Dear Jim:

In my annual desk cleaning today I found your letter enclosing the carbon of the review for the COMMERCIAL APPEAL and a front page from the Mississippian.

I think it got stuck away before I had a chance to say thanks, both for the review and for the plug to Will Campbell. Thanks.

I assume you enclosed the MISSISSIPPIAN for the straw vote on campus, but I thought the best part was the editorial about the leadership determined to keep the state in last place. That has a certain Silver flavor about it. I trust your boy Barnett is now where he has been trying so hard to get--way out on the outside looking in, if he can see that far.

Best wishes,

A handwritten signature in cursive script, appearing to read "George", with a horizontal line underneath it.
