Upper Alton Ill. June 20th. 1903.

President W. J. Kerr,

Logan Utah.

Dear sir: In your letter of June 12th p. S. M. S. you say that there may be a vacancy in the Department of Modern Languages next year in your institution. If there is an opening, would you kindly address me at Upper Alton Ill. Would you kindly send me a catalogue. I am an A. B. of Adelbert College, 1891, and a Strasbourg Ph. D. 1897. I am now Adjunct Professor of Romance Languages in Vanderbilt University. The climate of Nashville is very debilitating. I would prefer a position in the north or west.

If you should desire it, I can send you testimonials in view of an opening within the next year or two.

Very sincerely
Timothy Moran

July 2, 1903.

Prof. Timothy Cloran,
Upper Alton, Ill.

Dear Sir:--

I have been instructed to inform you that Mr. A. E. Wilson will take charge of our work in modern languages next year. Your name will be kept on file and if a vacancy occurs in the future, President Kerr will be glad to notify you. A catalogue for 1903-04 will be mailed you in a few days.

Yours very truly,

President's Secretary.
