

SWOSU Professor Talks Immigration on OETA Program

05.09.2011

Dr. Fred Gates, associate professor of history in the SWOSU Department of Social Sciences, recently appeared on OETA's weekly discussion show Oklahoma Forum hosted by Dick Pryor.

Dr. Gates was invited by OETA to participate in a round table discussion on immigration. The discussion focused on the National Issues Forum that was held across the state in public libraries to discuss the immigration issue. Dr. Gates participated in the forum held in Weatherford and was chosen to discuss the experience.

The show originally aired on May 1 but is being replayed on OETA stations throughout the month. This episode and others may also be viewed on the OETA website. Simply follow this link and click on the immigration episode at: http://oeta.tv/video/category/oklahoma_forum.html
