Dear Mr. Rubin:

It is reassuring, at least, that the press of more imperishable material has not caused the postponements. My interest is, at this point, primarily the beleaguered Dr. Silver and I do hope his situation will soon be knowledgeably discussed before a national audience.

Very truly yours,

Patrick J. Owens

Jim--I have, I fear, got you into dilatory company. I've asked The New Republic to review your book and we'll see what comes of that. Have ~~had~~ seen no further news of your assailants. All the best.
