

University of Mississippi eGrove

Correspondence: Anti-integration

James Meredith Collection

10-15-1962

David As[eler] to Mr. J. Meredith (15 October 1962)

David As[eler]

Follow this and additional works at: https://egrove.olemiss.edu/mercorr_anti

Recommended Citation

As[eler], David, "David As[eler] to Mr. J. Meredith (15 October 1962)" (1962). Correspondence: Anti-integration. 197. https://egrove.olemiss.edu/mercorr_anti/197

This Book is brought to you for free and open access by the James Meredith Collection at eGrove. It has been accepted for inclusion in Correspondence: Anti-integration by an authorized administrator of eGrove. For more information, please contact egrove@olemiss.edu.

Lenox, N.Y.

Oct 15, 1962

Dear Mr. J. Meredith.

You have no one to blame but yourself for the killings and injuries that took place in Oxford Mississippi. Up until then I was neutral regards to segregation.

After this last episode millions of white citizens up north as well as the southerners feel very bitter against you and your race, this is causing the white people all over these United States to unite as one body, which in the future will make it harder on your race in social life in their community.

I hope you have come to your senses and realize the mistake you have done.

Yours truly
David Aschitz
420 E. Bay Dr.
Long Beach, N.Y.