John Brown Cler. Parliamentorum.

Die Fovis 18. Maii 1643.

It is this day Ordered by the Lords and Commons in Parliament assembled, That Sir William Goring Baronet, Sir Thomas Parker, Sir Thomas Henley, Sir Thomas Eversfield Knights, John Alford, Henry Goring, Thomas Sherley, Edward Goring, Thomas Challoner, Henry Shelley, Henry Peck, Francis Sellwyn, Herbert Board, Nicholas Gildrege, John Board, George Churcher, William Hay, Henry Bridger, Thomas Ancombe, William Marlot, Thomas Jeffery, William Thomas Esquires, be added to the Committees named in the Ordinances for the weekly Assesments, and for seizing and sequestering the Estates of Papists, notorious Delinquents, &c. in the County of Suffex; and that they shall have as full and ample power to all Intents, as the other Committees named in the said Ordinances, have, might, or ought to have.

Io. Browne Cler. Parliamentorum.

Die Foris, 18 Maii. 1643.

Whereas the Lords and Commons in this present Parliament have made an Ordinance for the speedy raising and leavying of money throughout the Kingdome of England and Dominion of Wales, for the reliefe of the Common-wealth, by taxing such as have not at all contributed or lent, or not according to their estates and abilities: And whereas the Associate Counties of Essex, Suffolke, Norfolke, Cambridge, Isle of Ely, Hertford, and County of the City of Norwich, out of their good and ready affections have lately sent Forces with Armes, Powder, Bullet, and other Ammunition out of their severall Counties, for the defence of the King, Parliament, and Kingdome, which they have paid with all the Officers belonging to the said Forces, for two moneths, but having many charges lying upon them, cannot pay the said Forces and

and Officers any longer without their great impoverishment: The said Lords and Commons doe therefore ordaine, that such summe and summes of money as are and shall be assessed upon such person and persons as are of ability and have not contributed and lent, and have contributed and lent, yet not according to their abilities by vertue of the said Ordinance in the said respective Counties, shall be imploied to the use and for the maintaining of the said Forces sent out of the said Counties respectively: And that all such summes of money so assessed and rated as aforesaid, as shall be received by the Collectors nominated for that purpose shall be paid by the said Collectors to such Treasurers as shall be appointed by the Committees named in the said Ordinance in their respective Counties, or any three or more of them, And that the said Treasurers shall dispose of the same to the use aforesaid upon warrant directed to them under the hands of the Lieutenant or Deputy-Lieutenants of the said respective Counties, or any two or more of them, and Officers any longer hold their great Imperial Privilege: For the said and Countess do therefore declare, that they have and shal have of us and shall be added upon their persons and goods as all of our subjects have the rights and just and due countenances and yet not according to their offices and duties of the said Countess in the said County, shall be implied by the said for the maintaining of the rights due out of the said County rights: and that all their shames and reputation shall be as if they had been to the said Countess as if they had received by the said Countess that purpose shall be done by the letters to the said Countess as if they had been by the Countess named in the said Countess in their respective as any other or more of them, and that the said Countess shall have of the the use thereof upon her own thereunto the hands of the Countess County, and shames of the said Countess County, or any two or more of them.

To Browne Cl. Parliamentum.
