MRS. HARRY C. OGDEN
ROSEDALE, MISSISSIPPI

June 18, 1961

Dear Dr. Silver:

I don't know to whom I am indebted for my copies of "Mississippi in the Confederacy", but if you had anything to do with it, thank you.

Also, I must express appreciation for the inclusion of excerpts from my little story and from the article by my father and from Mrs. Jacobs' memoirs.
You were very generous to give us so much space when you had to cut out so many pages.
I appreciate it but do hope my little story did not crowd out something more interesting, even though I know it did crowd out more worth while material. Maybe young people will like it better than facts and dates.

Enclosed is a tear sheet from Sunday's issue, June 11th - which you may not have seen. Like you, I am pressed for space. I had seen Waller's books and was just ready to order them when my copies came. I am as happy to include them with my Mississippi Writers, most of whom are or were my personal friends. And I count you in that column, even though you misbehave at times.

Sincerely,

Florence Ogden
