As the Bloemfontein correspondent of strategy in recocupying Ladybrand and Thaba N'Chu was bold and even brilliant. Most of his force is composed of Free Staters; and the advantage gained by them will have a most disturbing effect on the mind of the Free State population. The impossibility of affording complete protection, for the moment to all farmers in the south and southeast sections of the Free State, is geoognized at Bloemfontein. Men who surrendered under the proclamation of Lord Roberts are now being punished for the reliance they placed in the ability of the British to protect them. As the correspondent further remarked, "This is a hard fate and every possible effort will be made to help them; but consideration for the sufferings of repentant belligerents at the hands of their fellow countrymen cannot be suffered to prejudice the military plans of Lord Roberts." The Daily Telegraph, which takes a more humans view, says: "It is just as important to protect those burghers who have trusted in our power and surrendered all means of defending themselves as it is to win victories against those who are still in arms.."

BRITISH PLUCK.

Boers Admired the Courage Displayed Saturday.

Bushman's Kop, Monday, April 8. Hearing that the water works were deserted the Heuter's telegram agent rode forward today. Arriving at the crest of a hill a volley was fired at him and a mement later a man appeared at the top of the crest. Calling on him to stop firing and saying he was unarmed and desired to talk with him, the correspondent discovered that this man was an American, who declared that he accompanied the Boers only as a sight-seer. He said that during his whole life he had never witsuch magnificent pluck as that shown by the British Saturday and be asserted that not only himself but the behavior. DID REICHMAN LEAD BOERS?

The war office has posted a despatch from Lord Roberts as follows:

"Bloemfontein, April 2, 10,30 p. m.—In continuation of my telegram of March 31, there has been considerable delay in getting accurate returns of the casualties, as the action took place 22 mile hence; the telegraph cabe has been in-terrupted several timee; cloudy weather has interfered with signalling, and al though there has been no engagement since, the force is undoubtedly in touch with the enemy.

But Major Taylor and a sergeant major succeeded in escaping in the confusion. Five guns were exptured at the same time. Burther de ails tomorrew." Lord Roberts' despates seems fixally to dispose of the earlier report of the reto dispose of the earlier report of the recovery of the guns, and the fact that the absence of definite information regarding the movements of General French's cavalry makes it difficult to estimate their chances of adding the crowning

The passage of the channel was smooth and the Queen suffered no discomfort, although she expressed regret that the premature departure from Holy Head, owing to the threatening weather conditions, should cause her Irish suffices disappointment. It had been efficially arnounced that she would reach Kingstown at 5,30 p. m., Tuesday instead of 2 p. m., but at the latter hour, the Victoria and Albert loomed up through the haze and rain and was greeted with the thunds of twenty-one guns from each ship of the British channel squadron. The recent run of good luck which the British have been having undoubtedly made them overcontident and reckless.

The outlook now is that the condition of the finances will permit some reduction of taxation during the present session of Congress, and inquiry has already teen made of the Secretary of the Treasury with this end in view. One of the taxes most likely to be taken off, if a reduction is found possible, is that on proprietary medicines, which is much complained of ty proprietors and pairons, while the law is difficult of interpretation owing to obscurities. A slight while the law is difficult of interpretation owing to obscurities. A slight concession to the brewers in the way of rebate is also talked of. The stamp taxes on bank checks and stock transactions will probably be left in force.

Municipal elections are affected so largely by local issues that it is not safe to predicate very much upon them in regard to national polities. In a Presidential year, however, party lines are likely to be drawn to a considerable extent, especially in the larger cities and therefore the result is not without significance as to the standing of the two parties. Hence the election in Cincionati may be fairly interpreted as indicating the strongth of the Republican and Democratic parties in that city. Indeed, it would seem that if either party was at a deadwantage it was the Republican.

Diamocrat. disadvantage it was the Republican, since it was understood that George B. Cox, not a very reputable boss, was the guiding spirit of the Republican campaign, and would be the real power if the Republican candidate was elected.

There was radical disagreement between him and the commissioner of pensions about the commissioner a good deal by posing as the special friend of the veteran. When the Secretary of the Interior resigned be thought his successor should come from Missouri, the state of which he is a citisen. CURRENT COMMENT.

LONG AND THE VICE PRESIDENCY (Boston Adwertiser.)

(Beston Advertiser.)

The decline of the vice-presidency in repute, in influence, in attractiveness to first-class public men, is a fact as undestable as it is lamentable and greatly lameated in these days by thoughtful students of our political institutions. Lamentation, however, will do little or nothing to remedy the evil. The best remedy will be to put in the vice-president's chair a man who, by the force of his own character and the breadth and loftiness of his own fame will compel the country to appreciate that office as she framers of the Constitution meant it should be appreciated. When the chance comes to do that, when such a man can be had, it is a chance too rare and precious to be neglected. And that, after all, is the supreme reason why the Republicans of Massachusetts want to have J. D. Long nominated at Phitadelphia for vice-president of the United States.

Propensity for Issuing Orders

Washington, April 1.—Capt. Richard P. Leary's proposity for Issuing decrees or general orders in his capacity as Governor of Guam is believed by saveral officials to be the real reason for the de-The Navy Department, which has immediate jurisdiction over Guam, will not ment's explanation of the order for Capt. Leary's recall is that his regular tour of sea and foreign shore duty will be about completed when he returns to the United States. It is known, however that some of the radical changes made by the American Governor were not approved by the Administration in Washington, and will be rescinded by Capt. Leary's successor, Commander Seaton Schroeder. In addition to the order, of which The Sun has told, abeliahing coneubinage and making marriage compul-sory, Capt. Leary issued another decree prohibiting public celebrations of saints' days. This last order was not indorsed permitted to stand.

Between Aug.16, 1899, and Feb. 8, 1900. Capt. Leary issued fourteen general orders. Copies of all of these have been received as the Navy Department, but for some reason all except a few were kept secret. There is much of interest in some of these orders, and it is plain from their provisions that Capt. Leary believes date of Aug. 16, 1890, Capt. Leary pro-hibited any person not a resident of Guam before the Aug. 7 previous from seiling intoxicating liquors. That was General Order No. 1. which was shared by the Navy Department, was issued Aug. 2. It prohibits 'public celebrations of feast days of the patron saints of villages, etc'. Such celebrations, it says, must take place "within the walls of the church, chapel or private residence," and, "unless otherwise orered the only public holidays recognized will be Sandays and the holidays authorized by the United States statute laws and by the proclamations of the President."

An order of Oct. 4, prohibited the exportation of cattle, hogs, fowls, eggs, rice, eern and sweet potatoes. This was issued on account of the scarcity of food in the fisland.

On Nov. 1 Capt. Leary revived his orders about intextesting liquors and decreed that "drunkenness, the chief source of all crime and trouble in this island, must and shall cease," Another order directs that dogs shall be licensed and that no animals must be permitted to run at large.

On Jan. 5, 1900, Capt. Leary issued an order abolishing the Spanish system of taxation on real estate, and decreed a new schedule. An order dated Jan. 16, 1800, starts off by an expression of regret for "the licentious and lawises conduct of some of the men belonging to this station, which made it necessary to issue the order. Capt. Leary calls attention "to the fact that the natives of Guam are not damaed dagces, nor 'niggers,' but they are law-aliding, respectful human beings," entitled to as much courtesy, respect and protection "as are the best of times of New York, Washington or any other home city." He refers to "the several diagraceful cases of assault committed by persons attached to this station, interfering with the functions of local officials, ruthlessly destroying private property, viclously violating the sanctity of native homes, etc. worthy only of the dastardly cowards and blackguards who were implicated in these acts." This order provided that "religious Instruction in favor of any particular church or creed is prohibited," and all religious training climinated, "as the proper place for religious traching is the bome circle, church, chapel or Suuday school."

One of the most int-resting orders, issued Jan. 28, 1900, provided that "every adult resident of this island must learn to write his or her own name before the first day of July, 1909, unless prevented from doing so by phayloal disability."

Capt. Leary directed that "the signature must be plain and legible for use when required legal on documents or commercial transactions, and must be without arramentations, soroll or other rubrical decoration." He offered, in this order, to furnish facilities to people who learn to write their names, and recommended to all residents to learn how to read, write and speak English.

The last order received, dated Feb. 3, 1900, prohibited "any person attached to this domunand" from living with the natives "chumorro fashion." directed that such persons be placed in quarantine, and provided for their punishment.

When placing on the market the new product Van Houten's Chocolate (for eating), some time ago, the manufacturers had before them the object of offering buyers a nutritive and digestible Chocolate of irreproachable composition, while at the same time more dellcious in flavor than any of the already existing kinds; in other words, a Chocolate which, both from the point of view as to health as well as to flavor, should satisfy the most exacting demands. The first case presented to the jury was the case of George W. Willey against the town of Windham, to recover the sum of plaintiff for his services as road worked, and a dollar a day for his horse. that they are not riable on the ground that the plaintiff did not file any bond. The plaintiff claims that the selectmen told him that he need not lile a bond, but the town claims that they did request him to file a bond. The plaintiff however, contends that inasmuch as the town allowed him to do the work, and they received the tenedit of it, they are now estopped from defending on thi charge for horse bi e 's expensive. After the testimony for the plaintiff was all in, Mr. Haskell, of the couns l for defendants, moved that the plaintil become nonsuit on the ground that the statutes required that the road commisdoner lile a bond in order to qualify the office; and also, that it has already been derited by the Eupreme court of this state, that in such case, where a bond s required to be filed, the filing of such bond becomes a necessary not in order to entitle such officer to the emclument f the office; that he must not only te an officer de facto but an officer de jure.

There being no testimony in the case to show that a bond had been filed, the court sustained the motion, and ordered norsuls to be entered. Counsel for defendant took exceptions to this ruling. Boston Girl

How many people have experienced the symptoms described by this Boston girl? Pallor, loss of appetite, listlessness, headache,all betray a condition which is dangerous but which Dr. Williams' Pink Pills will surely cure. Miss K. A. Dunbar, of 605 Massachusetts Avenue, Boston, is the girl. She says:

"I had no appetite and was as pale as a ghost, and the headaches I used to have in the back of my head were something awful. Sleep gave me no refreshment. A friend who noticed how ill I looked talked to me about Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People, and finally persuaded me to try them. I soon began to notice that my appetite and color was returning; by the time I had taken six boxes the weariness was all gone and I felt fine. I have had no return of the trouble, thanks to Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People."

THE SHOW NOT READY.

Paris, April 3 -The state of unpre paredness of the exposition was brought up in the chamter of deputies this afternoon when M. Gustave Chapuls, radical republican, introduced a resolution inviting the government to postpone the opening. He said that in view of the present state of the works the inauguration on April 14 was simply a balt to draw the provincials and foreigners to see places which would not be ready until a month later.

and, replied that the organizers had met with all sorts of difficulties, which had delayed the progress of the work. Nevertheless, he added, no exposition had ever been so ready as this one at a similar period. M. Milleand's statement elicited loud applause from the socialists and radicals and the resolution of M. Chanuis was rejected by a vote of 357 to 58.

ARGUING THE CLARK GASE.

Washington, April 3 .- Argument in the cast of Senator Clark of Montana was b gun by counsel for the memoralists today before the Senate committee on privileges and elections. Arthur A. Birney, counsel for the memorialists, was the first speaker, Mr. Birney contended that Mr. Clark had become a candidate as early as August, 1898, and had, he urged, determined to go to the Senate regardless of all considerations of virtue and morality. While claiming the necessity of wresting the control of state affairs from Mr. Daly, Mr. Clerk when on the witness stand had been entirely unable to state any case in which his power had been exercised in opposition to the best interests of the state. Mr. Birney commented at length upon Mr. Clark's testimony, contending that the Senator had put himself in a most unusual position.

Mr. Birney had not concluded when the committee adjourned until Thursday.

CAPT. BAKER UNDER FIRE.

Company Under His Command Makes An Important Capture,

The Manila Freedom has the follow ing account of the experiences of Captain of this city in an expedition against the Filipines: Company E of the 46th infantry finished its campaign in the country afound Subig with a sharp engagement in which they killed fifteen of the enemy and wounded 89 others, besides capturing four cannons, nine Mausers, two Remingtons, several thousand rounds of am-munition and a lot of hats, belts, knapsacks and personal property, dropped by the insurgents in their flight.

The company, in command of Captain J. H. Baker, started from Subig Saturday orning, January 20th, to clear the country toward San Narciese of a band of bri gands who were said to infest that vicinity. They went by the way of Castellojos and San Marcelio and arrived at San Narcisso at 5.30 the same evening. All seemed friendly there and many spent the rest of the evening inspecting the beautiful litt'e city, which is a place of some ten thousand, neatly laid off in with the unsual church and plaza in the center. Its order and cleanliners attracted much attention. The company slept in the church that night; its massive walls offering the best protection to be found in case of need. After breakfast and a ceremonious faretook up its return march, going back by way of San Antonio. It got to the latter place in time for an early dinner.

The people of Ean Antonio were ver friendly-excessively so. They didn't want the troops to move on. They insisted that they should at least spend the day and did all that they could to delay their start. It was necessary to buy some horses, and though they were assured that plenty were to be had, none seemed to be forthcoming. One beautiful cream colored horse took the captain's eye, but it could not be bought at any price It was admired, petted and examined, till the whole company knew it unmistakably, even without the big letter "H' branded on its flank. Binally one horse was negotiated for and the company prepared to move.

But their tribulations were not over yet. Their hospitable entertainers had won the bull-driver over to their side, and he announced that the caraboa which drew the cart of ammunition and supplies, was sick and could go no farther. Under gentle pressure another was found by the presidente, who also furpished a driver with it.

At last the company moved out toward Castellejos, marobing in columns of two. No thought of the enemy was entertained, because a detachment of forty scouts from the Twenty-fifth had been over the same road only a few hours pre-viously, meeting and scattering a band of the insurgents, and it was not supposed they could have raited and returned in so short a time. When two miles out of San Antonio marching still in a column of twos. along an open road, they approached large dike, running at right angles across the line of road on both sides. A small fringe of bushes along this dike hid the view beyond. When the head of the col umn was within 75 yards of this it was fired upon with a cannon and a shower of bolts and scrap iron fell around. That seems to have been a signal, to immediately the enemy opened up from behind the dike on both sides, while three other cannon added their jagged scraps and whistling bolts to those of the

Though this took but a short time, it seemed long as the storm of misas began to rain around. But the effect was noticeable as soon as the regular foileys began, and in less than half an hour the enemy was silenced and scattered.

The ground behind the dike showed plainly the marks of the combat. The gead Filipines were lying about, while belts, knapsacks and everything could impede flight were scattered around. TAXES IN PORTO RICO.

An Expert Objects to Transfer of Our

Internal Revenue System in Toto.

Washington, April 8 .- During th nate on the Porto Rico bill today, Senstor Fairbanks presented the following cablegram from Governor General Davis of Porto Rice:

"San Juan de Porto Rico, March 29. "Letter by next matt from Prof. Hollander strongly advising against legisla tive requirement of United States inter national revenue laws or fixed per cent age thereof for Porto Bloo. He urges that tax system for this island should be made to suit local conditions and harmonize with home requirements. Hope of attaining such a system will be uurealizable it unsuited tax laws are forced on the island and proper measures prevented.

(Signed) "Davis."
Senator Fairbanks explained that Prof. Hollander is an expert on questions of taxation who was sent to Porto Rico at the request of General Davis to make a study of these questions. REVENUE WON'T BE CUT.

Washington, April 3.—At the cabinet neeting today a dispatch was read from General Otis covering the operations of the army in the Philippines for a considerable period. The subject of a reduc tion in the revenues by Congress was discussed. It is understood that the admin-istration is in favor of a revision of the war revenue act so as to cut down the receipts but in view of the fact that to make any move in that direction prob ably would prolong the present session of Congress for many weeks if not months it is thought by representative Republiadvisable at this session. The resignation of Assistant Secretary Webster Davis, was discussed and it is understood the President will accept the same through the secretary of the interior. DIED IN THE SENATE.

Albany, April 3,-Assemblyman Kalsey's bill to permit women to vote at town elections was killed in the Senate today. This was the only woman's suffrage proposition considered by this legislature

New York Stock, Money and Gra Market Review

By direct private wire to Louis S. Co well, manager of Price, McCarmick company's branch office, No. 218 Midd

New York, April 8.-The opening the stock market was irregular, the stocks being under considerable pressu as a result of the failure of the Feder Steel stockholders to vote for an amen ment to their charters so as to enable t directors to pay a dividend on the con mon during the current year.

The railroad stocks were fairly stror and London was a randerate buyer of it ternationals. The professional element encouraged by the weakness in the streets sold the rairoad stocks and af the first half hour the whels market veloped a reactionary tendency. Ho were not serious and the buying of the were not serious and the buying of their on the decline was decidedly good. This was especially the case in Atchison common and preferred, Union Pacific, North ern Pacific and Baltimore and Obio For a while it looked as if the disappointment in regard to the steel stock had checked speculation on the part of the outside public, but during the after poon business revived and during the last noon business revived and during the le hour and a half showed considerable a extraordinary rise in Baltimore at Ohto. The buying which caused the a vance was called good, but there was definite news in regard to the property account for it, It is true there w terms favorable to the stockholders, t object of the new issue being the acquition of the Pittsburg and Western. many quarters, however, it is belies that the Baltimore and Ohio advance w in reality due to purchases by Pennsy vania and that they are made in purs ance of a plan formulated some time ag by which the control of all the princip bituminous coal carrying roads is to lodged in the hands of people who contr the Pennsylvania people are to be repr sented in the directorates of the Norfol and Westers, Baltimore and Ohio, La Eric and Western and possibly some other time in the history of the New You Central and Pennsylvania have the i terests which control these two lar, properties worked so harmoniously as present, and it is believed that the ou come of the deals which are now in pr gress will be the control of all the impoant Eastern trunk lines by the same i terests. People who profess to know th some such deal is in progress predict ex sremely sharp advances for Pennsylvan and New York Central, and there is b little doubt but that the assurance of ti-stability of rates in the eastern trun-lines will be maintained in the future will justify materially higher prices f the securities of these two propartie strength of the Reading and Jersey Ce tral securities it being believed that ste are also te'ng taken to provide for ha mony between the hard coal carrying roads. The railroad stocks although the reacted just before the close, were strong and final quotations were well about those of yesterday.

Portland Wholesale Market

PORTLAND, April 3.
The Flour situation is very satisfactory, jo bers report a good business, and prices are a firm basis with some millers holding for be ter figures. The prevailing opinion among deers is, that between now and the first of May shall witness much higher prices for Flo Wheat strong. Corn is excited and strong the advance. Oats firmer and a trifle bett Millfeed sympathizes with Wheat and Corn, at we notice a better feeling. Groceries steady at unchanged. Dry fish quiet. Provisions stro and in good demand. Poultry firm and high with native Chickens scarce and wanted. Eg firmer. Onions have been advanced from 25 35c a barrel. Turpentine steady. Castor oil 1 up. Morphine is weak and 10c lower. Lu ber firmer on covering boards. Preesed H bout 50e higher; supply rather short. FREIGHTS-River Plate lumber orders ed tinue to offer in market, but o; erations are held | X cedar | Clear cedar | Jin check by the unwillingness of owners to | X No i cedar | X N omptly accept the bids submitted by shippers. The latter are prepared to meet $13 00@ 13 50 from Gull ports to Euenos Ayres. $11@ $12 for small and medium size vessels f om outside Provincial ports, $10 from Portland, and $9 5022810 from Boston, but there rates do not appear satisfactory to ewners. Hence a bark Forest City... of 655 tons obtains the basis of $12 for w. lumber. Tonnage to and from West Ind a ports is quite actively inquired for, but vessels suita of freight are firm, and the tengency is stronger in view of the advancing season. lumber rates have further weakened. Coal fits to Eastern points continue extremely dull, and with fonnage abundant the market is unsettled. We quote New York to Portland an | Pos on 5 @80c, and to Sound ports 55@60c. Philadelphia rates are down to $1 and 85c respectfully.

BRIEF JOTTINGS.

The larger of the two wooden bridges at the Oaks will probably have to be re-placed this season. It was so unstable last year, that it was found necessary to brace it by wires stretched to nearby trees. A durable stone bridge, a proper structure, would cost about $3,000, but this sum cannot be spared at present. A wooden bridge can be built for $800 it is estimated. The commissioners have in view extension of the walks and other improvements not yet fully arranged.

The purchasers of the projecty have planned to have the old buildings which have so long disfigured it, removed with a view of grading the grounds, and beautifying them with driveways, walks and lawns, so that the property can be devoted exclusively to club purposes.

The work of rebuilding the walls an grading the grounds will be comm the present week. A fence is to be built across the end of the property next to the line of the Grand Trunk railway, and alo between the club house and smelting works properties.

It has also been announced that the club will during the present month ex tend an invitation to Hon. Charles M. Moses, collector of the port, and Gen. Joshua L.
