

University of Mississippi
eGrove

Correspondence: Pro-integration

James Meredith Collection

10-3-1962

Swenne Becker to Mr. Meredith (3 October 1962)

Swenne Becker

Follow this and additional works at: https://egrove.olemiss.edu/mercorr_pro

Recommended Citation

Becker, Swenne, "Swenne Becker to Mr. Meredith (3 October 1962)" (1962). Correspondence: Pro-integration. 150.
https://egrove.olemiss.edu/mercorr_pro/150

This Book is brought to you for free and open access by the James Meredith Collection at eGrove. It has been accepted for inclusion in Correspondence: Pro-integration by an authorized administrator of eGrove. For more information, please contact egrove@olemiss.edu.

Answered

11/28/62

50 Albert St.,
Sundas, Ontario, Canada
October 3, 1962

Dear Mr. Meredith,

The eyes of the world are upon you and you are conducting yourself with dignity and super-human courage. There are many of us in Canada who are with you in spirit (as witnessed by the enclosed editorial). We passionately hope that your example, in a world filled with man's inhumanity to man, will show that calm rationality in fighting for your beliefs will win out over hatred and violence.

You have earned the unbounded admiration of all sane, thinking men in the world and have the fervent hopes of all of us for the success of your ^{dangerous} venture. May Mississippi ~~of~~ acquit herself of her shame and become an example to the world of the freedom and good citizenship of North America!

Good luck!

Yours sincerely,
Svenne Becker
(Mrs. J. A.)