Dear Mr. Meredith,

I have been watching your attempt at registration to the University of Miss. for the past few days. I would like you to know that I sincerely hope you are successful in overcoming the segregational "barrier".

Freedom to a proper Education is one of the foremost rights of every American citizen.

Your actions have been very courageous. I admire you and pray for you well-

As I am a white person, I do not suffer the prejudices that you do but, I very strongly feel that to discriminate is against nature and against God.

God Bless You!

Susan D. Pocaterra
