OFFICE OF SELECTMEN, ASSESSORS AND OVERSEERS OF POOR,

TOWN OF Porter
Kezar Falls, Maine

..... December 2 1947

Louis P. Gagne, Mayor
Lewiston
Maine

Dear Mayor:

We are writing in acknowledgment of your item published in a recent newspaper. It is with deep appreciation that we recognize your attitude regarding our debt to your Fire Department. However, we are very very grateful for the fine work done by your Capt. Michael Hawkins, of the fire department. His leadership with our men, and volunteers from other towns was exceptional, and much of our good luck in not losing any property was accomplished through his efforts. As overseers of the town of Porter, Kezar Falls, we wish to extend our sincere thanks to you, the citizens of Lewiston, and the Fire Department of Lewiston for their aid during the recent disaster.

Very sincerely yours,

Preston J. Stanley, Chairman Selectmen
