Winter Park, Sept. 28th, 1886

Miss Alice Guild-

Dear Madam:

I have heard from a sufficient number of the Ex. Committee to secure a majority for your appointment as Teacher of Art for the coming year, upon the terms already given. No doubt the other members of the Com., not heard from as yet, will vote in the same way. I write at once that you may know of your formal appointment. The order for supplies has already been sent as you gave it. I am sure we shall have faithful, systematic and successful work.

Will you give me the degree conferred upon you at graduation by the Art Normal School?

Very truly yours,
E. P. Hooker

Miss Alice M. Guild

Dear Miss Guild

Can I make an appointment with you for the purpose of discussing a possible arrangement for next year with reference to ^{the} out-department of the college?

I shall be at my office
every forenoon this week

Sincerely
