Calendar: Upcoming Professional Development Opportunities

Check out upcoming professional development opportunities! The TILT TigerLearn event calendar is your go-to for professional development at FHSU! Check it out here: <http://tigerlearn.fhsu.edu/events/>.

To provide faculty and staff with one easy place to see all professional development at FHSU, we're happy to include your event on the TigerLearn calendar. We can include links to your registration site, contact persons for questions, etc. Just contact TILT-FacultyDev@fhsu.edu, and we'll add your event right away!

Academic Advising Certificates and Training

The Academic Advising and Career Exploration Center offers certificates for academic advisors each semester. The schedule for this fall is available below.

If you have attended sessions in the past and need to know which sessions you have left to receive your certificate, please email your name and department to advising@fhsu.edu for assistance.

NOTE: This is open to both faculty and staff. Please feel free to bring your lunch to the session.

RSVP: Please let us know if you are planning to attend by replying to advising@fhsu.edu. We will send you a calendar entry that you will need to “Accept and Send the Response Now”. This will allow us to have the appropriate room size and number of handouts. We look forward to seeing you at our sessions.

ADVISING SPECIAL POPULATIONS CERTIFICATE

This certificate will provide information on working with the diverse needs of our students. Whether you are currently advising students in the population or not, you will gain information that can assist you. Participants must attend each session to receive the certificate. The following are the dates for the spring sessions.

November 7, 2019, 12-1 PM Advising Special Populations-Students with Disabilities

November 21, 2019, 12-1 PM Advising Special Populations-Transfer Students

Novels For Hope

Novels for Hope is a diversity book club which provides an opportunity to read and discuss 2-3 books a semester. Each book and discussion is free-standing, meaning signing up for one book/discussion does not require participation in others.

We will offer a free copy of the book to the first 30 on-campus participants. We work on an honor system and ask that you only sign up to receive a book if you can attend the discussion. The book discussion will be available for the first time via Zoom if those who are not on campus would like to participate in the discussion of this book.

Our second Novels for Hope Book is Just Mercy by Bryan Stevenson. The discussion will take place on November 19 from @3pm in Forsyth Library. To sign up, please visit the following link:

<https://tigerlink.fhsu.edu/submitter/form/start/352253>.

For questions please contact diversity@fhsu.edu

Safe Zone Trainings

More Safe Zone trainings are being offered! Individuals interested in learning how they can be a “safe zone” for others, specifically in the LGBTQ+ community can sign up for November 14th @ 2:30pm or December 6 @ 1pm on Tigerlink:

<https://tigerlink.fhsu.edu/submitter/form/start/354040>

For more information or questions please email diversity@fhsu.edu

International Education Week

International Education Week (IEW) is an opportunity to celebrate the value of international education and exchange worldwide. The International Student Services Office will host a weeklong celebration showcasing an array of events & activities to highlight our international students, exchange students, and students who have studied abroad the week of November 15 & November 18-21.

For a full list of events and activities, please visit our web site at <http://www.fhsu.edu/international/programs/> and click on the International Education Week link.

Please join us in celebrating our FHSU international & exchange students!

Tigers in Service and Global Leadership Project Food Drive

Tigers in Service and the Global Leadership Project are hosting a food drive from today until Nov. 22nd to benefit residents in the Bahamas affected by hurricane Dorian, as well as Ellis County families who are experiencing food insecurity. We are accepting all types of non-perishable food items. Half the donations collected will be sent to the Bahamas for hurricane relief and the other half will be donated to First Call for Help/ECMA to give to families who attend the Community Thanksgiving Meal at the Rose Garden. Donation boxes are located in the Memorial Union by Starbucks and in the Leadership Studies Office in Rarick Hall 235.

Employment Opportunity

FHSU is seeking a full-time Custodian, Sternberg Museum. For a full position description and to apply for the position, please visit the HR webpage at <https://fhsu.wd1.myworkdayjobs.com/CAREERS>

Angel Tree + Student Organization Contest

For the sixth year, we are proud to sponsor an Angel Tree, which will be located on the feature wall on the first floor of the Memorial Union beginning tomorrow, November 16. Those who are interested are invited to pick up a blue or pink angel from the tree and purchase the item(s) listed for a child in need in Ellis County. This program is coordinated by Teaming Up for Tots. Gifts may be dropped off at the Student Engagement Office (former CSI Office) on the lower level of the Memorial Union as well other locations listed on the back of each angel. Please return all gifts by December 13.

Also, we are bringing back the Student Organization contest. To participate, student organizations are asked to adopt an angel and return the gift to the Student Engagement Office by the deadline. Staff in the Student Engagement Office have kindly agreed to track those entries. The organization that adopts the most angels and returns their gifts by the deadline will receive a pizza party for up to 30 paid for by Tigers4Ever. Time/date/details will be agreed upon by the winning organization and Tigers4Ever. In this case, gifts must be returned to the Office of Student Engagement and must be checked in with a staff member to qualify for the contest. So...pool your resources, get creative and adopt some angels to make sure local area children have a great holiday season.

Please contact our advisor, Charlene Nichols, with any questions you may have. Thanks for your continued support of Tigers4Ever. Best wishes to everyone on the final few weeks of the fall semester!

Fall Finals Week Care Packages

T4E is again offering finals week care packages to our friends on campus for a discounted price. Care packages are $25 each or $20 each for those who order 3 or more. Each care package will include 25+ food and drink items as well as a unique FHSU-themed gift item. This year, our students opted to add 3 FHSU items– an ice scraper, a cell phone wallet and a lunch-sized cooler bag. To order, you may visit us online at goforthaysstate.com/T4E or by filling out the attached form and returning it to the Alumni Association office on the first floor of the Robbins Center. Care packages will be delivered to your office on campus. If ordering online, be sure to select FHSU Faculty/Staff from the pull-down menu in answer to “What is your relation to the recipient” to be sure you receive discounted pricing. Funds raised support T4E programming and networking activities. Deadline is November 30, 2019.

Please contact our advisor, Charlene Nichols, with any questions you may have. Thanks for your continued support of Tigers4Ever. Best wishes to everyone on the final few weeks of the fall semester!

Award-Winning Journalist Visiting Campus

November 19 through November 21; Times below

Hammond Hall

As the national news media continue to bring us the latest on the impeachment hearings next week, the Department of Informatics will host the Washington D.C. National News Bureau Chief and Vice President of The E.W. Scripps Company, Ellen Weiss.

A four-time Peabody award winner, she was involved in the coverage of the fall of the Berlin Wall, served as Executive Producer of All Things Considered, and launched NPR's Investigative Unit during her three decades in public radio.

She also worked as executive editor at the nonprofit Center for Public Integrity and joined Scripps in 2013 to help their national news bureau adapt to the new media environment. As News Bureau Chief, she oversees the Investigative and Documentary units at Newsy.

Newsy utilizes OTT technology to stream the important news to Millennials and offers a new voice on cable television. Most recently, Ellen's Investigative Team worked with ProPublica and Reveal on the Emmy-nominated "Case Cleared: How Rape Goes Unpunished in America." A report that has affected the FBI and the Justice Department and led to state audit in Austin, where the city council called for the review of 2,000 rape investigations in the last decade.

You are welcome to attend her class lectures in Hammond Hall while she visits.

Entrepreneur Direct: Speaker Series

Tuesday, November 19; 12:00-1:15pm

The Robbins Center, Eagle Communications Hall

Please join us for our FREE event open to faculty, staff, students, and the public. A reception with appetizers and refreshments is included in the last half of the event. Entrepreneur Direct is a speaker series featuring successful entrepreneurs in an informal setting. The program is intended to connect students with experienced professionals who have stories and advice to share.

Our speaker is Carolina Recchi. She is a tech entrepreneur, COO and co-founder of EdSights. EdSights uses artificial intelligence to help universities increase graduation rates. Edsights works with universities all over the nation and recently secured $1 million in funding from Techstars, Rondo Ventures, and the Kauffman Foundation.

Carolina, along with her sister and co-founder Claudia, immigrated to the US from Italy to attend college. Carolina graduated from Babson College with a degree in international business. She is a 2018 Techstars accelerator program graduate. To date, her company has saved colleges $1.8 million in tuition revenue. Carolina is 25 years old.

This event is organized by the FHSU Center for Entrepreneurship. For more information, please visit:

How Are You? - Conversation on Mental Health with Annalise Sinclair

Wednesday, November 20; 6:00pm

Memorial Union, Fort Hays Ballroom

Every day, we are asked “how are you?” by strangers and friends, alike. It is easy to mindlessly go through this simple exchange of pleasantries, but what happens when we are not “fine” or “good”? Fear of rejection from loved ones or the shame of not being able to handle things on our own can cause us to bottle up our emotions - depression, anxiety, pain - to keep them hidden from the people that care about us most. For many, this can leave us feeling isolated and alone in our time of need. By exploring the ways that authenticity and personal wellness connect, Annalise opens the door for honest conversations about how we support our friends during times of crisis.

This event free to all and is sponsored by the Panhellenic Council, Interfraternity Council, and Student Engagement. Questions? Contact Jacob Ternes at jaternes@fhsu.edu

30th Annual Fred P. Ruda Teaming Up for Tots

Saturday, December 7; 9:00am-1:00pm (come and go)

Center for Applied Technology

The Department of Applied Technology will host community volunteers to assemble approximately 200 wooden toys for children ages 2-6.

The program is designed to spread holiday cheer to local children who may not otherwise receive Christmas presents. All ages are welcome to volunteer for toy production, but children 12 and under must be accompanied by an adult. Jobs include sanding, running parts from station to station, putting on wheels, attaching parts, finishing and, for those who have experience, running some machine operations.

If you cannot volunteer the entire time – please come and go as it fits into your schedule. The event will be held in the Center for Applied Technology (wood shop). No need to RSVP – just show up the day of the event.

New Spanish Class!!

MLNG 390: Beginning Spanish II – Spanish for Tourism and Hospitality

MWF, 2:30 pm – 3:55 pm, RH 395

Students who have completed Spanish I are eligible to enroll in a Spanish II course with an emphasis on linguistic skills for the workplace. The course is designed for tourism and hospitality majors or those with an interest in these and/or related fields. The course, which will cover the same material as Spanish II, will also offer practical tools (vocabulary, cultural competencies) to facilitate communication in a variety of professional settings, including back of house and customer service interactions.
