Dear Professor Silver:

Would you be kind enough to review a book for our monthly publication, History News? This publication goes to both professional and amateur historians.

Perhaps you have already seen the book I have in mind. It is Woods Words, A Comprehensive Dictionary of Loggers' Terms, by Walter F. McCulloch of the School of Forestry at Oregon State College. It was recently published by the Oregon Historical Society.

If you will agree to do the review (about 300 words), I will be very happy to send you the book.

Sincerely yours,

Clement M. Silvestro
