J. H. ACKERMAN
STATE SUPERINTENDENT

STATE OF OREGON
DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC INSTRUCTION
SALEM

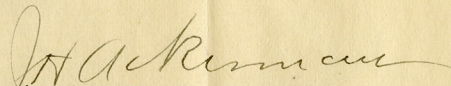

2/2/1903.

Prof. W. J. Kerr,
Logan, Utah,

My Dear Sir:-

In response to your inquiry, will say that domestic science and art is not taught to any extent in the State of Oregon, either in the city or rural districts. However, there is some work being done, in this direction, in the State Normal School at Monmouth. Whatever work is done in this line is done by the school district and said district bears the expense.

Truly yours,

Sup't Public Instruction.
