King Benefit Show Will Aid Integration

NEW YORK, Jan. 9 (AP).—

Dr. Martin Luther King, jr., Southern Negro leader, will be honored by a benefit show on January 27 at Carnegie Hall. Performers will include Frank Sinatra, Dean Martin, Sammy Davis jr., Peter Lawford and Joey Bishop.

The proceeds will aid the Southern Leadership Conference in its fight for desegregation.

NAACP Has Deficit—

The National Association for the Advancement of Colored People revealed in New York yesterday that it received $985,731 in 1960. The report said the contributions rose 15% over 1959. Expenditures amounted to $1,131,248, leaving a deficit of $145,517, the NAACP said.

The two articles above portray the fund raising activities of just two of the many organizations dedicated to forcing integration upon the South.

To carry on any battle, and particularly one against adversaries as powerful as those the South faces, organization is obviously necessary.

The only effective organization that the South has to fight for racial integrity and states rights is the Citizens' Council.
