TOOLS & RESOURCES

NAXOS MUSIC LIBRARY

Naxos Music Library (NML) is the world's largest online classical music library. It offers streaming access to more than 143,000 CDs with more than 2,223,000 tracks of both standard and rare repertoire. Over 600 new CDs are added to the library every month.

The contents can be searched by composer, work, genre, label, keyword search, and by an advanced search with up to 13 combined search criteria. In addition to allowing subscribers to listen to recordings, NML provides liner notes for many recordings. You can create personalized playlists or use predefined Naxos Music Library playlists. The library also offers playlists for graded music exams (ABRSM, Trinity/Guildhall) in various categories and grades. In addition, you can download the apps for Android and iOS devices, search and browse the music catalog, and create playlists.

Furthermore, a vast array of background information is available. Resources include:

- Audio book transcriptions about the history of classical music and opera with listening examples
- Libretti and synopses of over 700 operas
- A pronunciation guide for composer and artist names
- A glossary
- An overview of important musical terms
- Work analyses
- Work details with

instrumentation, publishers, duration, other information and available recordings

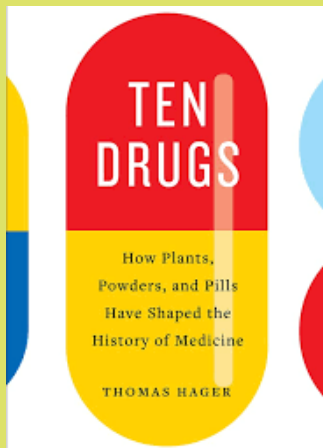

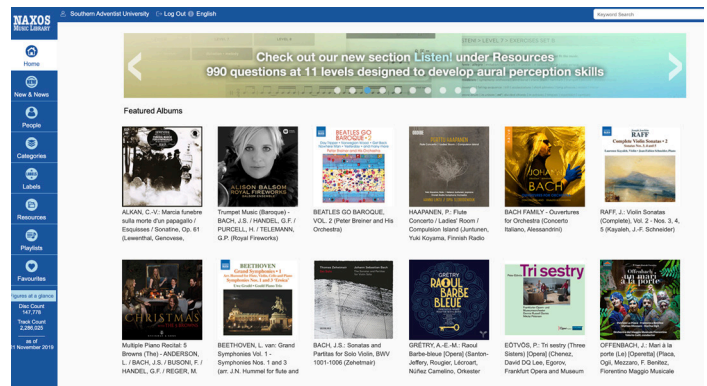

- Classical music podcasts

FROM THE VAULT

An exhibit of Mark Twain letters and materials are currently on exhibit

About the Items

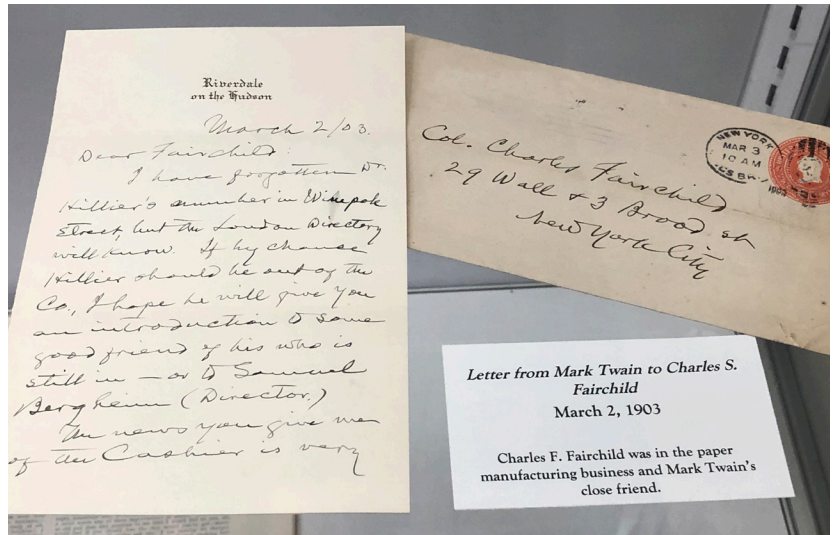

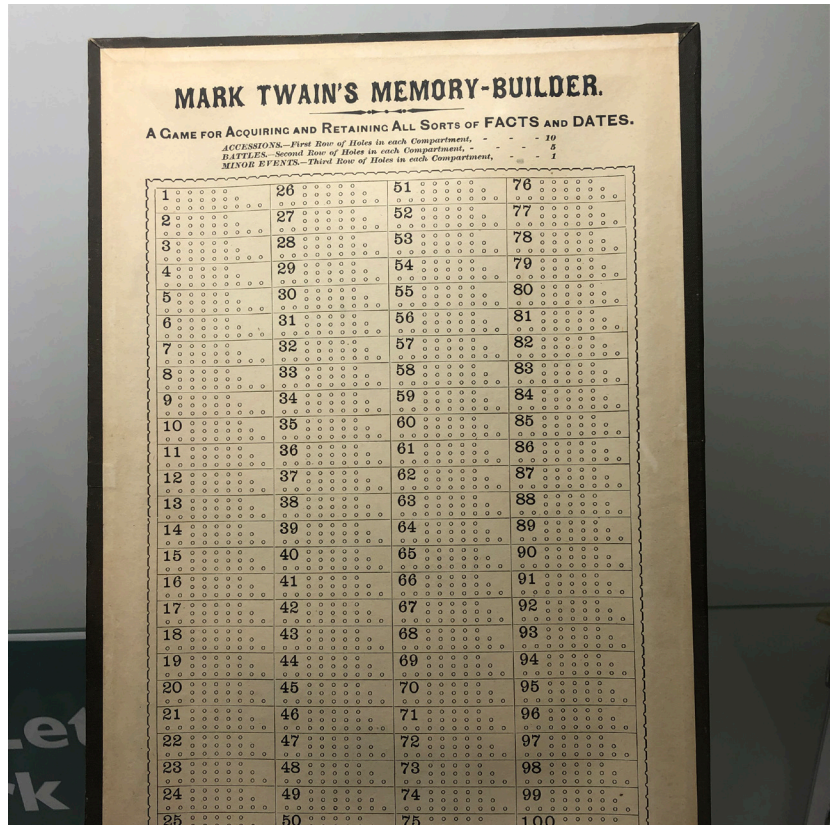

A collection of materials, including letters written by Mark Twain and a board game he created called “Mark Twain’s Memory-Builder” are on display at the library.

About the Collection

The Duane and Eunice Bietz Collection houses books by and about Mark Twain. Included in the collection are several rare first editions, signed copies, periodicals, memorabilia, and authentic letters written by Mark Twain. The collection was donated to McKee Library by Duane and Eunice Bietz in 2009.

View the Item

The exhibit is on display on the library’s main floor, near the director’s office. Please contact Deyse Bravo at dbravo@southern.edu for more information on the library’s special collections or to view the materials in person.
