Ogden, Utah, ⁷⁴ May 27, 1903,

Pres. W. J. Kerr,
Logan, Utah.

Dear Sir, - As I have not heard from you since I sent my acceptance, I have wondered if you received my letter. I am not at all anxious, except to know that you have received my acceptance and that you will save me a pleasant room in some agreeable corner of the institution.

I shall leave Ogden, at the latest, June 14th. Were it not for the extra expense and the fact that I need all of my time for preparation for my European trip, I should visit the College next week.

May I not hear from you before I leave Ogden?

Very respectfully,

Elizabeth Wyant.

Miss Elizabeth Wyant,
Ogden, Utah.

Dear Madam:-

I am just in receipt of your favor of the 27th inst. I received your acceptance in due time, and all of the arrangements for next year's work have been completed. There will be no difficulty in securing a pleasant room for your work. I sent you a statement a few days since of the work you will have for next year.

Very truly yours,

President.
