MRS. HELEN K. AMTER • 450 RACE • DENVER 6, COLORADO

October 1, 1962

Dear Mr. Meredith,

Your courageous resolve to help end the bigotry and undemocratic attitude of a minority segment of the American people, should not pass unacknowledged.

Please know that there are many citizens who deeply deplore and truly apologize for the inexcusable actions of some people during the past week.

You, sir, are a fine example of the pioneer stock that made our country great - a credit to the United States and to the Negro race.

If we are to survive these troubled international problems, it will be you and others like you who will make that survival worthwhile -

Thank you,
Sincerely, Helen K. Amter
