Dr. W. J. Kerr, Pres't.,
The Utah Agri. College
Logan, Utah

My Dear Sir:

Referring to an Exchange of correspondence with Director Middleton of the Utah Station just before I came here in June in which he advised me to write you regarding my availability, so that should any vacancy occur in the College, or should you learn of any other desirable position you might be in ready touch with me, I beg to say that should I be able to release myself from my present position I desire to secure suitable Employment in the North.

I was, at the time I wrote Director Middleton, Agriculturist in the U.S. Indian Service, resigning my position to come South to reconstruct a large Dairying Establishment here. I could soon complete my work and probably obtain a release from position within a short time.

Would prefer position as Manager of large Dairy farm carrying not less than 100 Cows, Associate Editor of Agri. Journal or as Instructor in Dairy Dept. in an Agri. College.

Anything you might be able to do for me would be very fully appreciated, I assure you.

Thanking you for your early consideration and reply, I await your pleasure and beg to be:

Yours, respectfully,
R. M. Winans

Mr. R. M. Winans,
Ashville, N. C.

Dear Sir:

I am just in receipt of your favor of the 17th inst., replying to which will say that I have pleasure in placing your communication on file, and as soon as any vacancy occurs in any of the departments of Agriculture in the College, you will be notified.

Yours very truly,

W. J. KERR, President.
