"I have been most freely quoted without authority from me or without any utterance on my part. It has been a source of great annoyance to me." His statement is as follows:

His statement is as follows:

"On the 20th of last September I issued an order to regimental commanders ordering them to report to me concerning the beef which had been issued to their men. At the time I went before the warboard investigating committee I had received reports from only 14 of the commanders. Now I have 20 reports. They all tell the same story. The evidence proving the truth of the statements which I made is abundant and overwhelming. In addition to the reports of the regimental commanders I have a great mass of evidence consisting of communications, affidavits, etc., from officers, soldiers and civillans. Every part of the country has contributed to the mass of correspondence which I have received in reference to the beef served to our soldiers and the evidence is all corroborative of what I have said.

I have overwhelming evidence that the embalmed beef was treated with chemicals in order to preserve it. I have affidavits from men who saw the beef undergoing the treatment or embalming process. Now, as to the canned roast beef, that was different from the embalmed beef. The canned roast beef was the beef after the extract had been boiled out of it. You have seen the advertisement 'Beef extract, one pound contains the substance of from four to five pounds of prime beef,' well, this is the beef after the extract has been taken from it. They put this beef pulp up in cans and labeled it 'Canned roast beef.'

upposed Murderess Said to Have Left the City on a Freight Train--Husband and Wife Had Been Separated for Two Years--Wife Had Vainly Tried to Make Up-Said to Have Made Threats Against the Givl.

Rochester, N. H., January 31.-A care ully planned and most cruelly carried out murder, the result of jealousy, came to light this afternoon when the body of Annie Cox, 18 years of age, of Calais, Me., was found in a pool of blood in the house of Henry Provenchia on Harrison avenue. The mystery connected with the finding of the body was in a measure soon cleared up and what was at first thought to have been a suicide proved to be a murder.

Mrs. Lizzie Provenchia it is alleged onfessed to having done the deed and furthermore to having expressed her intention to kill her husband, whom fortunately she did not meet while she had the revolver in her possession. She is, however, missing, and is known to have left this city on a freight train.

The story which resulted in today's limax, is an interesting one. Provenchia and his wife separated about two years ago, Mrs. Provenchia remaining in Columbus, Ohio, January Si.—Dr. W. S. Scott, ex-president of the Ohio state university lecturing on the ethics of the late war, declared the invasion of Porto Rico unjustifiable, the naval battle at Manila without justifiable excuse, and said Spain should not cede Porto Rico and the Philippines. He said any arguments which would justify the keeping of the islands would justify human slavery. on seeing her husband, she asked him to kiss her. He refused and stated that he

Mrs. Fuse, mother of Mrs. Provenchia on Congress street. Here both had dinner. Mrs. Fuse the police claim says that in conversation while in the house, Mrs. Provenchia said her object of visiting Rochester was to find and to kill her husband and the Cox woman. She had a 44 calibre revolver with her at the time. Mrs. Fuse says that she entreated Mrs. Provenchia not to do anything rash. Mrs. Fuse, further says that her daughter had threatened at different times to shoot her bureau records as to the weather are as (Mrs. Fuse) but no fear was felt that such an act would be done. About three o'clock Mrs. Provenchia left the house

The police made efforts to intercept the train but they expect such a course will not help them, as they expect Mrs. Provenchia may have escaped from the train and is now, or will be in hiding at Somersworth or Dover.

The pulce took charge of the Provenchia house, placing officers on duty to prevent the throng of curious people from overrunning the house. Coroner Burnham and Dr. Ames were called and a post mortem examination of the body was made. The body was found in the sitting room of the house, face downward, the head resting on a cuspidor. Four shots were fired, all taking effect. The doctors believe that when the lirst shot hit Miss were fired, all taking effect. In searching the house the police found In searching the house the police found two revolvers, one on the stand near the dead woman and one in the chamber upstairs. Provenchia declares that the weapons were just as he had left them in the morning. The chambers of both weapons were full. A surprising feature of the tragedy is the fact that no one has been found as yet who heard the reports of the shots, in spite of the fact that other houses stand near the Provenchia house and the very loud reports caused by the explosion of the heavy calibre shells. Several persons saw Mrs. Provenchia house and the very loud reports caused by the explosion of the heavy calibre shells. SISTER HELD AS WITNESS.

Somersworth, N. H., January 31.—Mrs. Lizzle Provenchia, who is charged with the murder of Miss Annie Cox, a domestic at the home of her husband in Rochester, loday arrived in this city this afternoon. She was accompanied by Agnes Provenchia and reached Somersworth on a freight train between four and five o'clock. The train stopped in the upper yard, near the railroad round house. They left the train at that point, and walked together down-town, and after entering nto conversation with one or riends, Mrs. Provenchia informed . friends, Mrs. Provenchis informed Agnes that she was going to Boston They separated and Agnes went to the house of her sister, Mrs Charles Fectu in Berwick. Me. She remained there during the afternoon and was arrested at seven o'clock to-night. She was taken to Rochester and will be held as a witness to the shooting. It is not known where Mrs. Provenchia went after she left Agnes, but it is generally believed that she is either in this city or Dover tonight.

BOOKS. The old and vexed question, the mileage book, is again before the legislature. Mileage books are now issued to in dividuals at two cents a mile on most of the Maine railroads. If the holder travels 500 miles and has no use for the coupons remaining in his book, they are of no value to any one else if the terms of the sale are observed. The mileage book is good only for the man whose name is written in it. Mr. Gardiner of Patten presented today a bill which would regulate the matter as follows:

Section 1.—Every railroad corporation operating within this state shall provide and have on sale, at a rate not exceeding two cents per mile mileage tickets representing 1000 miles, or less, which shall be accepted and received for fare and passage of the bearer of said mileage ticket, on all lines of said corporation issuing the same.

A QUESTION OF SALARIES.

Judge McFadden came to the front again at the forenoon session of the House. An order hat been presented referring all matters in relation to salarie to the salary committee or processing and moved to amend it by referring to the salary committee only those matters to which the country delegations relinquished their claim. Mr. McFadden objected and Dr. Peaslee came vigorously to the defense of his motion, claiming to the scituation as it now confronts the country, Mr. Platt paid his reserved and Aguingle. Mr. Platt went on to say that we had had a war which had ended gloriously for the country and for the cause of free government throughout the world and now almost six months since the protocol was signed, the treaty of peace, which had been agreed upon, was not ratified. "The two nations have agreed," said Mr. Platt, "Spain has surrendered these two islands. The negotiation of this treaty reflects the greatest honor upon this country that any treaty ever negotiated has reflected. Our countries in the country delegations relinquished their claim. majority of the House cannot be got to support an increase of the salaries of the judges. We have no doubt, however, that the House will support a good many measures less meritorious than this one.

Mayor Quincy has just issued an order cutting down salaries of city officers above $800 seven and one half per cent. It looks as though a good deal of retrenching might be done in the direction of bills for aldermanic back hire.

Gen. Miles has gone to talking again with newspaper reporters about "em-balmed beef." It may be not contrary to army dispeipline to do this, but it is contrary to the dictates of propriety. Let Gen. Miles collect his evidence and lay it before the war department and demand an investigation. Meanwhile let him refrain from talking to everybody who comes along.

The judiciary committee will report in favor of increasing the judge's salaries only $500. This means that the committee to the conclusion that an increase to $5000 cannot pass, for every one What the Hon. Solon Chase legal luminaries.

It is provided that the measure shall be retroactive in its effect, which greatly strengthens the bellef that it was devised expressly for Quay's case. It has passed the Senate, but as the House is not a Quay body it is doubtful

Hon. Stewart L. Woodford appears to have been the victim of a number of fairy tales while in Madrid besides what the Spaniards told him. The statement made in a recent speech by him that at the time the Maine was blown up at Havana that this government did not have ammunition enough to provide the guns of its ships and forts with two rounds apiece, and which he says reached him while Minister at Madrid, is pronounced by Secretary Long utterly unture as far as the navy was concerned at least. If the reasons which you give for your opposition rested on correct premises, they would be of the very greatest weight to my mind, but I am sure that the grounds on which you base them are mistaken, for the ratification of the treaty leaves the islands as they now are, under military government, and enables the United States to determine then what shall be done with them and what relations they shall bear to us.

It is safe to say that every purchaser of a "Hyomei" Outfit becomes a member of the Pass It On Society inside of two weeks. The immediate results obtained from its use the method of application.

I have only slightly touched upon the reasons why the arbitration condition should be changed,—either abrogated entirely,—or by granting a jury trial to determine the amount of loss. These reasons are sufficient, but there are stronger reasons that I need not here state, but which exist.

Very sincerely yours,

ENOCH FOSTER. weeks. The immediate results obtained from its use, the method of application, which enables a person to use it at any time and in any place, invariably compels the purchaser to inform all his friends of this new remedy, which has revolutionized the method of treating respiratory diseases completely. Many of the representative beautiful and the company's offices. ent, all of whom cordially expressed their this slight inclemency in the weather was pany that set out at two o'clock for a sixteen mile ride to Poland Spring, where they arrived at about five o'clock p. m. to find a most cordial welcome awaiting them at the Mansion house. Music and conversation quickly sped the time until the hour for a supper arrived. The march to the dining hall was led by Prof. Teagne. The tables were very tastily corated and loaded with all that is dear to the heart of an epicurean. Through the thoughtfulness of the proprietors a fine picture of Sturtevant hall and campus was seen upon one cover of the menu, while an equally beautiful picture of the Poland Spring house embellished the other. After the inner man had been duly satisfied and each had indulged in a glass of the celebrated Poland water every one seemed to feel its magic effects. At this A. Jewell, James Sinkinson, Isaac A. Hayes, John Brett W.T. Mulloney, Prespoint Mr Cox, class president, introduced Mr. Akers as toastmaster, who, after a ident Fred K. Richards, Vice-President few apt remarks on the advantage of Arthur L. Bates and Secretary J. Frank school life at Hebron academy returned the compliment. Mr. Cox in a very pleas ing way spoke on education. Teague being introduced told the class that he was uncertain as to which of the son of Noah he was descended from, but telt sure that they were all descendants from the same branch and therefore related but that he was more immediately related to the class of '99. He then gave the class much beneficial advice into which he wove a number of humorous stories, and left the following motto with the class: "Learn to think by thinking, learn to know by knowing, learn to be by being." Then Miss Morgan was called upon and she expressed herself in a very commendable way, stating that she had a special interest in the class of '99, as her first year of teaching com menced with their freshman year. Miss Hodsdon next expressed her gratitude to the class and closed by reading the poem, "Morning, Afternoon and Night." W. M. Teague, salutatorian of the class, in his usual self-commanding way gave a clear and vivid history of the class. While cost of material and workmanship, by Miss Dunham, valedectorian, spoke of the unity with which the class had always worked. Mr. Bowman made a few remarks on his school life at Hebron. Mr. Whitman, historian, expressed himself in hour or two which how intervened both the time for starting on the homeward journey, was pleasantive spent in a social manner. I Had Kidney and Heart Trouble, but Dr. Greene's Nervura Oured Me.

Nervous Prostration.

Mrs. Elmira J. Haskins, Essex, N. Y., says: "I do think Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy does wonderful cures, and the simple truth about it is sufficient to recommend it to all. I was entirely prostrated and confined to my was towed from New York by the ocean tug O. 1. Hallenback, and will comfour weeks. EASTMAN BROS. & BANCROFT.

WEEK WILL DO.

For the first time in the history of slot machines we take pleasure in offering to the people an opportunity of investing in one of the best slot machines ever placed upon the market.

Having opened an office in Portland we desire to call your attention to this unusual opportunity which we offer to investors of either large or small amounts and on easy payment, if desired, in the limited amount of stock which we are offering for 30 cents per share, par value, $1.00.

The history of the slot weighing machine is too well known in financial circles to require comment. Our combination weighing, lift and grip machine has proven its ability to carn three times the money of the single mechanism.

OUR FIFTEEN DOLLAR OFFER.

By investing fifteen dollars in the stock of the People's Slot Machine Co. upon

By investing fifteen dollars in the stock of the People's Slot Machine Co. upon our easy payment plan and investing each year's earnings in this same stock, and thus compounding your first investment at a rate of 20 per cent which is a conservative estimate of the dividends which this company will pay, you will find at the end of ten years that your original investment of fifteen dollars will have increased to the sum of $246.52. What more can you ask! Bear in mind that you are subject to no assessments and that the Company looks after your future profits with no care necessary on your part. WHY WILL YOU HESITATE AT SUCH AN OFEER!

We have a machine on exhibition at our office and would be pleased to have you and your friends call and examine the same. We feel sure that no better paying investment is upon the market today than is the stock which we offer. Remember that this investment will stand a thorough investigation both from mercantile agencies or people who now have charge of machines of similar character. As we are offering only a limited number of shares of stock at the above named price you will do justice to yourself by investigating this matter at once. Lose no time. This stock is sure to advance.
