Dear Jim:

As I understand it, you, Mr. Willis and Jim Meredith will be coming up Friday and staying over the weekend. I'd like to try to set appointments, or one long session, which will allow us to get everything done that we want to get done. I would suggest Friday afternoon and into the evening if necessary. I also would like to have all three of you out to my home (Chappaqua, 40 miles north of New York) for dinner and to stay overnight either Friday or Saturday. I hope this can be worked out satisfactorily.

In other words, I am putting my time at your disposal, but I would like to have it arranged as concretely as possible. I or my secretary will be calling you Monday about this.

Very best,

Edward Kuhn, Jr.
