Dear Dr. Elmer,

Greetings and salutations.
I was pleased and some what aghast at your suggestion, and ~~am~~ pleased, while speaking for myself, to give you the go ahead.
I feel confident that the others agree with me on this. It would be impossible to contact the others as they are spread from New York to Harway. Most of them aren't coming back to Ole Miss or ye olde Magnolia State.

Give the instigators of this new assault on the the "citadel of State Rights" my best, and I will wait with expectation to see the fruits of the adventure. I am delighted!

I hope you haven't given up on my term paper. I shall mail it down soon and bring it if I make it behind the "curtain" this summer.
I have lost my bulletproof vest and hesitate to venture south without it.

Best of luck, and I repeat it again, work with Noble Papers.

Yours,
Russell H. Shaw
