Your paper will be assigned to a new replacement referee. You will be notified when the new referee has been assigned.

The referee process requires two reports per paper. We will return referee reports to you once both reports have been received and checked by our publishing team. THE INTERNATIONAL JOURNAL OF CIVIC, POLITICAL, AND COMMUNITY STUDIES

Dear Dr. Abdul Pirol, Sukirman,

The International Journal of Civic, Political, and Community Studies has received the final referee report for your paper 'Protecting the City from Radical Ideologies and Activities'. You may view the reports at: http://www.cgpublisher.com/works/60803/actions/1/1/manage\_workspace . It is our policy not to vet or alter the referees comments.

Your paper "Protecting the City from Radical Ideologies and Activities" has been Accepted With Revisions for publication in The International Journal of Civic, Political, and Community Studies. Please use the change note available at <http://cgnetworks.org/support/final-submission-downloads-and-guides> to detail the changes you have made to your article as a result of reviewer comments and feedback. In some circumstances we may return this change note to reviewers. Please include the change note as the first page of your resubmitted article. If we do not receive the change note with your revised submission, your article may be withdrawn.

Your paper has been accepted for publication, pending revisions, on the basis that at least one of the referees' reports has recommended publication. When one of the reports recommends against publication, or recommends revisions, we suggest you take this referee's comments particularly seriously, and address their concerns within the bounds of reasonable revision (rather than having to write a substantially different article).

The International Journal of Civic, Political, and Community Studies is a fully peer-refereed journal. Only those articles that are accepted by independent referees will be published in the journal. Our refereeing process is rigorous, consistent, fair, and objective. Each article is sent to a minimum of two referees for review.

Common Ground journals are internationally recognized and indexed in major databases around the world. Please visit the journal website at <http://ijhcpc.cgpublisher.com> for further information.

You will soon be offered the Publishing Agreement. Once the Publishing Agreement has been accepted you will be requested to upload a final revised version of your article for typesetting and publication. If we do not receive a change note with your revised submission, your article will not proceed and may be withdrawn.

We look forward to receiving your final submission.
