THIS Agency holds itself in readiness to recommend candidates as scientists and teachers for universities, colleges, and schools, or practical positions of all kinds. We consider it a compliment to name applicants without charge. If you desire a position write for circulars.

DURHAM, N. H. April 5, 1904.

President W. J. Kerr,
Logan, Utah.

My Dear Sir:

The season is now approaching when the matter of elections will come up. We shall deem it a great courtesy, if you will kindly write us, stating the positions that will be open in your corps of instruction and on your Experiment Station force. We are endeavoring to supply men in Engineering as well as in other branches of Science. We also have added to our list Economics, English, Athletics, etc. In fact we are trying to supply men in all branches taught in our A. and M. Colleges and in our State Universities. We endeavor to make only such recommendations as we are confident would be of service to you.

Thanking you for the courtesy of an early reply,

Very sincerely,

The Science Agency.
