Salt Lake City, Utah, May 18, 1904.

Mr. C. A. Eggert,

1024 Eutaw St., Baltimore, Md.

Dear Sir:

Your letter of April 10th, came duly to hand, but, through inadvertence has been overlooked and not answered before.

I was out of the state at the last session of the Board of Trustees of the Agricultural College, and so was unable to attend the meeting. I understand, however, that your application was acted upon favorably. I trust this is so, as I should have been glad to assist you in securing a position which would have brought you to Utah, where the climatic conditions are so favorable.

I am not the wife of Dr. Richards, but of attorney Franklin S. Richards.

Very truly yours,

Emily S. Richards

My dear Mr Stevens, Writing to Mrs Richards by mistake - I thought I knew her, but find it was a different lady, Mrs Richards, a doctor's wife; I was not expecting an answer, but received to-day this letter.

Was there anything done? If so - will you kindly inform me?

Write mainly because I think it likely that a letter may have gone astray by a change of address. It is now

Very truly
C. A. Eggert
