Dear Jim:

Joe Mathews has informed me that you are willing to accept the proposition that he has been discussing with you relative to teaching in the Emory Summer School this coming summer of 1957. As outlined to me, it has been agreed that you will teach for us throughout the entire summer term, June 17 - August 17, for a stipend of $1,250.

We are delighted that you are going to be with us this summer and look forward to the opportunity of being associated more closely with you. We do not prepare formal contracts at Emory for summer school teaching; hence this letter will constitute our official written arrangement.

This letter brings my kindest personal regards to you and your family.

Sincerely yours,

A handwritten signature in cursive script that reads "Judson C. Ward, Jr." The signature is written in dark ink and is positioned above the typed name and title.
