Music Department of A. C.

Dear Sirs -

In looking over your catalogue I notice you are going to arrange for a number of instructors in music.

If you are still in need of teachers I would like to apply for the position as instructor on the violin, I could also take charge of the band and orchestra work.

I gave private lessons on the violin in Salt Lake City while studying there and have been teaching here four years.

I have given lessons on all instruments commonly used in band and orchestra,

Since coming here I have been leader of an orchestra which has furnished music for most entertainments given here,

Have also, been instructor of the Springville Public School orchestra, I can refer you to A. C. Lund and Clare Reid of the B. Y. U. of Provo, also my teacher W. E. Weike of Salt Lake City,

Would like to give you other references and recommendations if the position is still open,

I will be pleased to hear from you at an early date,

Sincerely yours

M. S. Gudmundson,
