Pres. W. J. Kerr.

Agri. Col. of Utah

Logan, Utah.

Dear Sir,-

Mr. E. J. Norton, of the Academy, has suggested the possibility of an opening in the "A. C." next year for an all round penman and designer who is also a commercial man of experience.

Owing to a change in the system in use at the Academy but one man will be needed next year and, of course the place goes to the oldest incumbent, and I must look elsewhere.

Prof. Faris has asked that I refer to him concerning my work here and my efficiency. Mr. Norton has kindly offered to answer any inquiries concerning my work, as he has been more or less intimately associated with me in part of the work here.

Should there be a possible opening in the "A. C." I shall be glad to furnish you with further particulars concerning myself, other references, etc.

Thanking you for the favor of an early reply, I am

Respectfully yours,

E. C. Davis.

Yours very truly,
