Union, Idaho, June 26th, 1905.

W. J. Kerr, President,

Agricultural College,

Logan, Utah.

Dear Sir:-

I received your letter of June 9th, and note what you say in regards to Mr. Wilson.

Mr. Wilson was my teacher several years ago, and since then I have taken a course in shorthand and typewriting in one of the leading Business Colleges of the Northwest. I thought that if Mr. Wilson was still connected with the College, that perhaps he would be able to assist me in securing a position in the Agricultural College as assistant teacher of those branches. Would it be possible for you to assist me in securing the position.

I thoroughly understand the touch system of type-writing and the Benn Pitman system of shorthand.

I can give recommendations from the Professors of the College where I attended. I took up studies with the intentions of doing office work, but would prefer to teach if I could secure a place.

Hoping for an early
and favorable reply, I am,

Very respectfully,

(Miss) Clara Firth.

July 5, 1905.

Miss Clara Firth,
Union, Idaho.

Dear Madam:-

Replying to your favor of June 26th, will say that there will be no vacancy in the Department of Shorthand and Typewriting next year.

Yours truly,

W. J. KERR, President.
