

University of Mississippi
eGrove

Correspondence: Pro-integration

James Meredith Collection

10-2-1962

Margaret Torgersen to Mr. Meredith (2 October 1962)

Margaret Torgersen Torgersen

Follow this and additional works at: https://egrove.olemiss.edu/mercorr_pro

Recommended Citation

Torgersen, Margaret Torgersen, "Margaret Torgersen to Mr. Meredith (2 October 1962)" (1962). Correspondence: Pro-integration. 453. https://egrove.olemiss.edu/mercorr_pro/453

This Book is brought to you for free and open access by the James Meredith Collection at eGrove. It has been accepted for inclusion in Correspondence: Pro-integration by an authorized administrator of eGrove. For more information, please contact egrove@olemiss.edu.

October 2

Dear Mr Meredith

The fact that I live in a northern city tempts me to feel it may be sentimental and useless to write you, for to write is merely to underline how little my friends and I are able to share your burden. But perhaps it is never amiss to express admiration and appreciation, and this I must do for my own conscience, whether it helps you or not.

You are living what you believe and are setting an example to all of us in a most tragic time. I pray for you and your wife, that you may each sense what a blessing you are to your fellow-citizens as your example challenges us all to do what is right for us to do as we are given opportunity.

Whenever my call to action and sacrifice comes to me I hope I may answer as you have done.

Sincerely,

Margaret Torgersen

Mrs. Gordon M. Torgersen