June 22, 1903.

Mr. W. J. Kerr,

State Director of Utah.

Dear Sir:-

The Hospitality Committee of the N.E.A. have assigned to the Federation of Women's Clubs the pleasant responsibility of expressing in some way at the States' Headquarters the desire of the citizens of Boston to make the strangers within our gates most welcome, and "at home". I am writing to introduce to you Miss Fabens, who, with her aids will represent the Outdoor Art Association at the Hotel where your State is to have Headquarters. If there is any specific way in which she can assist you before your arrival I beg that you will notify her. It is difficult to know just what service we may render until you are on the spot to make your needs known, but the Committee will endeavor to see that the rooms are properly arranged for your reception, and will hold themselves in readiness to cooperate with you in any way on your arrival.

With the assurance of our cordial desire to be of service, I am

Yours very truly,

Mary Morton KeheW

Chairman, Headquarters Committee.

E.S.

Address Miss Edith G. Fabens,
8 Beacon Street,
Boston, Mass.
