MARKET MATCH KANSAS HISTORY

2014

- Created by the Douglas County Food Policy Council and the LiveWell Lawrence Coalition in 2014.
- Initially funded by the City of Lawrence, Douglas County, and Health Department.
- $25,000 pilot year – ran in two Lawrence markets.

2015

- Funded by the City of Lawrence, Douglas County, KDHE, Topeka Community Foundation, Kansas Health Foundation.
- 6 markets in 2015: Atchison, Allen County, Downtown Manhattan, Pittsburg, Lawrence Farmers Market, Cottins Market (Lawrence)
- 2015 Program Impact:
 - SNAP Total: $19,551
 - Match Total: $20,727
 - Cumulative impact: $40,277
 - Total SNAP Users: 351

USER FEEDBACK

- 58% (18/31 respondents) said he/she wouldn't shop at the market without the program's incentive
- 82% (64/78 respondents) replied that the amount & variety of produce he/she purchased increased this season
- Fruits & vegetables are overwhelmingly the number one item purchased at the farmers market by SNAP users

“Eating healthy was expensive. But, now, it's great.”

“It's local. You get to know the person who's doing it over the years...build trust.”

VENDOR FEEDBACK

- 76% (38/50 respondents) agreed or strongly agreed there was an increase in SNAP customers compared to 2015
- 73% (38/52 respondents) agreed or strongly agreed that Market Match had a positive influence on revenue

“Offers healthy food alternatives to new customers. Gets new customers to the market and my stand.”

“The abundance of children shopping with their parents and learning the knowledge of farming and producing wholesome products was great to see... It’s a WIN-WIN program!”

NEXT STEPS

- USDA Food Insecurity Nutrition Incentive (FINI) grant = $5.8 million
- Regional partnership to increase SNAP doubling across Kansas and Missouri – at 68 farmers markets and 117 grocery stores.
- Total population impacted: 316,00 SNAP users
