Dear Dr. Silver:

That particular issue of the Economist seems to have disappeared from our files, and I can't seem to get another. Do you by any chance have an extra copy from which you could have a thermo-fax or something made?

I do want you to keep us in mind if at any time you decide to write on your recent experiences.

Very sincerely yours,
