honorable mention All-American and was named captain of the Bulldogs. Georgia played in two bowl games during his career.

McWhorter has been a college coach each of the last 16 years and 12 of those years he worked with either Georgia or Georgia Tech. He also coached two years at ACC rival Duke (1990-91). Altogether, McWhorter has coached in six bowl games.

The Mac McWhorter File

At Clemson: In his first year as offensive tackles and tight ends coach.

Previous Coaching Experience: High School - offensive line at Duluth High School (1974-75); offensive coach/offensive line at Douglas County Comprehensive High School (1975-76); offensive coordinator at Douglas County Comprehensive High School (1976-79); Head Coach at Villa Rica High School (1979-80). College - assistant coach/offensive line at Georgia Tech (1980-87); assistant head coach/offensive line at Alabama (1987-88); assistant coach/offensive line at Alabama (1988); Head Coach at West Georgia College (1988-90); assistant coach/offensive line at Duke (1990-91); assistant coach/offensive line and tight ends at Georgia (1991-95); offensive tackles/tight ends at Clemson (1996-present).

Education: Received a bachelor's degree from Georgia (1974).

College Playing Experience: Earned four letters at Georgia as an offensive lineman.

Personal Data: Born June 17, 1950...he and his wife, Rebecca have two daughters: Kasay and Katie; and a son: Hamilton.

Rick Stockstill

Rick Stockstill Wide Receivers

Rick Stockstill has been around successful programs and record setting offenses his entire coaching career. In his first year as quarterback coach at Clemson (1989), the Tigers set a school record for completion percentage (60%). The Tigers led the Atlantic Coast Conference in total offense for the 1991 season, and Clemson gained the second most yards in school history in the process.

Last year Clemson had its third most productive offense in history scoring over 300 points and gaining over 4500 yards of total offense.

Stockstill also tutored productive offenses at Central Florida and Bethune-Cookman in his early years as a football coach. As a player, he was the starting quarterback for Florida State. He guided the Seminoles to a pair of Orange Bowl appearances, a pair of top 10 rankings, and was the team captain in 1981.

It is no surprise that Stockstill has moved up the coaching ladder so swiftly because he is the product of an athletic family. His father was head coach at Fernandina Beach High School in Florida for many years. His brother, Jeff, was a starting wide receiver for the Tigers in 1982, and a reserve on the National Championship team of 1981.

Stockstill is in his eighth year with the Clemson program and the Tigers have been to bowl games in five of the previous seven seasons at Clemson. He joins Les Herrin and Whitey Jordan as the only assistant coaches in Clemson history to serve under three different head coaches.

The Rick Stockstill File

At Clemson: In his second season as wide receivers coach and is in his eighth season with the Tigers.

Previous Coaching Experience: College - Offensive coordinator and quarterback coach at Bethune-Cookman College (1983-84); assistant head coach and wide receiver coach at the University of Central Florida (1985-88); quarterback coach at Clemson (1989-1993); passing game coordinator at Clemson (1992-93); co-offensive coordinator and wide receiver coach (Dec. 1993-1995); wide receivers (1996).

Education: Fernandina Beach High School in Fernandina Beach, FL (1977); B.S. degree in Physical Education from Florida State (1982).

College Playing Experience: Earned three letters in football from Florida State. Captain of 1981 Florida State team.

Personal Data: Born December 23, 1959...he and his wife Sarah were married on July 7, 1990, and had their first child, Brent Forrest, in August, 1994.

RING OF HONOR

The Clemson Ring of Honor is in its third year of existence in Clemson Memorial Stadium. On September 3, 1994, during ceremonies prior to the Clemson vs. Furman football game, Frank Howard, Steve Fuller and Banks McFadden were inducted into the Clemson Ring of Honor. On September 2, 1995, Jeff Davis was added to the Clemson Ring of Honor.

The Ring of Honor is the highest honor a Clemson football player can receive. A recipient must first be a member of the Clemson Hall of Fame, earn at least an undergraduate degree, and make a significant contribution to the heritage of Clemson athletics. Honorees will have their jersey retired.

Howard was Clemson's head coach between 1940-69 and he guided Clemson to eight conference championships, six bowl games and six Top 25 seasons. He was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 1989 and is the second winningest coach in ACC history. He had 165 wins when he retired.

McFadden was named the Nation's most versatile athlete in 1939. He was an All-American in football and basketball, the only Clemson athlete in history to do that. McFadden led Clemson to its first bowl bid ever, a 6-3 win over Boston College in the 1940 Cotton Bowl. He was the number-three pick of the 1940 NFL draft, the highest draft selection in Clemson history.

Fuller is the only football player in Clemson history to be chosen an All-American on the field and in the classroom. Fuller was a first-team Academic All-American in 1977 and 1978 and was a third-team AP All-American in 1978. Fuller, who was ACC MVP on two occasions, is still Clemson's all-time leader in total offense. He was an NCAA Top Five Award winner in 1979, the only Clemson athlete to win the award.

Davis, captain of Clemson's 1981 National Championship team was a first-team All-American that year when he led the Tigers in tackles with 175, the highest total in Clemson history. Davis was also named the MVP of the ACC and was the Defensive MVP of the Orange Bowl victory over Nebraska, the game that clinched the national championship for the Tigers.

RING OF HONOR GUIDELINES

Purpose: The charge of the Ring of Honor committee is to bestow the highest athletic award presented by the Clemson Athletic Department on deserving candidates. The committee will examine the careers of candidates in all Clemson sports.

Nominations: Nominations are made by any member of IPTAY, a member of the faculty or a relative of a worthy nominee, and are accepted up to 30 days prior to the committee meeting. The committee will meet once every two years in the month of April to vote on the nominations.

Frank Howard

Banks McFadden

Steve Fuller

Jeff Davis

Nominations will be made in the form of a letter with a complete list of accomplishments and submitted to the chair of the committee, currently Clemson Sports Information Director Tim Bourret, who will retain an active file of nominations. Letters of support may also be submitted. All nominations will remain on file for a period of three voting committee meetings (five years). The Chair of the Committee will screen all nominations to make sure they meet eligibility requirements.

Eligibility: This committee will recognize individuals who have demonstrated consistent and unique national excellence in their sport during their Clemson career. Their accomplishments must be significant on an individual and team basis. Their statistical accomplishments must be noteworthy, but they should also have an outstanding record in terms of leadership. In general, they must have made a noteworthy contribution to the history of the Clemson Athletic Program.

Athletic accomplishments after their Clemson career are not a primary consideration in the nomination, but they must retain an unblemished record of citizenship after they leave Clemson.

A candidate must be a member of the Clemson Hall of Fame and must hold a baccalaureate degree from an accredited four-year University or college.

Financial contributions to Clemson University will not be a consideration when evaluating the candidates.

For a coach to be nominated he or she must be retired from coaching that sport at the college level.

Selection Process: Each member of the 11-person selection committee will cast one vote per sport. An honoree must obtain at least seven votes to be selected. There will be just one ballot. The committee does not have to select any honorees at its meeting. There shall be no more than one honoree in a sport for every two years.

Conferring: In the sport of football, the honoree will have his name, number, years participated and helmet enshrined in the Ring of Honor at Clemson Memorial Stadium. In the sport of basketball, the honoree's jersey will be hung from the rafters of Littlejohn Coliseum. In the sport of baseball a jersey replica will be hung from the fence of Tiger Field. Other sports will establish appropriate sites at the home facility.

When a student-athlete is selected the person's jersey is honored, but the jersey number may be worn in the future. However, it is encouraged that the number be issued only on special occasions. These occasions are determined by the head coach and athletic director. The ceremony honoring the recipient will be determined from a meeting between the honoree, the athletic director, the committee chair and the head coach of the sport involved.

ACC FOOTBALL

*Since the league's inception in 1953, ACC schools have captured 56 NCAA and AIAW championships, including 27 in men's competition and 29 in women's. In addition, 96 men and 24 women have earned the coveted title of the NCAA champion.

*The ACC is one of only two conferences to capture three or more national football titles since 1980. Clemson laid claim to the league's second title in 1981, Georgia Tech followed suit in 1990 while Florida State pocketed national title number four in 1994.

*The nine schools that take to the field this fall under the ACC banner have produced 310 first or second team gridiron All-Americans and 48 first-team academic All-Americans. ACC teams have had 1,336 players selected in the annual professional football draft, including 82 first-round draft selections.

*If success is best measured in terms of wins and losses, the ACC over the years has proved itself to be among the elite in Division I-A football. After posting a 3-1 bowl mark in 1995, the ACC moved past the Pacific-10 as the conference with the best all-time bowl winning percentage. The league's teams are a combined 76-63-5 (.545) in post-season play.

BOWL RECORD BY CONFERENCE

CONFERENCE	APP	RECORD	PCT
ACC	144	76-63-5	.545
Pac-10	156	81-69-6	.538
Big 8	131	66-64-1	.508
Big 10	153	75-75-3	.500
SEC	273	130-130-13	.500
Big East	94	44-49-1	.473
WAC	80	35-42-3	.456
SWC	141	61-74-6	.454

*Three ACC teams, Clemson, Florida State and Georgia Tech, are among the nation's top 10 winningest bowl teams. The Seminoles are 15-8-2 in bowl play, while the Yellow Jackets are 17-8 and that .680 winning percentage is tied for best in NCAA history. Clemson is eighth at 12-8 (.600).

*Ten times over the past 16 years, an ACC member school has claimed the CFA Academic Achievement Award which is awarded to a CFA member institution with the highest graduation rate among members of its football team. The ACC Academic Honor Roll record was broken for the 10th-straight year as 1,185 student-athletes were recognized for their work in the classroom.

*The 1995-96 academic year concluded with the league pocketing two more national team titles and seven individual NCAA crowns. In all, the ACC has won 23 national team titles the last six years.

*In addition, seven ACC schools - North Carolina (6), Virginia (21), Florida State (23), Clemson (27), N.C. State (32), Maryland (34) and Duke (39) were ranked in the Top 40 of the Sears Directors' Cup, an all-sports award honoring the Division I school with the best performance by women's and men's athletic teams during the 1995-96 academic year.

*The ACC placed at least one team in the Top 10 nationally in 13 of the 23 sports sponsored by the league. Other records of note during the 1995-96 season include 83 teams competing at the NCAA Championships, four bowl teams and 20 Top 10 showings.

*Six ACC teams, in six different sports, representing three of the nine member institutions, earned a No. 1 ranking during the course of the past academic year.

*The ACC set a single season attendance mark in 1995 averaging an all-time high 46,588 fans per game. The conference drew more than 2.2 million fans for a fifth straight year. Over 51 home dates, ACC schools attracted 2,376,003, the third highest total in league history and a five percent increase over 1994. ACC teams played to 89 percent of their stadiums' capacity.

*For the second year in a row, five ACC players were among 24 players selected to the Hitachi/CFA Scholar Athlete team. Florida State's Todd Rebol, Clemson's Andye McCrorey, N.C. State's Jonathan Risser, North Carolina's Russell Babb and Wake Forest's Rusty LaRue were selected.

*ACC football teams made 24 appearances on television during the 1995 season. League teams made 11 appearances on ABC, nine on ESPN, and one each on CBS, NBC, TBS, and Prime.

Priester led the ACC in rushing in 1995, the first Tiger to win that statistical crown since 1987. He is one of many outstanding ACC running backs in 1996.

Play of the Decade

The first year of the 1950s was very fruitful for Frank Howard's Tigers. The 9-0-1 season was capped by a 15-14 victory over Miami (FL) in the Orange Bowl. With six minutes left, Clemson trailed 14-13. But, reserve middle guard Sterling Smith, broke through the Miami line and tackled Hurricane running back Frank Smith in the endzone for a safety and a 15-14 lead. That is the way the game ended, still the only contest in which Clemson has won with a fourth period safety, as the last score of the game.

Clemson's Four Horsemen

Clemson was one of just three teams nationally to post an undefeated season in 1950. Four players had as much to do with it as any. Ray Mathews was an all-purpose player who still ranks among the best in Clemson history in all-purpose running, in fact, he still holds the single season all-purpose yardage per game record. Wyndie Wyndham is still revered as the hardest hitting linebacker in Clemson history. He once knocked out opposing players on three straight plays. Fred Cone was Clemson's first 2,000-yard rusher and Jackie Calvert was an All-America safety.

Glenn Smith

One of the oldest records on the Clemson books is touchdown receptions in a career. Clemson had just two 200-yard passing games in the 1950s, but Smith caught 18 scoring passes, still a record that Perry Tuttle, Jerry Butler and Terry Smith could not reach. He averaged 22.6 yards per catch in 1950.

Tom Barton

Clemson's first All-American lineman in the decade of the 1950s was Tom Barton. "Black Car" played in the College All Star Game in Chicago in 1953 and was a sixth-round pick of the Pittsburgh Steelers. He earned his master's and doctorate after his playing days were over and he is currently President of Greenville Tech.

Tiger Timeline

by Sam Blackman

September 30, 1950—Clemson defeated Missouri 34-0 in the second game of the season. The Tigers of Columbia, MO had been ranked in the preseason top 20. Three Tigers rushed for at least 100 yards for the Tigers, the second straight game Frank Howard had three 100-yard rushers in the same game. It has happened just four total times in Clemson history. Jackie Calvert was one of the 100-yard rushers in the game and he got the Tigers off to a great start with an 81-yard touchdown run on Clemson's first play. He finished the day with 175 yards, his career high.

October 7, 1950—Clemson recorded its third straight shutout to open the season with a 27-0 win over N.C. State in a home night game. Wyndie Windham again led the Clemson defense in tackles in this game and according to legend knocked out N.C. State players on three consecutive plays.

October 28, 1950—Clemson defeated Wake Forest in Winston-Salem in a battle of top 20 teams, 13-12. Clemson lineman Bob Patton blocked the extra point in the final minute to preserve the victory for Clemson. It is the only time in Clemson history that a Tiger has blocked a kick on the last play of the game to give Clemson a victory. (Wayne Simmons blocked a Virginia field goal on the last play of the game in 1991, but it preserved a tie).

November 4, 1950—Billy Hair gained 289 yards in total offense in just 24 total plays to lead Clemson to a 53-20 win over Duquesne. Hair had 104 yards rushing and threw for 185, and his 12 yards per play is still a Clemson record for yards per play in terms of total offense. Jackie Calvert also had a fine all-around performance with 221 all-purpose running yards. He had yardage in all four areas; 56 rushing, 100 receiving, 42 in kickoff returns and 23 in punt returns. It was just the second game in Clemson history in which the Tigers had a 100-yard rusher and 100-yard receiver.

November 25, 1950—Fred Cone led Clemson to a dominating 41-0 victory over Auburn with 33 carries for 163 yards and four touchdowns. It is one of just five games in Clemson history in which a player has scored four touchdowns in a game. Glenn Smith also had 114 yards receiving on six catches. It was the second time in 1950 and just the third time in Tiger history that Clemson had a 100-yard rusher and 100-yard receiver in the same game. The victory clinched an Orange Bowl bid for the Tigers, Clemson's first ever Orange Bowl bid.

November 27, 1950—Clemson ranked 10th in the final Associated Press Poll, its first Top 10 final ranking ever. The Tigers received nine first place votes in the poll that had 313 voters. By comparison only 60 people vote in the AP poll today. Clemson actually had the fourth highest

Billy Hair

Hair was one of the top all-around offensive leaders for Frank Howard's team in the early 1950s. He still has three of the top 10 total offense games in Clemson history. In a big win over Auburn in 1951 he had 113 yards rushing, 184 passing. In 1952 he led the team in rushing, passing, scoring, kickoff returns, and punt returns.

Don Wade

Known to many as a coach with Clemson, Don Wade was a starting linebacker for Clemson in the early 1950s. The Clemson Hall of Famer had two interceptions in Clemson's victory over Miami in the 1951 Orange Bowl. He served as an assistant coach under Frank Howard for 15 years, and as an assistant athletic director for six years in the 1980s.

Don King

King played one game at tailback in his career (vs. Fordham in 1952), set the Clemson single game rushing record with 234 yards, then never played the position again. King led the Tigers in passing for four straight years, 1952-55, and remains the only player in Clemson history to do that.

Tiger Timeline

first place vote total in that poll.

Clemson had an 8-0-1 record at the time of the poll, then defeated 15th ranked Miami (FL) in the Orange Bowl, who also had an 8-0-1 record entering the bowl game. Clemson, Princeton and Wyoming were the only college football teams to go unbeaten in 1950. In those days there were no polls after the bowl games, so the Tigers would have ranked higher by today's standards because we now have polls after the bowl games.

November 28, 1950—Clemson accepted a bid to play in the Orange Bowl.

January 1, 1951—Clemson appeared in the Orange Bowl for the first time and squeaked out a 15-14 win over Miami to complete an undefeated season. Sterling Smith's tackle of Frank Smith in the end zone gave Clemson a safety with under six minutes left in the game and the Tiger victory. Don Wade also had two 8-0-1 interceptions in the contest for the Tigers. It was 8-2-0 Clemson's second undefeated season in the last three years for Frank Howard's Tigers.

6-2-1 September 22, 1951—Billy Hair gained 297 yards in total offense leading Clemson to a 53-6 win over Presbyterian. Hair had 174 yards rushing and 123 passing in his performance. Defensively, Hair had a 43-yard interception return in a great two-way performance.

8-2-0
8-1-1
6-2-0 September 29, 1951—Jimmy Quarles raced 90 yards with an interception return for a touchdown in Clemson's 20-14 victory at Rice.

October 6, 1951—Jim Shirley became the single game record holder in terms of carrying the football, a mark that still stands today. Shirley had 36 rushes for 133 yards in Clemson's 6-0

Joe Pagliei

Pagliei was another of the triple threat players in the 1950s, a key reason Clemson had the 15th best record in college football in the decade. He used his hard running, good hands and kicking ability to lead Clemson in punt returns, punting, receiving, kickoff returns, and scoring at various stages of his career.

Ken Moore

Kenny Moore still holds the Clemson record for yards per rush in a single game. He had 152 yards on just five attempts against Citadel in 1954, the fewest carries for a 100-yard rusher in Clemson history.

Fred Knoebel

Over 40 years after his playing career ended, Fred "Knobby" Knoebel is finally getting his due. He will be inducted into the Clemson Hall of Fame this November. Knoebel had 15 interceptions between 1950-52, the record that stood until Terry Kinard arrived at Tigertown. But, Knoebel still holds the per game standard. He also had a record setting baseball career at Clemson.

Tiger Timeline

victory at N.C. State, a key win in Clemson's run to the Gator Bowl, Clemson's third bowl bid in a four-year period.

November 10, 1951—Glenn Smith, still Clemson's career leader in touchdown receptions, had six catches for 129 yards in Clemson's 21-2 victory over Boston College at Death Valley.

November 17, 1951—Buck George ran 90-yards for a touchdown, still tied for the longest in history, in Clemson's 32-14 win over Furman in a contest played at Greenville.

November 24, 1951—Clemson defeated Auburn 34-0 in the final regular season game. Billy Hair was the star again for Clemson as he demonstrated incredible ability as a runner and passer. For the second time in 1951 he gained exactly 297 yards in total offense, second best in Clemson history at the time. Against Auburn, Hair had 113 yards rushing and 184 passing.

November 27, 1951—Clemson accepted a bid to play in the Gator Bowl. This was done against the wishes of the Southern Conference, who had made a rule its members could not go to a bowl game. Clemson and Maryland (who also accepted a bowl bid) were given sanctions. The two teams are told they will not be allowed to play any other conference teams in 1952. This resulted in teams leaving the Southern Conference and forming the ACC.

September 20, 1952—Buck George rushed for 204 yards in 15 carries to set the school rushing record in a 53-13 victory over Presbyterian. George's record lasted only two months, as teammate Don King gained 234 yards against Fordham on November 8th of that year. George also had 42 yards in receptions and the 246 yard total is still sixth best in Clemson history for a single game.

September 27, 1952—Clemson played its second and final home game of the season, a 14-7 loss to Villanova. The Tigers played their final seven games on the road that season.

November 8, 1952—Don King, making his first and only career start at tailback, rushed for 234 yards on 33 carries in Clemson's 12-12 tie at Fordham. Included in that total was a 74-yard run for a touchdown. The performance is still a record for a Clemson freshman and still stands as the third highest single game total in Clemson history. King was substituting for an injured Clemson tailback and returned to quarterback the next week. He never played tailback again.

May 8, 1953—Clemson joined the Atlantic Coast Conference as a charter member.

September 19, 1953—Clemson had an incredible 14 fumbles (lost five), but still defeated

Ground Gainers

A hallmark of Frank Howard teams, and Clemson's best teams in general over the last 100 years has been the presence of tough running backs. Two of the best in the 1950s were Bill Mathis and Joel Wells. Wells ranked in the top 20 in the nation in rushing in 1955 and 1956 and in fact was on the cover of the NCAA stat manual prior to his senior year. Mathis ranked 10th in the nation in scoring in 1959 and led the Tigers in receiving and kickoff returns. He went on to win a Super Bowl with the New York Jets in 1969, the first Clemson football player to earn a Super Bowl Ring.

Clemson 7, South Carolina 0

The key victory for Clemson on the way to a top 20 season and Orange Bowl berth was a bizarre 7-0 win over South Carolina. Clemson did not attempt a pass in the game, yet still gained victory.

Tiger Timeline

Presbyterian, 33-7.

October 3, 1953—Clemson's hopes of upsetting eventual National Champion Maryland were dashed by the return game. Maryland's Dick Nolan raced 90 yards for a Terp touchdown on a punt return, and Bernie Faloney raced 88 yards on a kickoff return for a score. Nolan went on to become an NFL coach with the San Francisco 49ers. Maryland was ranked third in the nation heading into the game.

October 31, 1953—Clemson won its first ACC game in history, 18-0 over Wake Forest in a contest played at Clemson. Dreher Gaskin, who later in the season set the Clemson single game record for touchdown receptions, was the star in this Halloween win over the Deacons with seven receptions for 146 yards. It was the most reception yards and most receptions by a Clemson player in the decade of the 1950s.

November 21, 1953—Dreher Gaskin made his final game as a Clemson Tiger memorable as he caught three touchdown passes in the season final with Auburn. Clemson lost to the 14th-ranked Auburn Tigers on this day, but Gaskin's three scoring receptions still stand as a Clemson single game standard. He had four catches for 129 yards in the game and Don King threw for 226, one of just two 200-yard passing games by Clemson quarterbacks in the 1950s.

October 9, 1954—Clemson upset 14th ranked Florida in Jacksonville, 14-7. Don King scored the winning touchdown on a one yard run with 14:54 left.

October 30, 1954—Ken Moore provided the key play with an 81-yard punt return in a 32-20 victory over Wake Forest in a game played in Charlotte.

November 27, 1954—Clemson routed The Citadel by a 59-0 score behind the efficient running of Ken Moore. The Tiger back gained 152 yards in just five rushes and the 30.4 yards per attempt is an all-time Clemson record for any player gaining at least 100 yards in a game. Wingo Avery provided the spark from a defensive standpoint as he became the first Tiger in history to block two punts in one game. One of the those blocked punts was returned for a touchdown. Clemson also had an interception return for a score in that game, one of just five games in Clemson history in which the Tigers have had at least two returns for touchdown. The Citadel gained just 64 yards total offense, best total defense by the Tigers in a game in the decade of the 1950s.

November 12, 1955—Maryland came to Death Valley as the #2 ranked team in the nation, the highest ranking for a Clemson opponent until Florida State's appearance as the number-one

Going Bowling

Clemson met the best in the nation for the first time at the 1959 Sugar Bowl. Clemson was chosen to meet #1 ranked LSU. Some felt the Tigers did not deserve the bid, but Clemson won over a lot of fans in the 7-0 LSU victory. It took some trickery on a halfback option pass by Heisman Trophy winner Billy Cannon to win the game for the LSU Tigers. At left, Harvey White drives for yardage against the Chinese Bandits.

Clemson became the first school in college history to play two bowl games in the same calendar year. The Tigers defeated #7 TCU by a 23-7 score, the highest ranked team Clemson defeated in the 1950s, in the 1959 Bluebonnet Bowl. Ron Scrudato scored a key touchdown in the photo below left.

Whitey Jordan

A loyal Tiger for over 40 years, Jordan set a Clemson record for yards per attempt in 1957 that lasted over 30 years. He gained over 30 yards per catch that year and played on the 1956 Orange Bowl team. He coached under Frank Howard, Hootie Ingram and Ken Hatfield and is now an assistant athletic director with the Clemson football staff.

Tiger Timeline

team in 1995. Clemson played well against the highly regarded Terps, before losing 25-12. Joe Paglieli was a star for Clemson as he kept the Terps deep in their own territory for much of the day with a 50.8 punting average on four attempts, the second best single game figure in Clemson history at the time.

October 25, 1956—Clemson defeated South Carolina 7-0 without throwing a pass. It is the last time Clemson has played a game and not thrown a pass.

November 16, 1956—Vice President Richard Nixon was in attendance at the Clemson-Miami football game on this date. Surrounded by security from various agencies, a loud explosion sounded and alarmed the body guard along with the Vice President. To everyone's relief, it was discovered that it was just the cannon fired off by a Clemson cheerleader when Clemson kicked off. The eighth-ranked Hurricanes defeated the Tigers 21-0 in the game played at Miami, FL.

November 24, 1956—Clemson defeated Virginia 7-0 at Clemson to clinch the Tigers first ever ACC Championship.

December 1, 1956—Clemson clinched an Orange Bowl berth with a 28-7 win over Furman at Clemson.

January 1, 1957—Colorado defeated Clemson 27-21 in an exciting Orange Bowl in Miami. Clemson had trailed 20-0 at the half and Frank Howard threatened to resign at halftime. But, the Tigers came back to take a 21-20 lead in fourth period, only to see the Buffalos score late to win the game.

March 25, 1957—It was announced that Clemson and South Carolina would play at Clemson on November 12, 1960 ending the 61-year old state classic, Big Thursday.

September 21, 1957—Clemson began the season with a 66-0 victory over Presbyterian. Clemson used an awesome rushing game this day and churned out 27 rushing first downs, still tied for best in Clemson history for a single game. The 66-0 win is Clemson's largest margin of victory since 1945.

November 30, 1957—Harvey White was masterful in a 45-6 win over Furman. White connected on 13 of 24 passes for 258 yards in a performance that clinched his berth on the All-ACC team, the only time a Clemson sophomore quarterback has made first-team All-ACC. The passing yardage total was the most by a Clemson quarterback in the decade of the 1950s. Whitey Jordan, now on Clemson's football staff as an assistant athletic director, had five catches for a career high 122 yards in that game.

1959 - Thrill a Minute

The 1959 Tigers won the ACC championship, nine games, a bowl game and ranked 11th in the final AP poll. Along the way Clemson captured a pair of ACC games by two points. The season opened with a 20-18 victory at North Carolina in a battle of top 20 teams. George Usry, at left, scored the winning touchdown on a one-yard run against Wake Forest. He had set up the winning score in the 33-31 Tiger conquest with a 73-yard interception return.

Below is Lou Cordileone, Clemson All-America tackle that year who was a first-round draft pick of the New York Giants. Cordileone also played on Clemson's 1959 College World Series team.

Tiger Timeline

September 20, 1958—Clemson ran down the hill on a rug for the first time. The rug was officially given to Clemson on this date before the Clemson-Virginia game by W.W.Pate, Sr., president of Wunda Weave Company. It measured 104 feet long and was 13 feet wide. Also at this game, Clemson's first expansion of Memorial Stadium was used for the first time. Memorial Stadium was expanded from 20,000 to 38,000 seats.

September 27, 1958—Clemson defeated North Carolina, 26-21, as Frank Howard picked up his 100th collegiate coaching win. Doug Cline scored on a two-yard run with 2:52 left to give Clemson the victory. It was one of four times in 1958 that Clemson scored a touchdown in the last quarter to win the game. Also the scoreboard at the east of the stadium was used for the first time. The scoreboard had an added feature, as the Tiger above the scoreboard still wags his tail after each Clemson touchdown.

October 6, 1958—Clemson was ranked eighth in the country, the highest ranking in Clemson history, at that time.

October 11, 1958—Clemson kept its top 10 ranking alive with a 12-7 win at Vanderbilt. Harvey White scored the game winner on a three-yard run with three seconds left to win the game. It is the latest game-winning touchdown in Clemson history.

November 19, 1958—Clemson defeated N.C. State 13-6 and won its second ACC title in three years. George Usry scored on a one-yard run with 12:16 left in what proved to be the game winner.

November 29, 1958—Clemson accepted a Sugar Bowl bid to face the number-one team in the nation, LSU, the first time in history

Clemson has met the number-one ranked team.

December 24, 1958—It was announced that Clemson would take the rug the Tigers used to run down the hill with them to the Sugar Bowl. The rug weighed 527 pounds.

December 27, 1958—Clemson announced it would wear navy blue jerseys with wide numerals front and back. Orange helmets with a white stripe from back to front in the center would also be worn to give a contrasting color for the nationwide television coverage of the game.

January 1, 1959—Number-one ranked LSU and Heisman Trophy winner Billy Cannon defeated Clemson 7-0 in the Sugar Bowl. Cannon, a halfback, threw a touchdown pass to give LSU and Paul Dietzel the national championship clinching victory.

Kissing Big Thursday Goodbye

One of Clemson's biggest wins of the decade of the 1950s was the 27-0 victory over South Carolina in the final Big Thursday Game. Clemson and South Carolina met in Columbia in conjunction with the state fair for over 50 years. But, that meant Clemson never had the Gamecocks in Death Valley. That changed in 1960, and it made the 1959 victory all the more meaningful. Harvey White starred for Clemson that day, hitting 9-10 passes for 162 yards and two touchdowns, still the second best passing efficiency game in Clemson history.

Tiger Timeline

September 19, 1959—Clemson defeated North Carolina in Chapel Hill, 20-18 in a battle of top 20 teams. The Tar Heels were ranked 12th in the preseason poll.

September 21, 1959—Clemson entered the top five of the AP poll for the first time ever. Clemson received 370 poll points in ranking number-five in the nation after its victory over North Carolina in the season opener. Clemson trailed only LSU, Oklahoma, Auburn and Mississippi in the poll.

October 22, 1959—Clemson won the last Big Thursday game by defeating South Carolina, 27-0. Harvey White was on target all day, hitting 9-10 passes for 162 yards and two scores. Clemson fans tore down the steel goal posts which were set in concrete following the game. White's 282 passing efficiency rating is still second best in Clemson history.

October 31, 1959—Clemson defeated Rice 19-0 thanks to an outstanding pass defense. The Tiger defense did not allow a completion as the Owls were 0-13 in the air. Clemson threw for just 34 yards in the contest so the two teams had just 34 yards passing between them.

November 21, 1959—Clemson defeated Wake Forest 33-31 for Clemson's second ACC title in a row. George Usry scored on a one-yard run with 4:24 to go to give Clemson the triumph. He also had a 73 yard interception return in the game. The big play of the day for Wake Forest was provided by Bobby Robinson (not the current Clemson athletic director), who had a 69-yard interception return for a touchdown. It is still the fifth longest opponent interception return in the history of Death Valley.

December 5, 1959—Lou Cordileone, Clemson's All-America tackle, was drafted in the first round by the New York Giants of the National Football League. He was Clemson's only NFL first-round draft choice of the 1950s.

December 7, 1959—Clemson ranked 11th in the nation in the final AP poll with an 8-2 record. Clemson would go on to defeat seventh ranked TCU in the Bluebonnet Bowl, but once again there was no post-bowl poll in those days, so Clemson's victory was not reflected in a final poll. Five teams ranked ahead of Clemson lost bowl games that year.

December 19, 1959—Clemson defeated TCU in the first ever Bluebonnet Bowl, 23-7. The Horned Frogs, led by All-American and future Dallas Cowboy Bob Lilly, were ranked seventh in the nation entering the game. The victory was also the 300th in Clemson history.

MEMORIAL STADIUM

In 1991, two very special anniversaries in the Clemson football tradition were observed. Not only did the 1991 season mark the 10th anniversary of Clemson's National Championship season, but it also marked the 50th birthday of the place where the Tigers won six games that season: Memorial Stadium.

In the first 54 years of Memorial Stadium, Clemson has a record of 187-70-7, including a 29-8-1 ledger over the last six seasons. Clemson had a 16-game unbeaten streak at home between 1990-92 and has a career winning ratio of 72.0 percent.

The stadium has definitely been good to the Tigers who call it home, but the stadium was constructed against the advice of at least one Clemson coach. Just before head coach Jess Neely left for Rice University after the 1939 season, he gave Clemson a message. "Don't ever let them talk you into building a big stadium," he said. "Put about 10,000 seats behind the Y.M.C.A. That's all you'll ever need'.

Instead of following Coach Neely's advice, however, Clemson officials decided to build the new stadium in a valley on the western part of campus. The place would take some clearing-there were many trees, but luckily there were no hedges.

The crews went to work: clearing, cutting, pouring, and forming. Finally, on September 19, 1942, Clemson Memorial Stadium opened with the Tiger football team thrashing Presbyterian College, 32-13. Those 20,000 seats installed for Opening Day would soon grow; and grow and grow. This year Clemson celebrates its 55th year in this outstanding facility.

When the original part of the stadium was built in the early 40's, much of the work was done by scholarship athletes, including many football players. The first staking out of the stadium was done by two members of the football team, A.N. Cameron and Hugh Webb. Webb returned to Clemson years later to be an architecture professor, and Cameron went on to become a civil engineer in Louisiana.

The building of the stadium did not proceed without a few problems. One day during the clearing of the land, one young football player proudly announced that he was not allergic to poison oak. He then commenced to attack the poison oak with a swing blade, throwing the plants to and fro. The next day, however, the boy was swollen twice his size and had to be put in the hospital.

Memorial Stadium is one of the 10 largest on-campus stadiums in the nation with capacity listed at 81,474.

There are many other stories about the stadium including one stating that Frank Howard put a chew of tobacco in each corner of the stadium as the concrete poured.

Howard says that the seeding of the grass caused a few problems. "About 40 people and I laid sod on the field," he says. "After three weeks, on July 15, we had only gotten halfway through.

"I told them that it had taken us three weeks to get that far, and I would give them three more week's pay for however long it took. I also told them we would have 50 gallons of ice cream when we got through. After that it took them three days to do the rest of the field. Then we sat down in the middle of the field and ate up that whole 50 gallons."

Howard says that on the first day of the first game in the stadium,"the gates were hung at 1:00 pm and we played at 2:00 pm." But that would be all of the construction for a while. Then in 1958, 18,000 sideline seats were added and, in 1960, a total of 5,658 West end zone seats were added in response to increasing attendance. With the large end zone,"Green Grass" section, this expansion increased capacity to about 53,000.

Later, upper decks were added to each side of the stadium as crowds swelled-the first one in 1978 and the second in 1983. This increased capacity to over 80,000 which makes it one of the 10 largest on-campus stadiums in the country.

The effect spiraling inflation has had in this century can be dramatically seen in the differences in stadium construction. The original part of the stadium was built at a cost of $125,000 or at $6.25 a seat. The newest upper deck was finished in 1983 at a cost of $13.5 million, or $866 a seat.

Through the years, Memorial Stadium has become known as "Death Valley." It was tagged this by the late Presbyterian coach, Lonnie McMillan. After bringing his P.C. teams to Clemson for years and getting whipped, McMillan said the place was like Death Valley. A few years later the name stuck.

On November 16, 1974 the playing surface was named Frank Howard Field for the legendary coach because of his long service and dedication to the University.

Luckily, the stadium wasn't built behind the Y.

If the game is close, maybe you'll slide to the edge of your seat as the kicker sets up for the extra point. Maybe.

But perhaps you don't realize just how important every point is to someone like Matthew.

Matthew knows everything there is to know about child abuse. He's seen it and he's felt it. He is an expert at hiding in the closet, under the bed and beneath the house. But for the first time in his life, Matthew is learning what it's like to be loved.

For every point Clemson scores this season, First Union will donate $25 to Helping Hands of Clemson, a non-profit organization of professionals and volunteers dedicated to helping and caring for a lot of children just like Matthew.

VICKERY HALL

Clemson University's commitment to provide its student-athletes with the very best of facilities is evident in many ways. From the soaring upper decks of Memorial Stadium, to the state-of-the-art strength training facility, young men and women from all 18 of Clemson's varsity sports have the very best in facilities for training and competition. Vickery Hall is no exception, as the $3 million structure is as impressive aesthetically as any of the other facilities. But the importance of Vickery Hall to the Clemson University Athletic Department is not found in the structure itself, but in the many programs that the building houses.

Vickery Hall opened in the spring of 1991 and is the only facility in the country built solely for the all-around education of student-athletes. The two-story, 27,000 square-foot building is open throughout the day and into the evening to accommodate the extended schedules of student-athletes.

The mission of the Student-Athlete Enrichment Programs is to monitor, guide, and encourage student-athletes to fulfill their long term goal, and to achieve their academic and career potential.

"Vickery Hall is one of the most important facilities the Clemson University Athletic Department has ever built or will ever build. It makes a philosophical statement about institutional commitment—giving our student-athletes the same opportunity to achieve their full potential academically that we give them athletically. We're very serious about that," said Athletic Director Bobby Robinson.

Vickery Hall focuses on five primary areas to meet the student-athlete's needs.

Academic Support

Clemson's Student-Athlete Enrichment Programs have provided one of the best academic support and advising programs in the nation.

The Academic Counselor performs a variety of duties to track academic progress. Their duties include providing assistance in registration and priority scheduling, contacting faculty, personally checking classes, recording information, counseling sessions with student-athletes, providing diagnostic testing, and directing career aspirations.

The academic support goals are to improve academic performance, assist student-athletes to become goal oriented, and promote all student-athletes to maintain good scholarship, and promote independence in the academic arena.

Tutoring

One of the most prestigious programs that has received recognition essential to the growth of Vickery Hall is the tutorial program.

The Student-Athlete Enrichment Program has been granted a Level 1 certification from the College of Reading and Learning Association, International Tutor Certification Program. Of the one hundred programs certified by CRLA, the Clemson Student-Athlete Enrichment Programs is one of two student-athlete programs in the country to achieve this distinction.

Having tutor certification will enable student-athletes to be provided the highest quality of academic assistance possible. Approximately 80 tutors are hired to provide academic support in the many subject areas offered.

Computing Facilities

The Department of Student-Athlete Enrichment Programs has recognized the need for students to have access to high-quality computing equipment and has made a commitment to provide the student-athletes at Clemson with the largest computer lab in the country. Located on the first floor of Vickery Hall is the Department of Student-Athlete Enrichment Programs' Microcomputer Laboratory. The lab is open seven days a week, for 16 hours on Monday through Thursday, and limited time on Saturday and Sunday. During exam periods the lab hours are extended.

The lab staff consists of graduate students, many of whom are pursuing advanced degrees in computer science. Lab staff members are available for tutoring of any Computer Science course, as well as the many management, engineering and business courses that deal with personal computers. Student-athletes may also arrange tutoring sessions outside normal lab hours any time during the school year.

The Student-Athlete Enrichment Program is committed to providing state-of-the-art computing facilities. Seventeen new computers have recently been purchased and an additional purchase of 15 new computers is slated for the next academic year. A new computer lab has been constructed and make a total of 40 computers available for student-athletes.

All computers feature comprehensive software packages that enable student-athletes to complete assignments successfully. All computers are fully connected to the internet allowing for access of computers throughout the world for research and communication.

Career Assistance Program

The Student-Athlete Career Assistance Program is one of the most important programs provided by the staff of Vickery Hall. The philosophy of this program is to provide student-athletes with job searching skills and strategies, internships, practicum experience as well as summer employment. These programs are designed to address specific career opportunities through a program that uses each year to gain information on the student-athletes.

By using the resources available to the University, Alumni Center and the Athletic Department, former Tiger griddler James Earle is working to establish a network of businesses, companies, and executives who will help assist with The Summer Employment Assistance Program. The program's main goal is to provide the student-athlete with job experience and a work history, which he or she can apply to his or her academic discipline.

The Long Term Career Assistance Program, also coordinated by Earle, will be coordinated from the academic colleges, the Placement Center, and through the Athletic Department contacts. This program is designed to better prepare the student-athlete for full-time employment and will focus on resume writing and interview techniques.

Personal Growth Program

Another aspect of Clemson University's commitment to help student-athletes reach their potential in all areas of their life—academically, athletically, and socially, is the personal growth program. This particular area of student development is designed to enhance and support the lives of student-athletes during their enrollment in college as well as in their life experiences after graduation.

The Vickery Hall Staff realizes that student-athletes have more obligations than a regular college student. The personal growth program seeks to eliminate some of the stresses of adjustment to the higher level of academics and athletics. It is the group's special task to assist the student-athlete by creating a finely tuned balance of all areas to ensure success in obtaining a Clemson University degree, by supporting successful athletic practice and competition, enhancing personal growth, and helping with the transition to life after college.

The purpose of the Personal Growth and Development Program is to assist the student-athlete in making a successful transition into his/her university and athletic life. These programs will provide the student-athlete the opportunity to examine and explore issues and topics pertaining to his/her values, personal health and wellness, behavior, and goals. The specific topics will encompass both general transition issues and specific athletic issues as well.

Vickery Hall is a 27,000 square foot facility built specifically for student-athlete enrichment. The Dick Hendley computer room is a major aspect of that building.

OVERTIME

by James Brunson & Brian Hennessy

Take yourself back 10 years in Clemson football history to 1986. The Tigers are in Baltimore facing Maryland and are looking to clinch their first ACC Championship in four years. A tie or a win gives Clemson the Championship. Late in the game, however, the task does not seem so easy, as the Tigers find themselves trailing by a field goal.

A drive deep into Terrapin territory leaves the Clemson coaching staff with a decision—Do you send in “Mr. Clutch,” David Treadwell, to kick the game-tying field goal to win the ACC? Or do you try to score a touchdown and risk losing the game and the Championship? This is a no brainer, of course. The Tigers call on Treadwell, who nails the 21-yard game-winner with 10 seconds left to tie the game at 17-17, touching off a string of three straight ACC titles.

No brainers like these no longer will exist in college football, because from this point forward, no game will end in a tie. Each year, the NCAA Rules Committee meets to discuss possible rules changes in college football. You may remember the anti-celebration rule that this body implemented last year.

The tie-breaker rule will have a direct impact on the strategy of the game and perhaps the National Championship, as evidenced in the 1966 Michigan State-Notre Dame game. The Irish ran out the clock on their own 30-yard line, content with a 10-10 tie. Notre Dame, with a 9-0-1 record, ended the season number-one in the country, even though Michigan State was also 9-0-1. That day Notre Dame Coach Ara Parseghian saw three All-America starters on offense felled by injury before the first quarter ended. Parseghian knew the voters would take that into account. When his team beat eventual Rose Bowl Champion Southern Cal 51-0 the next Saturday, the Irish were named unanimous National Champions.

Games that end in regulation as a tie will follow the same tie-breaker rule that Division I-AA teams have been following for years. After a coin toss, one team will begin a drive at the opponent's 25-yard line. They will continue on offense until their drive ends, either with a field goal, a touchdown, or a turnover. The team that began the overtime on defense will then have the ball on the opponent's 25-yard line with a chance to match or beat the first team's result.

If the game remains tied after each team has had an opportunity to score, the game will go into a second overtime (like playing extra innings in baseball), and so on until the tie is broken. The 25-second clock and regular first down rules will be used, but the game clock will be turned off. In other words, each team will have as long as they need to conduct their drive. Statistics in the overtime period will also count towards the game statistics.

Coach Tommy West likes the format of the overtime. “I like the format, more than the professional rule. With the professional rule, it puts a big advantage on who wins the (coin) toss. If it is a high scoring game and a team wins the toss, it can go down and score without the other team getting a chance. With the college rule, at least if the first team scores, the other team has a chance.”

West also likes the idea of having an overtime, especially in regard to the six “quality” wins necessary to qualify for a bowl. “It will change the way we coach the game at the end, but overall it is for the best. As long as we have to win six Division I-A games to get to a bowl, it will be beneficial to have overtime. A tie hurts both teams, because it is treated like a loss when it comes to qualifying for a bowl.”

Although the Tigers have not tied a game in over four seasons, one does not have to think back that far to find a game that could have been effected by the tie-breaker rule. Coach West thinks back to only his third regular season game at the helm to find a situation that he would have approached differently if the rule was in effect.

“I look back on how it would have changed our approach at the Virginia game in 1994. We were tied six-to-six with a few minutes left and had the ball deep in our own territory. We tried to move the ball and threw an interception. If we could have run out the clock and played for overtime, we would have had a much better chance at winning the game.”

The decision was so easy in 1986 that the coaches on the sideline probably made it without referring to Head Coach Danny Ford, who coached that game from the Pressbox due to a suspension. Now, the decision will not be so easy. Going for two points to win a game after a late touchdown won't be as common. Coaches will obviously always want the win, but the decision may become similar to late inning decisions in baseball. Will road coaches go for the win in regulation? Will home coaches settle for the tie and take their chances in overtime?

Only time, or should we say, overtime, will tell.

The new NCAA tie-breaker rule might have led to a different result in the 1994 Clemson-Virginia game.

Notes on Overtimes

- Clemson has been involved in 45 ties in its 100 years of football, but only one in the last nine years (107 games).
- * Clemson's last tie was a 20-20 thriller vs. Virginia in 1991. Wayne Simmons blocked a Virginia field goal attempt on the last play of the game to preserve the tie and Clemson's ACC championship hopes.
- * Clemson is destined for an overtime game if history repeats. The only years Clemson has had more than one tie in a season since 1935 are 1956, 1976 and 1986. Clemson had two ties in each of those years. The only year Clemson has had three ties is 1906.
- The last scoreless tie in Division I was on 11-19-83 when Oregon and Oregon State could not score.
- The record for most tie games in a single week is six, occurring three times...10-27-62, 9-28-63, 10-9-82.
- The highest scoring tie game was on 11-16-91, when San Diego State and Brigham Young each scored 52 points.
- The 1995 total number of ties (9) was the lowest since 1970. The most ties in one season took place in 1956 when there were 28 ties (Clemson had two of those). A record 5.02 percent of the games that year ended in ties.

IPTAY ATHLETE-OF-THE-YEAR

by Brett Sowell

The hour approaches midnight outside the gates of Rosenblatt Stadium in Omaha, NE, and an attempt by the Clemson publicity staff to help Kris Benson avoid autograph seekers has failed. Benson finds himself surrounded by at least 75 people and more are finding their way to him. It is the last chapter in a six-day emotional rollercoaster for Benson.

In classic Benson style, at the request of Coach Jack Leggett, he says, "I would sign them all if I could, but we have to go." Benson moves through the crowd to an idling van and crawls in. The van pulls away and his three-year Clemson baseball career has come to an end. Sometimes in life the end is just another beginning and for Benson that happens to be the case.

An hour earlier at the post game press conference following Clemson's season ending loss to Miami in the College World Series, Benson finally gave into all the emotion of the week. The barrels of the Miami bats had just handed Benson his second loss in less than a week and his third consecutive loss to the Hurricanes over the course of two years, his only losses in the period.

When Benson was asked by a reporter, "What is going to be your fondest memory at Clemson," all of the emotional highs and lows of the last six days caught up with this stoic figure. He started to respond, by saying, "It's been a lot of fun and I have had a lot of memories." The emotion of the last six days caught up with him and as tears began to appear, he said, "wrong question." He put his head down and coach Leggett responded for him.

"Kris Benson will always be the best college pitcher I've ever had or ever seen. I'll remember all the games he won for us. He has a good future ahead of him and he'll be a tremendous success. He has a good work ethic and he gave us all he had." Leggett paused and added, "He's as good a person and as good a player as you'll see in college."

A week earlier the Tigers arrived in Omaha on Wednesday May 29th after winning the NCAA Atlantic Regional at Clemson the previous weekend. For Benson, this week at the College World Series was to be his national showcase. He already found himself on the cover of Baseball America and the next day the magazine would name him its National Player-of-the-Year.

Benson is a player who doesn't make an effort to stand out. He prefers to just blend in with the rest of his teammates, but this week would be different. For instance, the Clemson coaching staff worried so much about Benson and teammate Billy Koch being disturbed by outside phone calls, that both pitchers were taken off the hotel's computer. In secret service type protection, the hotel front desk staff didn't even know which room either pitcher was in.

Two factors contributed to this fact. The first was that after being cut by the USA Baseball Team in the summer of 1995, Benson went on a mission to improve himself, and he did. He rolled through the 1996 regular season and NCAA regional playoffs accumulating 14 wins and no losses for Jack Leggett's club. The last time he had lost was on May 15, 1995 to Miami, Clemson's foe in the first game of the CWS. The second factor was that Benson was rumored to be the leading candidate to be the number-one pick in the major league draft, which was scheduled for the next Tuesday.

Gametime approached on Friday and as Benson made the walk down from the bullpen to the dugout, he was flanked by an ESPN camera crew not four feet from him every step of the way. His parents in the stands also made an appearance in front of a national television audience. It was Benson's time to shine. However, despite striking out a near record 15 batters in just 7 1/3 innings, the Hurricanes ended Benson's incredible winning streak.

Even though he was not pitching for the Tigers on Tuesday, it would be a big day for Benson. The team arrived at Rosenblatt Stadium at 12:15pm to face Alabama at 2:30pm. Awaiting Benson, was a representative from the Pittsburgh Pirates, and in his bag were several hats and a jersey that read "Pirates" on the front and "Benson" on the back. He had actually found out at 10:00 AM that day that he would become the first athlete in Clemson history, regardless of sport, to be the first pick of a professional draft. It was

Benson was the #1 pick of the entire 1996 major league draft, a first in Clemson sports history.

Player of the Year (by four organizations no less) and the first to win ACC Athlete of the Year.

After signing a few autographs, Benson and his family rushed down to the 1st base dugout clubhouse of the stadium for a conference call with the Pittsburgh media. Benson talked on a cellular phone with Cam Bonifay, the Pittsburgh general manager, and then the media. All the while his family was caught up in the moment as his father took snap shot after snap shot of Benson on the phone.

Benson told the media, "I don't have a timetable and I don't think Pittsburgh has one. I think they just want me to come in and get as much experience as I can and learn how to succeed at the next level. I'm a good learner."

That Tuesday was a very special day in the history of Clemson baseball. The Tigers made a thrilling come from behind win over Alabama 14-13 to once again stare down elimination. Benson and Koch were among the first four players selected in the major league draft. That marked the first time two pitchers were taken from the same school in the first four picks and just the second time in the history of the draft two players from the same team, regardless of the position, were taken within the first five picks.

The next day Benson would lose to Miami, but before the game he displayed the reason he is described as a class act by anyone who meets him. ESPN2 color analyst, Larry Conley, inquired to find out any interesting facts about Clemson players. He was told about a 75 - page marketing paper Benson had done on Clemson baseball. Benson and a classmate had produced the paper during the spring semester.

When Benson received word that the paper was going to be mentioned that night on the game broadcast, he sent teammate David Shepard to Conley with a message. Shepard said, "Kris told me to make sure you told everyone that he was co-author of the paper, not the only author." Conley with a grin stated, "What a great kid!" Even though he was the number-one pick of the draft, Benson still made the academic honor roll in the Spring semester.

Those six days in Omaha are a distant memory now. Benson handled all the emotion, the press, the fans, and publicity the only way he knew how, with class. Since then Benson has won a bronze medal in the Olympics and signed with the Pirates for a record signing bonus worth $2 million.

Oh yes, he bought himself a new black Nissan 300 ZX, which he currently drives on the Clemson campus. Despite the large contract, he is back in school and will soon have his degree.

another honor for the Tiger who later would become the first Clemson athlete in history to be named a National

CLEMSON VS. FURMAN 1896

by Sam Blackman

A century ago this month, Clemson Football was born.

On a still, balmy, September night on the young and undeveloped Clemson College campus a group of cadets met in the barracks to discuss the feasibility of organizing a football team to represent the all-male military school. Other state schools had football, and the question was raised—why not Clemson?.

A total of 30 students met that night and from this group 20 players would make the varsity squad that year. From this group three students were appointed to consult engineering professor Walter M. Riggs as to the management of a football team and to ask his aid as coach. Legend has it that only one of these 30 players at the original meeting had ever seen a football.

It was only appropriate that Riggs would coach the Clemson Tigers that first year. Riggs played football at Auburn during his student days at left end. He was captain and catcher of the baseball team and graduated with top honors in 1892 with a B.S. degree in electrical and mechanical engineering. After starting the Clemson program and coaching the team in 1896 and 1899 he headed the Clemson Athletic Association (Athletic Director) and was a key administrator of the Southern Intercollegiate Athletic Association (an early Southern athletic conference with several schools as members). He later became president of Clemson College in 1911.

On October 5, 1896, Clemson began practice on a 50x200 foot field in front of the college. It is believed that this field was located in front of what is now the student union building (the area between Tillman Hall and the Trustee House).

The first Clemson football team had training rules to be followed to the letter. They were as follows:

(1) Will report promptly to all practices prescribed by the coach unless physically disabled or prevented from attending on account of college duties.

(2) In any of the above instances, players will report the facts beforehand, when possible, to the coach.

(3) Players will not, without the consent of coach and trainer, eat anything at any time except at training table; will not drink alcoholic or spirituous liquors or soda water.

(4) Players will not use tobacco in any form or engage in any form of dissipation.

(5) Players will retire not later than 11:00 p.m., unless permission is granted by coach and trainer or prevented by college duties.

(6) Players will obey the directions of the coach and captain on the field of play as before specified, and use their influence to promote discipline both on and off the field of play.

Another oddity about Clemson's early beginnings is that Professor Riggs was one of two men around who had ever played football and only a few had ever seen the game.

Practice continued and as one description put it, "a hardy group of early Tigers who cared little for their skin and bones turned out for practice and began enthusiastically slamming each other to the rock strewn practice field."

Without any capital, the team's first equipment was personal property, but other necessary equipment was purchased with money that was willingly contributed by members of the faculty and student body.

Equipment in the early years consisted of very little padding except at the knees and elbows. Tightly fitting and laced leather or canvas jackets served as the main bodily protection against the crashing effects of mass plays, and left little for a tackler to grab. A few had nose and shin guards. Due to the lack of helmets and head protection they wore long hair to protect the head.

After gruelling practices, the first-ever Clemson game day finally arrived.

On October 31, 1896, just 26 days after the first practice, Clemson traveled to Furman (probably by train). This was the first time that many of the Clemson players had seen a full-sized gridiron.

George Swygert, center on the first Clemson football team, recalled the Furman game and the first season as follows:

"With Professor Riggs as our coach we got in shape fairly well. Our first game was with Furman, the biggest men I have ever seen, and believe it or not, we won that game. We had a few trick plays. One was when the play ended near the side lines. Our lightest end would hide the ball under his sweater and as the two teams moved toward the center of the field for the next play, he appeared to be injured. Then when things were clear, he made a bee-line for the goal. This worked maybe once a game over the years I played; it worked against Furman in our first game."

Very few details of the Clemson-Furman game are known, but Charlie Gentry scored Clemson's first touchdown in history. The Tigers defeated Furman, 14-6 at Greenville, SC in that first game.

Clemson's upset win over Furman was a monumental milestone for the school. Furman was considered at the time an experienced team having played the game since 1889, (the year Clemson was founded).

A member of Clemson's first football team, Shack Shealy was the head coach of the Tigers in 1904. He holds the distinction of being the only Clemson player to have coached his alma mater. Shealy coached Clemson one year and guided the Tigers to a 3-3-1 record overall, which included wins over Alabama, Georgia, and Tennessee.

In 1896, a football field was 110 yards long and a touchdown counted only four points: whereas a field goal, and that was either a drop kick or through placement, counted five points, and the goal after touchdown counted two points, as also did a safety.

Little did this group of 30 students know, meeting 100 years ago in a tiny barrack's room, they would set the foundation of one of the most successful football programs in the nation.

ACC ACADEMIC HONOR ROLL

Clemson had a record 110 student-athletes earn selection to the ACC Academic Honor Roll for the 1995-96 academic year. The total shattered the single year record of 83 set last season. Among the 110 student-athletes who made the list by earning a 3.0 or better for the year were 17 football players, also a Clemson single year record. The ACC has named an ACC Academic Honor roll for athletics every year since 1957.

Among the selections is Tiger baseball player Paul Galloway. Clemson's starting third baseman on two College World Series teams completed his fourth straight year of 4.0 and was obviously named to the academic honor roll for the fourth straight year. Clemson linebacker Andy McCrorey became the first Clemson football player in history to be chosen to the academic honor roll four straight years.

Building a National University

Clemson University has a long tradition of excellence in teaching, research and service in South Carolina. Now Clemson is extending that tradition, building a national reputation through faculty and staff who have earned the recognition of their peers across the nation. We couldn't list them all, so allow us to introduce a representative few. At Clemson, champions don't meet only on the athletic fields. They gather in classrooms and laboratories every day.

IPTAY

IPTAY is widely regarded as the father of Athletic Fundraising. It all started in 1934 and from a private meeting of a small group of Clemson supporters has sprung an organization that raised over $8 million last year. The organization plays a major role in ensuring that all 18 of the varsity sports at Clemson are given the maximum amount of scholarships offered by the NCAA.

The organization also has helped finance facilities that help student-athletes on and off the field. Vickery Hall, is a 27,000 square foot facility that houses the tutoring and advising programs for student-athletes. It is a major reason Clemson student-athletes have had their highest cumulative GPA on record for three consecutive semesters.

While IPTAY is primarily concerned with athletic fundraising, the mission of Clemson University has not been overlooked. The IPTAY Academic Scholarship Endowment was created to help meet the need for more academic scholarships for non-athletes who are highly qualified academically. The IPTAY Academic Scholarship Fund is presently the largest scholarship endowment of its kind at Clemson, providing $2.8 million in funds, currently helping 34 students at Clemson.

IPTAY Executive Director George Bennett has continued to keep Clemson among the best in the nation in terms of fund-raising by the establishment of the IPTAY Endowment Program. In April of 1994, he kicked off the beginning of the endowment of positions program at the 85th birthday celebration for former Clemson Coach Frank Howard. The endowments are secure with a $100,000 donation paid over a five-year period.

"This is a chance to broaden the horizons of IPTAY," said Executive Director of IPTAY George Bennett. "It gives an individual or a group of people an opportunity to endow a position that meant something during their college playing days, or to honor a person at a position. The money being endowed is going to secure our future as the interest is used to carry on our program forever.

"Fans interested in seeing IPTAY and Clemson athletics succeed down the road now have the perfect means to do that. They can create endowments that can't be touched whereby, only the support will continue. Thus this is a way to ensure that the programs they are in favor of are continued. It has been institutionalized at several colleges and it seemed to be a natural thing to do at Clemson. We have the people who are very supportive and willing to take part."

The first endowment was for the head football coach position to honor the legendary Frank Howard. Howard coached football at Clemson 39 years, 30 as the head coach. During his tenure the Tigers won 165 games, 100 of which were against conference foes. "Former players and friends of Coach Howard made donations over the cost of attending the celebration program and that was enough for the endowment. Their gifts were a way of permanently thanking Coach Howard for all that he did for Clemson.

"Following Coach Howard's birthday party we began to look for an individual to help us support and promote the program and Bill Hudson's name came up. He was an outstanding player at Clemson who has been equally successful in the business world. We went to him and explained the program and its goals and that we were looking for his leadership to help get the program going and he accepted."

Hudson responded favorably. "Clemson has been good to our family and I have been fortunate in business, which allowed me to be involved in this program," said the former Clemson tackle. "Two of my brothers, my son, and I came to Clemson on a scholarship. The entire family is grateful so I put the endowment of the tackle position in the family's name."

Bill Hudson, a 1956 graduate, was a three-year letter winner at tackle who played professionally for the Montreal Alouettes, the San Diego Chargers, and the Boston Patriots. He earned Pro Bowl honors in 1962. His brother Bob was also a lineman at Clemson who lettered four straight years and played over 10 years professionally.

"We have a foundation in academics and it is something special to get a letter of thanks from a student who received a scholarship through our donation," said Bill. "That's a great feeling so we were willing to do a similar thing for the athletic department. The permanency of this is what makes it so important, it will be around much longer than I am. Future generations of my family will be able to enjoy and contribute to our endowment."

Mr. Hudson sees this program growing into a large part of Clemson's athletic funding. "When other people see information on the endowment program and learn what it is

Position Endowments

Friends and Former Football Players endowed the Head Football Coach's Position to honor Coach Frank Howard.

The Bill Hudson Family endowed a Tackle Position.

Mr. and Mrs. David Merritt endowed a Wide Receiver Position In Honor Of Perry Tuttle.

about this program will grow. Success builds on success. People who are looking to honor a friend or family member now have a great means to do that."

Besides the Hudson's family endowment four other football endowments were made and one managers position in the first year. Now there are over 15 positions endowed. The goal of the program is to get every position endowed. "From the free safety to the number three player in women's tennis, we hope to have every position endowed," said Bennett. "We will likely use the Avenue of Champions as a physical place to honor these people further for the positions they have endowed. That will have plenty of space, so we will be working to have as many endowments across all of our sports."

"The personal satisfaction that they helped Clemson University, specifically the Athletic department, and that they are securing its future are the main reasons for becoming involved."

And with more involvement Clemson will have a very secure future for generations to come.

CENTENNIAL ALL-STARS

Each program this year will honor members of Clemson's Centennial Team. You will notice by season's end that the six covers of this year's program form the poster that will be distributed as you leave Death Valley this afternoon.

Today's cover features some of the most prominent members of the Centennial Team. Banks McFadden, Jeff Davis and Steve Fuller are all members of the Clemson Ring of Honor, the highest award presented by the Clemson Athletic Department to a Tiger football player.

Terry Kinard, the only unanimous All-American in Clemson history and the 1982 National Defensive Player of the Year is also featured. Frank Gillespie, the only Clemson football player named a conference Athlete of the Year, and Fred Cone, who Coach Frank Howard often cited as his best player, are also components of the artistic work by Michael Taylor.

Here is a rundown on some facts about the faces on the cover of today's program.

Banks McFadden, Back, 1937-39: Consensus All-American in both football and basketball in the same calendar year (1939), only Clemson athlete to do that... named the nation's most versatile athlete for 1939-40...

Clemson's first wire-service All-American, Associated Press in 1939...record setter on the field as a runner, passer, and punter...led Tigers to state championship in track twice in his three years on the team...elected to National Football Hall of Fame in 1959, the only player in Clemson history named to the Hall of Fame...received Distinguished Alumni Award from Clemson in 1966...charter member of the Clemson Athletic Hall of Fame and South Carolina Athletic Hall of Fame...only Clemson player to have his jersey retired in two sports...the number-three pick of the Brooklyn Dodgers (football) after the 1939 season, that is still the highest draft pick ever by a Clemson player...played one year in the NFL and led the league in yards per rush...coached the defensive backs at Clemson for 26 years, he was also the head basketball coach from 1947-56... Ring of Honor Charter member ... Clemson Athletic Hall of Fame Charter Member, elected in 1973...Clemson's McFadden Building, dedicated in 1995, is in his honor...retired, now living in Clemson.

Jeff Davis, Linebacker, 1978-81: First-team All-American...nicknamed "The Judge"... still holds Clemson record for most tackles in a game (24) and in a season (175)... has the second best career tackles mark with 469...had incredible 30 double figure tackle games in his career and led the team in tackles 25 times...first-team All-American in 1981 by UPI, Football Coaches, Football Writers, Football News and Walter Camp Foundation...first linebacker in Clemson history to be named a first-team All-American...has the most caused fumbles in a career (10) and most career recovered fumbles (8)...Defensive MVP of the 1981 Orange Bowl when Clemson downed Nebraska to win the national championship...captain of Clemson's 1981 National Championship team...fifth-round draft pick for the Tampa Bay Bucs...played for Bucs 1982-87 and was the team's leading tackler four seasons...also captain of Tampa Bay team for four of his six seasons...National Lineman-of-the-Year by the Atlanta Touchdown Club his senior season...1989 Clemson Athletic Hall of Fame inductee, and inducted into the Ring of Honor in 1995.

Steve Fuller, Quarterback, 1975-78: Third-team All-American in 1978 coupled with being first-team Academic All-American for two years...ACC Player-of-the-Year in 1977 and 1978, Clemson's only two-time selection...in 1978

he led Clemson to ACC Championship with a perfect 6-0 record and then to a Gator Bowl victory...Tigers were 11-1 and ranked sixth in final poll that year...recorded 4,359 yards passing and a total offense of 6,096 yards in his career to top Clemson's all-time leader list...leads Clemson in career touchdown responsibility with 44...second best pass interception avoidance percentage in NCAA history with 3.33% at the time of his graduation...shared Frank Howard Award with Jerry Butler for the 1978-79 academic year, he won it outright in 1977...only two-time recipient of that award...the 1979 recipient of the Jim Weaver Award for outstanding performance on and off the field, as given by the ACC...presented NCAA Top Five Award, only Clemson athlete so honored...also won National Football Foundation scholarship...first-round draft pick of the Kansas City Chiefs in 1979, he was the 23rd pick of the draft...played for Super Bowl Champion Chicago Bears in 1985...Clemson Athletic Hall of Fame inductee, and one of the three original inductees to the Ring of Honor.

Frank Gillespie, Guard, 1945-48: Started on Clemson's football, basketball (guard) and baseball (third baseman) teams ... only athlete in Clemson's history to be named all-conference in all three sports... voted All-Southern in 1948 in football...earned a total of 11 varsity letters...member of the first-squad Associated Press South Carolina All-State Team in 1946...member of the 1948 undefeated team that went on to play in the 1949 Gator Bowl...received the McKelvin Award, Southern Conference Player-of-the-Year, for the 1947-48 season, only Clemson football player in history to win the award...inducted into the Clemson Athletic Hall of Fame in 1977.

Fred Cone, Back, 1948-50: Set 10 individual season and career marks before graduating from Clemson...had eight career games of 100+ rushing yards...leader of the undefeated 1948 team...was instrumental in Clemson's victory over Missouri in the 1949 Gator Bowl...had a total of 31 career touchdowns and 189 career points...still second in Clemson history in total touchdowns and seventh in career scoring...Clemson's first 2,000 yard rusher, he is still 10th in school history...still second in career rushing touchdowns...captain of the 1950 team...named to the All-Southern Squad in 1949 and 1950...received All-State honors in 1948, 1949 and 1950...1950 Teague Award recipient that is presented to the most outstanding male athlete in North and South Carolina...third round draft pick of the Green Bay Packers in 1951...voted into the Green Bay Hall of Fame in 1974...charter member of the South Carolina and Clemson Athletic Hall of Fame in 1973.

Terry Kinard, Free Safety, 1978-82: First and still the only Clemson player to be unanimous All-America pick (1982) ...first two-time Clemson All-American defensive back ... a first-team AP All-American two years in a row, the only Clemson player to do that...CBS National Player-of-the-Year for the 1982 season ... Clemson had 21-1-1 record his final two seasons...chosen to the USA Today All-College Football Team in the 1980's...two-year member of the All-ACC team...all-time Clemson leader in interceptions with 17, a mark that tied the 20-year-old ACC record...holds Clemson record for tackles by a defensive back with 294 in his career...first-round pick of the New York Giants in 1983, he was the 10th pick of the entire draft...played with Super Bowl Champion Giants in 1986 and was with the club 1983-89...played in the 1988 Pro Bowl Game...played with Houston Oilers in 1990...inducted into Clemson Athletic Hall of Fame in 1992.

Just 2 miles from Death Valley's 50 yard line...on Lake Hartwell.

Allens' Creations, Inc. - Frame & Art Gallery - in Clemson sadly announces the unexpected death of artist Bill Stroud on July 6, 1996. Mr. Stroud, of Cayce, S.C., was 46 years old.

On April 1, 1996 a cooperative effort between Allens' Creations, Inc., Mr. Stroud, Clemson University, and the Walker Course led to the release of "The Tiger Paw Hole - #17 The Walker Course At Clemson University." This is the ONLY "officially authorized" and licensed limited edition print of the signature hole on the new golf course at Clemson. At the time of his death, Mr. Stroud had signed only 700 of the 1000 copies of "The Tiger Paw Hole."

Mr. Stroud's first Clemson print release was "On a Clear Day" featuring Tillman Hall in the winter. The remaining copies of "The Tiger Paw Hole" and "On A Clear Day" will be sold on a first-come first-served basis. Please call for availability and current prices.

To view other Clemson prints you can call or write for color brochures - or you can check out our Internet web site at <http://www.allenscreations.com>. You can e-mail your questions or comments to: aci@innova.net.

STADIUM EMERGENCIES

The Clemson University Athletic Department provides the following for your safety and emergency medical needs:

1. Advanced cardiac life-support stations in four locations (North stands, upper North deck, South stands, Upper South deck). These units are staffed with skill-care nurses, physicians, cardiologists, internists, paramedics, and EMTs.
  2. Mobile units of EMTs and paramedics are strategically located throughout the entire stadium.
  3. Ambulances with life-support equipment are available in North stand and South stand areas and have prearranged routes for evacuation to local hospitals.
- Learn to recognize these personnel and facilities.

WHAT TO DO IF EMERGENCIES ARISE:

Please step back and give the organized EMS personnel room to work. Well-intentioned attempts to help by untrained persons interfere with the efficiency of the EMS system. If you have basic or advanced training in specific life-support methods, make your qualifications known and offer your help. Untrained personnel can frequently be more harmful than helpful.

Most emergencies occurring at the stadium result from pre-existing medical conditions. Bring your medical identification card or wear medical identification jewelry. Moderation is the key with dress, food, beverage intake, and physical exertion. The two most frequent medical problems at football games are allergic reactions to insect stings and heart attacks.

INSECT STINGS:
Common at outdoor events. Treat immediately with ice and seek medical advice. If allergic, carry a kit from your physician with you.

HOW TO RECOGNIZE A HEART ATTACK:

The symptoms of a heart attack vary, but the usual warning signs are:

1. Uncomfortable pressure, fullness, squeezing or pain in the center of your chest lasting for two minutes or more.
2. Pain spreading to the shoulders, neck, jaw, arms, or back.
3. Dizziness, fainting, sweating, nausea, and/or shortness of breath.

EXPECT A DENIAL

Frequently heart attack victims deny they are having a heart attack. The event is frightening or they don't want the embarrassment of a false alarm. Therefore, they delay getting help by ignoring their symptoms or rationalizing, "It's just indigestion."

Find out what's really wrong. Prompt response can dramatically increase chances of survival and recovery.

New therapies have been developed that can minimize heart damage and save lives if treatment begins within the first few hours of symptom onset. "Time is muscle." Get help or get to a hospital immediately.

CLEMSON TRADITIONS

Death Valley

Name synonymous with Clemson Memorial Stadium. The Stadium was dubbed this affectionate title by the late Lonnie McMillan, a former coach at Presbyterian. He used to take his teams to play at Clemson, and they rarely scored, never mind gained a victory. Once he told the writers he was going to play Clemson up at Death Valley because his teams always got killed. It stuck somewhat, but when Frank Howard started calling it that in the fifties, the term really caught on. It is now in its 55th year.

Many people think the name is derived from the fact that there rests a cemetery outside the fence on the pressbox side of the stadium. But, although it would make sense, the name was first coined by Lonnie McMillan.

First Friday Parade

The Clemson football season kicks off each year with the annual First Friday Parade. The once a year event takes place on the Friday afternoon prior to the first home football game. Floats from various fraternities and sororities and other campus organizations are represented in the parade that rolls down main street in Clemson. The parade culminates at the Amphitheatre in the middle of campus where the first Pep Rally of the year takes place.

The Grand Marshall of the Parade is featured at the Pep Rally. Recent Grand Marshalls have ranged from current PGA professional Dillard Pruitt, to College Football Hall of Fame legends Jess Neely and Frank Howard, to noted television announcers Brent Musburger and Ara Parseghian.

Homecoming

Clemson holds a classic homecoming every year. Displays by fraternities and sororities that are months in the making, are built on Bowman Field the week prior to the Homecoming Weekend. It is an event that draws alumni and friends of Clemson from all over the country.

The Friday evening prior to the game, Tigerama is held in Death Valley, an event that attracts over 35,000 fans. The Homecoming Queen and her court are presented in addition to Homecoming skits, a pep rally and a large and loud fireworks display.

The first homecoming game played at

"Death valley really lives up to its image. I was impressed with this stadium. When you put 80,000 people in here, it really feels like they are on top of you. I would hate to be Georgia Tech or whoever else comes in here."

Steve Young, San Francisco 49ers

Clemson took place on September 30, 1922 when Clemson met Centre. Clemson has a 52-17-3 record on Homecoming games over the years, a .742 winning percentage and has outscored the opposition 1519-930 in those previous 71 games. The average margin of victory is 21 to 12. Clemson has been especially successful on Homecoming in recent years, posting a 22-1-2 record since 1970.

Orange Pants

The tradition of the Clemson team wearing orange pants is new according to tradition standards. The Tigers first wore the all orange uniform for the final game of the 1980 season against South Carolina. Clemson upset the 14th ranked Gamecocks and Heisman Trophy winner George Rogers, 27-6. The victory set the stage for Clemson's National Championship run of 1981.

Overall, Clemson is 29-6 in Orange pants since that 1980 game, including a 16-1 record in games played in the month of November. The Tigers have won seven in a row in orange pants, including last year's important victory over North Carolina. Clemson has nine wins over top 20 opponents when wearing Orange pants, including the 22-15 National Championship clinching win over Nebraska in the 1982 Orange Bowl.

Howard's Rock

When the Clemson team gathers to Run Down the Hill the players rub Howard's Rock

Clemson players have been rubbing Howard's Rock prior to running down the hill since 1967.

because of the mystical powers it is supposed to give Clemson players. The rock is mounted on a pedestal at the top of the hill and was given to Coach Frank Howard by a friend (S.C. Jones' 19) who picked it up in Death Valley, CA. The Rock was first placed on the pedestal at the top of the hill on September 24, 1966, a game Clemson won 40-35 over Virginia. The team started rubbing the rock for the first game of 1967, a 23-6 win over Wake Forest on September 23, 1967.

Running Down the Hill

One of the most exciting 25 seconds (about 35 seconds when Clemson dresses 120 players for homecoming) in college football from a color and pageantry standpoint. After Clemson's last warmup the team retreats to the home dressing room located under the West Stands. At about 12:50 ( for normal 1:00 P.M. game), the team boards two buses and drives around the periphery of the stadium to the east side of the field. After everyone is properly collected, the cannon sounds, Tiger Rag is played and Clemson charges down the hill (exactly 100 feet top to bottom) and onto the field. It is one of the most celebrated entrances in sport. The Tigers have done it for every game since 1942, except for 1970, 1971 and four games of the 1972 season. In all, the Tigers have run down the hill 249 times heading into 1996.

How in the world did the tradition of running down the hill start? There is no long involved explanation, it used to be the quickest way to get to the field. When the stadium was built in 1942 the football locker-rooms were up the street in Fike Fieldhouse.

When the players were finished getting dressed they used to walk out the front door and walk down the street to "The Hill". Coach Howard continued the tradition when locker-rooms were finally built inside the stadium because Clemson fans used to get so fired up when they gathered at the top of the hill. That's when the buses came into use to spend the trip from the lockerroom to the other side of the stadium.

Running down the Hill is one of the greatest stadium entrances in all of sports

Almost Perfect

Eastman Chemical Company has developed on-time delivery into an art. 98% of the time, we hit our marks right on cue. And with product quality so consistent, problems are the rare exception. Maybe that's why 70% of our customers rate us their #1 supplier.

But we're not happy with almost perfect. At Eastman, continuous improvement is one way we create value for our customers.

So we keep working at it. That attitude helped us become the first major chemical company to win the Malcolm Baldrige National Quality Award. And we appreciated the ovations.

But until every customer receives every shipment on time every time, we will keep striving for the perfect performance.

Six members of Clemson's 1981 National Champion team and five members of the Tigers 1940 Cotton Bowl Champions have been selected to the Clemson Centennial Football team. The team was announced Saturday, April 6 by John Seketa, Coordinator of the school's Centennial Celebration of Football.

"We received a great response," said Seketa. "The fans took this seriously by reviewing Clemson's successful tradition of football and they have chosen an outstanding team. We decided to select a one-platoon and a two-platoon team because we wanted to have a representation dating back many years. The team has 21 All-Americans. Everyone on this team made a significant contribution to the heritage of Clemson football."

Centennial Team ballots were first distributed at last year's Clemson vs. North Carolina game. They were also available through the Orange & White and at Coca Cola displays at area BiLo stores.

Of the 35 players chosen to the team, 21 were named All-American, including 19 of the 24 players on the two-Platoon team. Five of the selections were named ACC Player-of-the-Year.

The team continued their excellence at the professional level. Twenty-seven of the 35 honorees played, or are still playing in the NFL, including 21 who played at least five seasons. Six of the selections went on to become Super Bowl Champions, and seven were either All-Pro or played in the Pro Bowl. Eleven were first-round draft choices. Six are currently playing in the NFL and another, Brian Dawkins, was a second round draft choice and should also be in the NFL this year. Dawkins was the only 1995 Clemson student on the Centennial Team.

Seventeen of the 35 players came to Clemson from the state of South Carolina, while five are natives of North Carolina and five are natives of Georgia. Greensboro, NC (Joe Bostic, Jeff Bostic, Jeff Davis) and Sumter, SC (Terry Kinard, Wayne Mass, Dexter Davis) each sent three representatives to Clemson.

Four players off of Clemson's 1981 National Championship defense were named to the team. That list includes William Perry, Jeff Bryant, Jeff Davis, Terry Kinard. Wide receiver Perry Tuttle and punter Dale Hatcher were also Tiger National Champions chosen to the Centennial team.

Clemson's 1939 team that defeated Boston College in the 1940 Cotton Bowl, had five of the 11 players chosen to the One Platoon team. The group is led by All-American Banks McFadden, who was chosen as the quarterback/tailback and punter, the only player to make the team at two positions. McFadden, the nation's most versatile Athlete in 1939 and the only athlete in Clemson history to be named an All-American in both football and basketball, was the top votegetter on the Centennial team.

Runningback Charlie Timmons, who scored Clemson's only touchdown in that win over the Eagles, was also chosen. Two-time All-American Joe Blalock, center Bob Sharpe, and offensive lineman George Fritts were also Cotton Bowl Champions named to the One Platoon Centennial team.

Clemson's 1978 team actually had the most representation on the Centennial team. Ten players from that club, five on offense and five on defense, were chosen to the team. That list includes quarterback Steve Fuller, an All-American on the field and in the classroom, and his star wide receiver, Jerry Butler. The 1978 Tigers posted an 11-1 record and finished sixth in the final AP poll. They ended the season as ACC Champions and defeated Ohio State in the Gator Bowl, 17-15.

The two-platoon Centennial team features two sets of brothers. Jeff Bostic and Joe Bostic were both chosen to offensive line positions. Joe was a two-time All-America guard for Clemson in 1977 and 1978, while Jeff was an All-ACC performer on three Clemson bowl teams. Joe went on to play 10 years in the NFL, while Jeff played on three Super Bowl Championship teams with the Washington Redskins and played 14 years in the league.

The Perry Brothers, Michael Dean and William, were both chosen on the defensive line. They rank one-two in Clemson history in quarterback sacks, and were

All-Americans at Clemson, Michael Dean in 1987 and William in 1982, 1983 and 1984. William remains the only three-time All-American in Clemson history. William was a finalist for the Lombardi Award in 1984 and Michael Dean was a finalist for the Outland Trophy in 1987.

The two-platoon team demonstrates the strength of Clemson's defense over the years. Nine of the 11 players chosen were named All-American at some point in their careers, including Terry Kinard, the only unanimous All-American in Clemson history and the 1982 National Defensive Player of the Year. The four players on the defensive line of the two-platoon Centennial Team, William Perry, Michael Dean Perry, Jim Stuckey and Jeff Bryant, all played at least eight years in the NFL.

All three former players in the Clemson Ring of Honor were chosen to the team. That list includes McFadden, Fuller and Jeff Davis, the captain of Clemson's 1981 National Championship team who was a first-team All-American and ACC Player of the Year that season.

BE A PART OF TIGER
FOOTBALL. IT'S A FEELING
YOU'LL ALWAYS REMEMBER.

TIGER BAND

by Emily Rabon

As the first loyal Clemson fan enters the gate today, Death Valley will wake from its winter slumber and get ready to be filled with excitement, color and pageantry. Clemson opens its home season against Furman, the first team Clemson played against 100 years ago. Today the Tigers will be donning their "Turn Back the Clock Uniforms" for only the second time.

For 100 years Clemson Football has been marked by its enthusiasm and excitement, much of which has been generated by Tiger Band. For years, the Tiger Band has been a major part of Clemson tradition and sparking the Clemson spirit. The "Band That Shakes the Southland" has always been known for their precision in marching and dynamic spirit and sound. They take their excellence on the road when they travel with the Tigers, one of the few bands that still travels to all the away games with the football team.

The Tiger Band kicks off the games festivities with its traditional pregame show. Under the direction of Dr. Mark Hosler, Tiger Band will make its traditional entrance playing "Sock It To 'Em/Tiger Rag".

The pregame festivities then continue as the band performs one of John Phillip Sousa's famous marches, "The Washington Post." Everyone will then stand as Tiger Band honors America and leads the crowd in "God Bless America."

After the invocation, the crowd is asked to remain standing for the Pledge of Allegiance and the singing of the National Anthem. Tiger Band asks if everyone will remain standing and join them in the singing of the Clemson University Alma Mater.

Tiger Band will then march and position themselves to form the script "Tigers" across the field. Everyone directs attention to the 25-yard line where the Centennial Team will be dotting the "i." The team was voted on by Clemson fans. The ballots were located at participating Bi-Lo stores at the Coca-Cola display, in the "Orange & White", and were also passed out at the North Carolina game on November 4, 1995.

The Centennial Team consisted of 35 players, ranging from the players from the 1937 season to as recent as last season. Of the players, six were members of the 1981 National Championship team and five were on the 1940 Cotton bowl team. The team also consisted of 21 All-Americans and 27 of the players were, or still are playing in the NFL.

IPTAY and ISAB will also honor their Student-Athlete-of-the-Year. The recipient is Kris Benson, a 1994-1996 member of Clemson's baseball team. Benson was a member of the 1996 Bronze Medal USA Baseball team and was the number-one draft pick by the Pittsburgh Pirates, Clemson's first number-one draft pick regardless of sport. He was honored with the highly distinguished Smith Award National Player-of-the-Year and named ACC Player of the Year. Benson was a first-team All-American selection by Baseball America, Collegiate Baseball, American Baseball Coaches Association, and the Super Smith Team.

After all the awards have been given, Tiger Band will begin playing "Sock It To 'Em/Tiger Rag" and make its way to the east end of Memorial Stadium to form a tunnel. This tunnel serves as the traditional entrance that the Tigers run through. At this point, fans are just seconds away from witnessing what has been "the most exciting 25 seconds in college football from a color and pageantry standpoint."

At the designated moment, the cannon fires

Clemson University Alma Mater:

Where the Blue Ridge yawns its greatness
Where the Tigers play
Here the sons of dear old Clemson Reign supreme always.

Chorus

Dear old Clemson, we will triumph
And with all our might
That the Tigers roar may echo
O'er the mountain height and the frenzy of excitement begins. The players "Rub the Rock" hoping to gain some of its magical power before they charge onto the field. Thousand of fans are on their feet ready to cheer the Tigers to victory.

Today's halftime show will be entitled "El Tigre". Music selections will include the appropriately titled "El Tigre" and Bill Holloman's Latin Jazz Classic "Malaga." Also at halftime the members of the Centennial Team will be recognized.

The Tiger Band would like to welcome over 80 new members to the ranks and wishes them good luck in their first performance in Death Valley. They would also like to express their gratitude to McDonald's of Clemson, Westminster, and Seneca for providing their pregame meal for today.

To prepare for the big day, the band members participated in a pre-season band camp that started before class began. They practiced an average of two or three times a day.

The athletic department would like to thank Tiger Band for their dedication and commitment to Clemson University and Clemson Football. They are an enormous part in sparking the Clemson spirit in fans all over the nation.

Tiger Band is a main component of the festive color and pageantry of a Clemson football weekend.

CLEMSON STRENGTH TRAINING

Clemson fans look forward to seeing tough, hard-nosed football when they come to Death Valley or travel to other schools to watch their Tigers in action. But, some of the Tigers' most intense competition and action doesn't take place on a field. Take a peek into the Clemson Strength Training Room at almost any time of day, almost any day of the week, at any time of the year, and you will see the Tigers building the foundation for their pursuit of a championship.

With years of experience on the professional and college level, Head

Strength Coach Gary Wade knows what it takes to get a team in the physical shape needed to play. Wade and Clemson administrators have developed a facility that provides Clemson athletes with the very best in equipment, supervision and atmosphere, as he knows that success in the area of strength training will mean success on the football field. Wade was an assistant at Nebraska and the Head Strength Coach of the Detroit Lions, prior to coming to Clemson in 1985

Wade and his staff work constantly to ensure that their facility and their program is one of the nation's best. Several renovations made over the last several years have ensured that it is among the best, on the collegiate and professional levels. It is no accident that the Tigers have posted a 91-26-3 record, won four ACC championships and had 17 first- or second-team All-Americans, and 52 first-team all-conference selections since Wade joined the Clemson staff.

Perhaps the most impressive characteristic of the facility is its size. Several years ago, it was enlarged to an astounding 11,000 square feet, making it one of the largest in the nation. Last year, it grew to an even more impressive 14,000 square feet.

The facility boasts two full lines of Nautilus machines and over 12 tons of weights. The large number of machines and free weights allows the room to be used by athletes from several different sports at the same time without anyone having to wait in line at a particular position.

The plush atmosphere provides an interesting contrast to the physical exertion that takes place in the facility.

When an athlete enters the etched glass doors, he or she is greeted by plush, wall-to-wall carpeting, walls lined with mirrors, ceiling fans, and music from a 26-speaker sound system—a worthy backdrop for well over $500,000 worth of state of the art equipment.

Four color television monitors are also positioned throughout the facility. These monitors are used for training and instruction as Tiger strength coaches film the athletes and work with them on form correction. When not in use for this purpose, the televisions are hooked into the sound system to allow athletes to work out to the tunes of the latest music videos.

Recently, the operation of the strength training facility was enhanced by the addition of a new computer system. Tiger strength coaches are now able to enter all the current strength data and goals for an athlete and the computer will generate an individual 10-week conditioning program that will help the athlete reach optimum results.

WOMEN'S SOCCER

By Sam Blackman

Clemson women's soccer has come of age.

The Lady Tigers' first-ever women's soccer class has now reached upperclassman status and with the addition of an excellent recruiting corp, Clemson should continue to build on the unexpected fortunes of the first two seasons.

In the first two years of Lady Tiger soccer, Clemson has been ranked for the last 18 polls (over a two-year span) and has appeared in two NCAA Tournaments—a feat that would make the oldest of programs proud.

This year's team will have quality depth and speed like never before. It will also be a squad that will exhibit more explosiveness—reflecting the emphasis placed on offensive prowess during the recruiting period.

"In our recruiting, we tried to improve our attack and our goal-scoring ability," said Head Women's Soccer Coach Tracey Leone.

"With the addition of freshmen Jennifer Crawford, Libby King, Beth Keller, Suzanne Finn, Alison Burpee, and (red-shirt) Sheri Bueter, I think this part of our game will improve drastically."

Clemson has Sheri Bueter returning after she missed the 1995 season with a knee injury. Bueter was the third leading scorer in the inaugural year of Clemson soccer with nine goals. Her return will make Clemson more multi-dimensional, as she not only scores goals, but creates them. She had 13 assists in 1994, tied for third in the league.

Another characteristic of the 1996 team is the versatility of the players. So many of the Lady Tigers can play several positions—a pleasant problem to have when choosing starters.

"The freshmen who started the program are now juniors and are more mature. We are still in the process of developing more leadership roles. Our team will have the ability to play different ways and that is something we will have to decide at the beginning of the year. We could play a 3-5-2, a 4-4-2, a 4-3-3, or a 3-4-3; we could play many different ways with our personnel and our incoming freshmen. This is the first time we have had this luxury of having so many options with the style we will use. We will have to see what system suits our team in the preseason and throughout the season."

The Lady Tigers outscored their opponents 60-17 last season. However, the coaching staff feels the team will be more explosive with the depth and experience that will be a hallmark of the 1996 squad.

Clemson returns six starters and 13 letterwinners. The Lady Tigers finished the season winning six of their last eight matches, concluding its season with a loss to Texas A&M in the first round of the NCAA Tournament.

This year's schedule also will feature several NCAA Tournament teams. Clemson will play the traditional powers in the ACC in addition to top teams such as Stanford, Santa Clara, Georgia, George Washington and South Carolina, before concluding with the ACC Tournament to be held on Historic Riggs Field in Clemson, SC. The Lady Tigers will be looking for their third consecutive NCAA Tournament bid.

"We have a very demanding schedule this season. As your team grows so should the schedule, and we feel our team is ready to accept the challenge of this schedule.

"We have had success from day one. We still have a long way to go, but we are pleased with the progress we have made in the past two years. Our team has worked hard preparing for 1996 and the maturity factor has improved. The next step needed to reach the next level is to develop more leadership. We are looking forward to our third year."

Clemson has excellent depth in the goal-keeping area. The Lady Tigers feature two juniors, one sophomore, and an "experienced" freshman coming to campus. Junior Meredith McCullen started 20 games for the Lady Tigers last season, and she was named first-team All-ACC. In her 1,710 minutes played, she gave up only 16 goals and posted a 0.84 goal allowed average. She also made 77 saves.

Clemson's defense was very solid last year as the team only gave up 17 goals in 21 games last season, and registered 11 shutouts. "We are excited about the development of our defense so far. We have some good depth and a wealth of experience in this area."

The backs will again be very deep with Cheri Hooper, Katie Barnett, Angela Brames, Jennifer Wilhelm, Tracy McCarroll, Julie Johnson, Ragan Calvert and Diana Akin coming back this fall. Many of the players are versatile and can play any of the four back positions.

Clemson returns three starters in the midfield from 1995. They include first-team All-ACC selection and sophomore Sara Burkett, sophomore Lindsay Massengale, and junior Christie Szyman. Szyman played in the back and in the midfield for the Lady Tigers last season. She started 19 games and missed two contests because of injury. Szyman finished the season with six assists and was named team MVP.

Sheri Bueter is returning after missing the 1995 season with a knee injury to key the forward position. "We should have much more depth up front this season. Sheri Bueter is coming back and we signed two great front runners, Jenny Crawford and Libby King. Lissa Mansberry is coming off a tremendous year, and we also can play Katie Barnett, Lindsay Massengale, Cheri Hooper, Julie Johnson, and Diana Akin up front. I think we will be extremely dangerous at the forward position. Last year, we struggled at times to score goals, however this season, we will have several people who can put the ball in the back of the net."

THE LAST WORD

By Bob Bradley

My freshman year at Clemson started in the fall of 1941, which meant that Frank Howard only had a one year start on me. The year before was his first year as head coach of the Tigers. Howard had done all right in '40, posting a 6-2-1 overall record and was Southern Conference champions with an unblemished 4-0 league mark.

By 1941, Howard was already thinking about building a 20,000-seat stadium, despite the advice rendered by Coach Jess Neely before he left for Rice in 1939.

Howard, who won 13 of his first 16 games, was preparing to motor his team over to Greenville to play Coach Dizzy McLeod's Purple House of Magic. The Tigers had just one black mark on their scoreboard—an 18-14 upset from South Carolina in the annual Big Thursday game in Columbia.

There was talk of another post season bowl for Clemson as the Country Gentlemen had waltzed through Presbyterian, Virginia Military, N.C. State, Boston College, George Washington and Wake Forest prior to the Furman game.

The Tigers were to have a good number of standouts in capacity-packed (18,000) Sistine Stadium on a cold, gray afternoon. Sid Tinsley was the leading rusher with 127 yards, including a 58-yard scamper to score; Walter "Booty" Payne, who ran, passed, kicked, returned punts and had an interception, Joe Blalock, George Fritts, Charlie Wright, were others who made contributions on the afternoon.

Clemson's defensive line was so stingy that Furman ended up with minus 21 yards rushing, which to this day is a Clemson record for rushing defense.

But maybe the one guy who could be singled out as possibly 'taking over' the offense was fullback Charlie Timmons. Timmons, a native of Abbeville, who would spend all of his adult life in Greenville, was best remembered for scoring the lone touchdown in Clemson's 6-3 victory in the Cotton Bowl over Boston College. He, along with Blalock and Fritts, were all sophomores on that '39 team.

Timmons, using half spins and full spinners out of the backfield, ran the ball 19 times that afternoon at Furman and averaged better than five yards a carry (103 yards gained). Payne and Tinsley each scored a touchdown, but Churnin' Charlie crossed the alumni line three times and kicked four extra points to score

22 of Clemson's 34 points.

The Abbeville native, an All-Southern back his junior year, also completed his only pass for 40 yards, caught one pass for nine yards and returned a kickoff for 37 yards.

In the first quarter, after Payne had returned a punt to the Clemson 46, the Tigers started their scoring drive as Timmons faked a reverse and ripped off 14 yards around end to the Purple Hurricane 31. The senior fullback ran three straight spinners for another first down at the 20. Payne, faking a pass, tore off up the middle to go in for the score, with Timmons adding the placement. The game was six minutes old.

Starting from the Furman 44 after a wind-blown punt travelled only two yards, Timmons roared off 16 between short runs by Payne and Harry Franklin, which placed the ball on the Furman 10.

Here's how Greenville News sports editor Carter "Scoop" Latimer described Timmons' second score:

"Timmons, running like a mad bull, faked a reverse and then tore off his own left guard for a touchdown, scoring standing up. Timmons again made a perfect extra point placement and the Tiger lead mounted to 14-0 with three minutes left in the first period."

Furman got the ball at the Tiger 47 after a punt. Jim Barnett made a lightning-strike by connecting with end Bill Seel at the 25 and Seel raced in untouched, but the extra point failed.

Tinsley's 58-yard run after a punt padded Clemson's lead in the third quarter after Consistent Charlie's PAT. Clemson took advantage of a Charlie Wright interception which set up another score from the Furman 29 after an 11-yard return.

Clemson's defense continued to stymie Furman's offensive efforts. Tinsley came up with an eight-yard return of a punt, but ripped off a 39-yard jaunt to the Furman 23. On a fourth and one Tinsley and Franklin set the table for Timmons to slid over for this final Clemson score — and his third of the day — from the three. This time his PAT was good and the Tigers were in command, 34-6, which turned out to be the final score.

Latimer labeled the Clemson team "talented and terrific, capitalizing on power, precision and deception." He called Howard's machine "the greatest perhaps that ever rolled from Calhoun's hills." And Latimer had every reason for this expression as the Tigers rolled up 350 yards of total offense while holding Furman to 35.

Timmons accounted for 185 all-purpose yards in this game—close to a school record in those days—but the victory pushed Clemson two more notches to 16th in the national polls and gave Howard his second straight victory over Furman.

The Clemson-Furman rivalry was as bitter as any along then and the Tigers only held a 14-10-4 edge when Howard took over in 1940. Some say that Neely told Howard: "You'd better come on and go to Rice with us. After Furman beats you three or four times, they will run you out of the county." To which Howard boastfully said: "Furman ain't never gonna beat me." And they didn't. Howard was 19-0 lifetime against the Hurricane.

This was brought about with people like Charlie Timmons, a member of the Clemson Centennial team, and other great players. Howard, with a little luck here and there, apparently knew what he was talking about.

Timmons, a member of Clemson's Centennial Team, had one of his top all-around games against Furman in 1941.
