

Peking Acrobats Coming to SWOSU on Tuesday, March 1

02.22.2016

Hailing from the People's Republic of China, The Peking Acrobats have for decades been diplomats of their spirited culture and on Tuesday, March 1, The Peking Acrobats will share some of that culture in a performance at Southwestern Oklahoma State University in Weatherford.

The performance is part of the 25th anniversary of the Panorama series at SWOSU and will begin at 7:30 p.m. in the Fine Arts Center.

Advance tickets for the event are $10 for individuals with an SWOSU I.D. card and $15 for others. Premium seats are also available for $15 and $20, respectively. All tickets at the door will be $25.

Tickets are available on stubwire.com or by calling 877.990.7882. Tickets are also at the SWOSU Public Relations & Marketing Office, Room 205 of the Administration Building; and SWOSU Sayre campus Business Office.

The Peking Acrobats—a troupe of China's most gifted tumblers, contortionists, jugglers, cyclists and gymnasts—leave audiences spellbound by the graceful presentation of their acrobatics. Panorama Committee Chair Brian Adler said the performance should be an outstanding show and enjoyable for all ages.

SWOSU's Panorama series has been bringing outstanding events to the Weatherford campus since 1991. Panorama is partially supported by an endowed lectureship sponsored by SBC.

Additional information is available by calling the SWOSU Public Relations & Marketing Office at (580) 774-3063.