Lewiston, Maine, November 4, 1947.

Honorable Mayor Louis P. Gagne
City Building,
Lewiston, Maine.

Mayor Gagne:

I wish to extend to you, my personal thanks for the exceptional interest and splendid services, rendered during the fire emergency. Yours, was one of imparative responsibilities during such a crisis, and same was intelligently, and well administered.

Your declaring a 'fire emergency' was most appropriate, your cooperation in reassembling the Civilian Defense equipment was also timely.

As Chairman of the Board of Fire Commissioners, may I extend to you the respects and gratitude of the Board of Fire Commissioners, for a supreme and meritorious support.

Respectfully yours,

R. M. Thomas, D. C.
