Mr. James Meredith,
c/o University of Mississippi,
Oxford, Miss.

Dear Mr. Meredith,

It is with great interest that we in Canada have followed your role in the fight for integration. Words cannot express how deeply we admire the courage you have shown in taking on this task of opening the doors of the university to our brothers and sisters of the coloured race.

We applaud your efforts and hope that in the not too distant future the spirit of unselfishness demonstrated by you and others will bring to your people the equality which they have been so long and so unjustly denied. This is the fervent hope of every fair-minded citizen of Canada and we wish you every success in the tremendous task you have undertaken.

Sincerely yours,

Grace W Barclay
