Dear James Meredith!

I am writing you this letter in all sincerity, and I hope you will take it as such, it appears to me that you are a smart and intelligent fellow, you must be, or they would not have admitted you to the University in the first place, but are not using good judgement, when you are letting someone use you as a pawn, as in a game of chess. You are not doing your race any favors by forcing your way into a school, where you are not wanted, the best thing for you to do, is to wash your hands of the mess you have gotten yourself involved in, and go to a University, where you are wanted, and get your education in peace, stop being a pawn, be a man. You will then gain the respect of the white race, and you will do your own race a great favor.

in all sincerity

Andrew Jensen
